Plane Crashes into River; Two Brothers Escape Death

OTTO LISEC, JR., and brother Warren, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Lisec, 1122 N. Mitchell, Arlington Heights, found themselves in the Des Plaines river Sunday when their 2-seated Swift 125 failed in a takeoff from Wheeling's PalWaukee airport. They received lacerations but waded through the waist-deep water to safety.

Two Arlington Heights brothers narrowly escaped death Sunday noon when their plane failed on a take-off from Wheeling's Pal-Waukee airport and crashed into the Des Plaines river about 2 blocks north of Palatine rd.

Otto T. Lisec Jr., 22, and his brother Warren, 19, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Lisec, 1122 N. Mitchell, had just left the airport in a 2 seated Swift 125 when the engine failed. The plane struck trees on the river bank and plunged into the waist-high water.

OTTO JR., WAS piloting the plane, which he had purchased only Friday. Their parents were waiting at the airport for a ride and saw the crash.

Otto received severe lacerations to the upper forehead and was treated for shock. Warren was cut over the left eye, but escaped without serious injury. He was released from Highland Park hospital Sunday, but Otto, an engineman second class in the U. S. Navy, was transferred to Great Lakes Naval hospital.

The younger Lisec brother gave the following account of the accident: "We were taking off and got up all right, but then the motor popped and made a funny noise. The plane dipped. The engine caught on again, but the wing hit the trees and we fell into the river.

"I OPENED THE top of the plane and crawled onto the wing. The water was only waist deep. When we walked out of the water I heard somebody say that he saw us go down. I didn't remember what happened from then on until I got into the police car."

Otto Lisec had approximately 200 hours flying time to his credit. The plane was to be pulled out of the river Tuesday and the Lisecs reported that it was repairable.

Place School Tax To Voters Again

Election Slated Sept. 7

Arlington Heights elementary school board Tuesday voted to hold an election Saturday, Sept. 7 on an increase of 12½ cents in the educational tax rate.

JUNE 8 DISTRICT voters rejected the increase by 21 votes in a total vote of 1,095. The count was 558-537.

However measures to issue $350,000 in bonds for new classrooms passed by narrow margins in the June election.

The rate will go from $1.125 to $1.25 per $100 of assessed property valuation if voters approve the referendum.

SCHOOL BOARD members pointed out that many area school districts have already gone to the higher rate, including Mt. Prospect, Palatine, Wheeling, Prospect Heights, Elk Grove and Des Plaines.

"The money is needed to operate and pay teachers' salaries for the expanding enrollment of district 25," declared board member Roger J. Burke. "Eighty per cent of the educational fund is spent directly on teacher salaries. The remainder goes for janitorial salaries, library facilities and other items."

He estimated the proposed jump would add only about 3 per cent to tax bills. This would amount to $9 a year on a $300 real estate tax bill, $18 on a $600 bill.

"MANY NEW residents moved to Arlington Heights because of the excellent reputation of its schools," observed member Mrs. Mildred Froyd. "If we want to maintain the high quality of education for our children, we must be willing to pay for it."

Board member Kenneth J. Anderson noted that costs have risen constantly throughout the system, with the basic teacher salary rising yearly because of the teacher shortage.

Voting will be from noon to 7 p. m. in the 6 primary schools in the village. Residence requirements are the same as for other elections. Persons need not be registered in order to vote however.

Need Teacher Housing

The housing situation has reached a critical stage for many of the Mt. Prospect school teachers. Lack of response to previous housing appeals leaves the need still very urgent for apartments or rooms with kitchen facilities.

Please call the superintendent's office, CL. 3-1014, with any information as to available vacancies.

Man, 33, Is Convicted, Fined on Delinquency Charge

Arlington Heights Police Magistrate William F. Neumann Wednesday found a 33-year-old man guilty of contributing to the delinquency of a minor and fined him the maximum of $200.

He was Raymond E. Keller, who was fired from his job as a locker room attendant at Rolling Green country club after police arrested him on the charge August 5.

Keller had previously served time in prison for a morals conviction in Newport News, Va.

Police Sgt. Tom Vidrick testified the man approached a 13-year-old boy downtown about 7 p.m. August 5, offered to take him to a movie and buy him candy. The boy refused to go with Keller, saying he would have to go home to ask his father.

THE BOY'S mother called police, who sent several officers to the local theater, thinking Keller might have gone there.

The officers apprehended him for questioning when he came out. The boy identified him as the man who had approached him.

Keller said his home is in New Jersey and that he had come here to work for the summer.

Judge Neumann said Keller would work out the fine in county jail at the rate of 50 cents a day if he could not pay.

Also fined was Allen Loveless, 17, of 3409 Betty, Wheeling township, on a charge of disorderly conduct. Police said Officer George Boa, investigating a complaint August 2, asked Loveless why he had been fighting and was promptly challenged by the youth.

Boa, who is 6 ft., 4 in. tall, arrested the 5 ft., 8 in. boy after a slight scuffle. Loveless will join the air force.

Robert Swanson, 17, of 510 N. Derbyshire, Arlington Heights, was fined $40 for riding his motorcycle 73 miles an hour in a 35-mile-an-hour zone on Wilke rd. one day last month.

Burglars Ransack Two Homes Here

An heirloom ring studded with rubies, opals and pearls was among valuables stolen from the Paul B. Barnes home, 702 S. Dunton, Saturday night by burglars who broken a window on a kitchen door to gain entry.

Also missing when the couple returned home early Sunday morning were a portable radio, a pair of binoculars and a coin collection.

Thieves ripped open letters, tumbled the contents of drawers about dining and bedrooms and strewed papers all about the house. Barnes placed the value of goods stolen at about $400.

ONE BLOCK away, at the R. M. Lippold home, 642 S. Evergreen, burglars tried to jimmy their way through 2 doors, finally broke windows after doing considerable damage to the doors. An estimate of the loss was not available.

Friday night Donald E. Heugel, 1020 N. Forrest, reported that a suitcase full of clothing was taken from his auto parked in front of his home. The same day 4 bicycles were stolen from Recreation park but later recovered.

Plan New Store Building At Miner, Dunton Sts. — If

A building to house 7 retail stores will be erected on the northwest corner of Miner and Dunton if the Arlington Heights zoning board of appeals agrees to waive off-street parking requirements.

The present store building on the site will be razed with the Mors bakery to occupy quarters in the proposed structure. A building at the rear of the lot housing bakery ovens would be left standing.

Howard Faber, who acquired the property and reopened the bakery last year, said 4 stores would front on Miner, 3 on Dunton. The building would be of one story except for a small apartment section on the Dunton side.

FABER WILL ASK that parking requirements be waived at a zoning board hearing at 8 p.m. Monday. His building would cover practically all of the corner and leave no room for parking on the lot, he added.

The owner said the present 2-story building will be razed after one unit of the new building is completed, to allow the bakery to stay in business.

Summer Stage Will Present Comedy

Summer Stage will present "Dear Ruth," a 2-act comedy by Norman Krasna, August 16 and 17 at the North school, 410 N. State, Arlington Heights, at 8 p.m.

The entire cast will provide an entertaining evening, including John Anderson, who takes the part of Albert Kummer.

THIS DRAMATIC group was started last summer to further the aspirations of young people interested in dramatics. Its first season was a big success and it is hoped that the second season will be even greater.

Tickets are available from club members and will also be sold at the door.

Jury Rules Suicide in Death

A coroner's jury Tuesday returned a ruling of suicide at an inquest into the death of Arthur J. Hamann, 41, of 108 S. Highland, Arlington Heights, Monday afternoon.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. today at St. Peter Evangelical Lutheran church in Arlington Heights, with burial in the church cemetery.

POLICE SGT. Oscar E. Johnson said a shotgun was found alongside Hammand's body on the basement floor. The family doctor pronounced him dead a few minutes later. He had been under medical care, according to testimony at the inquest.

Hamann was employed in Des Plaines as a machinist. He had lived in the village for 30 years and was born in Palatine.

Survivors include his widow, Lorraine, sons Roger and Marvin, daughters Barbara, Joyce and Irene, brothers Charles, Jr. and Alfred, sisters Alma Mensching and Elsie Wede and his father, Charles Sr.

Teacher Hasz Hurt In Auto Accident

Principal Martin Hasz of St. Paul Lutheran school was injured last Friday night when thrown to the parkway in collision between auto which he was driving and a Wisconsin auto at the corner of Emerson and Busse.

The victim was removed to Resurrection hospital where examination revealed painful bruises but no fractures.

Driver of the other auto was charged by the police with failure to yield the right of way. Principal Haaz was driving his son's auto east on Busse and the Wisconsin car was proceeding south on Emerson. Struck on left rear fender, the Haaz auto was spun around and the driver catapulted from the door when it opened.

The Editor's Column

by STUART R. PADDOCK

The herd of elk in Busse Woods, Elk Grove, is creating new trouble for Charles G. Sauers, superintendent of the forest preserve district. The elk are having too many "children." (At least we do not have to provide school rooms for them.)

The last time Sauers attempted to thin out the herd, a wave of protest by the general public caused its abandonment.

If the love life of the elk cannot be curbed, we can't blame Sauers if he provides some elk steaks for county institutions. We trust he's too wise to order the entire herd destroyed.

If the village of Mount Prospect carries to the state supreme court an appeal from the latest zoning decision of Judge Fisher, that municipality will be doing a good deed for other municipalities which face similar situations.

A Mount Prospect dentist sought to maintain his office in his residence. Village zoning says "no;" Judge Fisher says "yes."

If legalized, nothing would prohibit the erection of signs in residential areas advertising beauty parlors and contractor's offices.

Rolling Meadows' desire to create its own park district can be understood. It's the right answer. The present Palatine rural district would not take kindly to providing modern park facilities for that thriving city of more than 8,000 persons. Wheeling township rural park district will soon face the same problem.

The 1957 4-H Fair is now history. New records in attendance and displays were established. Again the North Cook county fair has outshown its rivals.

The invasion of Chicagoland into rural areas has not lessened interest in farm animals, products, and 4-H club achievements.

Elk Grove Village surpassed all other municipalities in the suburban area in building permits for July.

As we see it, thousands of homes must be constructed to support all those shopping centers that are on the way.

Home building in this area is proceeding on such a scale that it is difficult for even a reporter to keep posted on locations. Municipal employees are having nearly as much trouble answering inquiries.

Spraying against Dutch elm disease is poisoning many birds. Cook county forest preserve reports indicate that despite spraying, elms are being lost.

The curator of the herbarium of the Natural History museum says, "Since the songbirds help to control the balance of nature, which is preferable to sacrifice: the birds or the elms?"

We would like to know if our readers have noticed, is there less singing by our feathered friends these bright mornings?

It is doubtful if any theatre production has received greater promotion than "My Fair Lady," which is at last coming to Chicago.

The Shubert theatre announced last week that mail orders will be accepted 3 weeks before box office sales will start. It failed to say when the choice seats at $7 a throw would be open to theatre agencies, formerly known as "ticket scalpers."

To test the honesty of the box office, we are tempted to send in a check asking for seats in the first few rows.

Fourteen dollars is a lot of money for a 2-hour entertainment. If any reader who has the extra $14 wants to take our place on the "testing lane," speak up!

We would like to know what there is about the show that caused New York people to become so excited.

The increased coverage of news stories keyed to the individual communities served by Paddock Publications is extending to "editor's columns."

Announcement was made last week that the Rolling Meadows editor will write her own editorial comment, starting this week.

As our staff of editors increases, so do the editor's columns. Six of these editors have columns covering local affairs in their communities.

Girl, 9, Hurt In Auto Mishap

Nine-year-old Joy Lynn Burhop of 745 S. Chestnut, Arlington Heights, suffered knee and chest bruises when a car in which she was riding collided with another last Wednesday morning at Fairview and Pine.

Mrs. Elsie Winters, 1206 W. Central rd., Arlington Heights, was taking the girl to a Bible class when the mishap occurred.

High School Student Fee Payments Now Accepted

With the opening of school only 3 weeks away, Arlington high school authorities are now accepting the payment of student fees for the 1957-58 school year.

Offices will be open the weeks of August 19-23 and 26-30, from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. and on Saturday mornings, August 24 and 31, from 9 a.m. to 12 noon.

Sophomores, juniors, and seniors will pay their fees in the Arlington high school business office, corner of Euclid and Walnut. Freshmen should report to the administration office of the new Prospect high school, 801 W. Foundry rd. The office is located on the first floor of the 3 story academic section facing Foundry rd.

THE STUDENT fee is $10.50 and covers the cost of book rental, physical education towel fee, insurance, and subscription to the school newspaper. When the student pays his fees he will receive his class schedule and textbooks.

WHILE paying regular fees, students may order their 1957-58 yearbook for $4.50, and purchase their athletic season book for $3.50. This athletic book covers 19 events — 4 football games, 9 basketball games, and 6 wresting matches. Total value represented in these home games is $18.

Football players should not purchase season books until the close of football season.

Checks should be made out to township high school district no. 214.

STUDENTS living 1½ miles or more from school will receive an application for a bus pass which will provide free transportation to and from either building. Bus routes will be published in Paddock Publications before school starts.

Students planning to drive automobiles to school should secure a parking sticker from the attendance office. Because of limited parking facilities, some students will not receive permission to drive to school this year. Use of bus service by those living more than 1½ miles from school should leave ample parking space for the students who actually need car transportation.

Student cars will be parked in the west parking lot at Arlington high school and are not to be removed during the school day except by special permission from Nelson Lowry, dean.

Pape Zoning Pleas Denied

(CNS) — A Wheeling township property owner from Arlington Heights struck out 3 times before the county board Tuesday.

The commissioners denied 3 rezoning requests from Arthur O. Pape, 259 Palatine rd., Arlington Heights.

The action also retired the side led by Waldo E. Tinsley, a school bus operator, who planned to buy land from Pape if rezoning had been approved.

INVOLVED ARE 8 acres on the north side of Palatine road, west of Arlington Heights road, zoned for farming.

Tinsley, who operates a school bus service for Arlington Heights high school and 6 other schools in the area, proposed to set up a base for storage and maintenance of 45 to 50 buses. This would have been on a vacant 5 acre site about 250 feet north of Palatine road and 515 feet west of Arlington Heights road. Light industrial zoning was required.

Tinsley also planned to purchase the 3 other acres as business zones.

However, the county zoning board recommended the petitions he denied.

THREE NEARBY property owners fought the plans of Pape and Tinsley before the zoning board.

They are Roy Olson, Dave Beauregard, and J. M. Ernst, who contended rezoning would open nearby vacant land to industrial uses.

Swim Pool Opening Events Lure 5,000 Spectators

More than 5,000 persons turned out last weekend for a series of events opening Arlington Heights new Pioneer park and pool.

Thursday night's crowd at the "Swimphony Moods" water ballet was the largest. Some 2,000 persons toured the $600,000 park and waited until dark for the start of the water show. The attendance was the greatest in the show's history.

Rain cut off the Friday night performance half way through the affair but the 750 spectators received an invitation to return Monday. They did and brought friends to swell the number that night to an estimated 1,000.

SOUND TRUCKS circulated throughout the village to announce the special Monday night showing.

Cloudy and cool Saturday weather scared away prospective bathers at the opening day of the swimming pool, with only 384 persons showing up. Sunday's attendance was 1,400, a good but not outstanding crowd.

Park director Tom Thornton said some 600 swam at Recreation park pool Sunday, a sizeable figure considering the availability of the new pool.

"APPARENTLY the out-of-town people are still going to Recreation park for we sold the usual number of daily fee tickets," explained Thornton.

Park district offices have been moved from Recreation to Pioneer park. Recreation park has a new unlisted telephone number (CL. 5-8850) and the number at Pioneer park is CL. 3-0620.

For us at LANDWEHR'S TV & APPLIANCE it is particularly wonderful, because we're in the middle of it all, so to speak. We meet a lot of nice people every day handling the problems of keeping the best of TV viewing in the home.
To do the best job we're getting the latest bulletins from electronic institutions which keep us up-to-date in a fast, changing industry. Service instruments and techniques, types of sets and color are improving steadily.
In connection with these ideas, we're going to appear in this newspaper every week and let you know about some of the interesting subjects and experiences that come our way. We're sure that this column will be enjoyable and make your TV viewing more appreciative.

Summer Rains Delay Tollway

(CNS)—This summer's heavy rains have dropped work on the tri-level tollroad interchange west of Park Ridge "a little behind schedule," says the tollway commission.

"But we expect to make up the few days lost time by the end of the year and the project should be completed by the target date, December 15, 1958," a spokesman added.

THE INTRICATE highway interchange will link the Tri-State and North Illinois tollways, Northwest expressway, and O'Hare International airport.

Near the intersection of Devon avenue and Higgins road, the structure is designed to provide rapid, high volume traffic movements between the three superhighways and the airport.

Work, which started June 30, now is at the grading stage. Cost of the project is $12,135,670.85 Three companies will do the job.

A total of 7.59 miles of roadway within an area of 2½ square miles is involved. This includes the tri-level grade separation, 13 access ramps, including 3 cloverleals, and 7 bridges.

CURRENT ESTIMATES place the completion of the North Illinois tollway on Juy 31, 1958, and that of the tri-state route as December 31, 1958.

Inbound Chicago traffic on the North Illinois tollroad wil be shunted for some time on existing highways because the city of Chicago isn't expected to complete its connecting Northwest Expressway until much past 1960.

Seek Help In O'Hare Financing

(CNS) — Chicago city council has called on outside help for a sound financing plan for enlarging O'Hare International airport.

The aldermen Thursday approved an airport revenue bond contract with a group headed by Glore, Forgan & Co., managing underwriters. It will work with the city and airline representatives in handling preliminary steps involved in the proposed sale of about 85 million dollars in bonds.

THE BANKERS group will determine whether it's feasible to retire the bonds solely from landing fees and other charges paid by air lines using the airport.

About 24 million dollars has been spent on the big airstrip to date, according to City Controller Carl H. Chatters and Public Works Commissioner George DeMent. (B7

Carpentier Explaines New Licenses

Secretary of State Charles F. Carpentier this week stated that persons holding valid drivers licenses of the "old' or phostat negative type need not apply for the "new" type drivers license until their current permits expire. Some Illinois motorists, Secretary Carpentier pointed out, have permits of-the-old-type which do not expire until 1960.

The new type drivers license, which is printed in two colors from engraved plates, is virtually impossible to counterfeit, Secretary Carpentier aid.

IT WAS INTRODUCED recently in Illinois and each driver license has a permanent driver number which cannot be computed manually without the key to its validity check code, he said.

Secretary Carpentier also took the opportunity to point out that persons must apply for a new driver license thirty days prior to the expiration of the current permit. Also, the new fee for a driver license is $3 for a 3-year period. (B12

Marksmen Plan Ice Cream Social For August 17th

The "Marksmen" of St. Mark Lutheran church's Hi-Lea gue, Mt. Prospect, offer fun for everyone in the family Saturday, Aug. 17, when the group will present an ice cream social. The affair will be held from 6:30 p.m. at the church, 200 S. Wille, Mt. Prospect, and will feature homemade cake, coffee and pop.

The "Marksmen" chose as their theme, "Out of this World," to describe the food, fun, fellowship and film for the evening. "Time and Eternity" is the title of the film, a 45-minute thriller, which will be shown at 7, 8 and 9 p.m.

In explaining the film, club members said, "If you are transported through space at the speed of light, you don't age a bit! Therefore, if you should be rocketed to a point in outer space and back at about 186,000 miles per second, you won't grow any older. It may take you, say 20 years, to complete your journey and you won't have aged a day! But all your friends who remained behind, will be 20 years older!" (B

School Opening to Mean Good Supply of Overshoes

Arlington Heights mothers had best lay in a supply of overshoes for their school-age children this fall.

With the opening of school less than 3 weeks away, it appears doubtful that any of 3 new schools will have sidewalks leading up to them. And 2 of the schools won't even have paved streets coming in on all sides.

THE CAMPAIGN of the Arlington village board to install sidewalks near all schools will take some time to bear fruit. Involved are a number of thorny obstacles posed by county highway right of way matters, the reluctance of property owners to pay for walks and the raw land surrounding the schools.

Schools to open for local youth are Westgate primary school, Miner junior high and Prospect high school. Streets to Westgate will be paved and sidewalks put in as houses are built, probably next year.

Concrete walks were laid down around Miner junior high last week but the walk ends about one-third of the way to Foundry rd. along Dryden pl. When that walk will be put in is anybody's guess.

Farmland still stretches out from Prospect high westward into the village. As this area is developed with homes, the contractor will be required to lay down walks but not before that time.

RESIDENTS of Stonegate have been worried about children walking and riding along Foundry rd. since a boy was badly hurt along the road while going to school last spring. This fall, with Prospect high and Miner high opening, the number of children traveling Foundry will increase.

The Stonegate association is surveying 36 home owners on the south side of Foundry rd. to determine their views on a walk. Complicating things is a report that the state highway department may widen the road to 4 lanes within 5 years.

Trustee Melvin L. Kurtz said Tuesday he feels the highwaymen won't stall installation of a walk if the Stonegaters are agreeable.

"If a walk were put in along Foundry rd. and the state later widened the road, the state would have to replace any sidewalk it tore up," commented Kurtz.

ONE STONEGATER has suggested that a cinder path be put in temporarily pending a final decision on the width of the road.

The village board recently acted to force owners of walkless areas near South, Park and Our Lady of the Wayside schools to put in walks at their own expense.

School will probably be well along, however, before the concrete strips are dry. (AF

Disconnection Clears Way For Industrial Site Here

Disconnection of a 3-acre tract from Mt. Prospect has cleared the way for Arlington Heights to acquire a site for industry and straighten out a kink in its village limits.

The tract is on the south side of Davis st., immediately west of the village sewage treatment plant. The owner is developer Sol DiMucci of Mt. Prospect. He has agreed to annex to Arlington if the village will allow him right-of-way for a street along the east edge of the parcel, which is zoned industrially.

The street would extend south from Davis st. to the DiMucci industrial tract, part of which is now being developed with the Bruning manufacturing plant.

ARLINGTON trustees favor annexation, provided the Chicago and North Western assures them the underpass serving E. Davis st. industries will remain open permanently.

The railway controls usage of the narrow underpass at the east end of Davis st.

Trustees feared that truck traffic might be diverted westward through Scarsdale if the underpass were ever closed. (AF

County Stiffens Zone Regulations

(CNS)—Cook county board has adopted zoning code amendments giving it stricter control over establishment of new trailer parks, motels, drive-in theaters and 11 other ways to use land.

The vote was unanimous although the county zoning board had urged defeat of the "special use" amendments drafted by Harry F. Chaddick, director of the county's rezoning program. County board approval now is necessary before any of these special uses may be established. Public hearings must be held.

LIFTED BY enactment of the interim ordinance was the commissioner's policy in recent months of freezing all business and industrial rezoning petitions. The board immediately granted more than a dozen such requests, although a few rezoning applications were denied.

Purpose of the freeze was not to let any so-called objectionable land uses creep in on tracts rezoned business and industrial, zones formerly allowing what now are classed as special uses.

Other uses in this categoy include race tracks, junk yards, garbage dumps, glue factories, truck and bus terminals, radio and television towers exceding 100 feet, and institutions.

THE ZONING board fought the amendments, contending the special use system "is susceptible to abuse, political and otherwise."

Chaddick also is working on a comprehensive zoning ordinance which isn't expected to be ready for about 2 years.

Commissioner John J. Duffy said the new regulations would eliminate the practice of some land owners by passing all county agencies and going into court for a declaratory judgment to build what they want. (B8

Q. When a man is sitting at a cocktail bar, is it necessary for him to tip the bar man?

A. While not exactly necessary, it still seems to be expected in many places — especially when one's change is returned to one in a small tray.

Q. Is it necessary to send a gift when one is invited to the church wedding, but not to the reception?

A. In this case, it is not necessary. Only an invitation to the reception requires a gift.

Enter Swimming Races

Proud parents were Ray and Ginny Nitch, 813 N. Hickory, when their daughters, Kathy and Nancy, competed in the Lion's Olympic Swimming races Wednesday, and won. They were among contestants in the age 7 to 8 age group for the crawl and back stroke. Kathy came in first, receiving 2 medals, and Nancy came in fourth.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Herr, 845 N. Hickory, held a backward picnic for 20 members of the Badgers Junior League Saturday. The occasion was to celebrate the team's winning the championship game held a few weeks ago.

Congratulations go to Mr. and Mrs. Erwin Hofer, 913 N. Douglas, on the birth of a first son. Carl Frederick, was born August 8 in Resurrection hospital and weighed 5 pounds 4½ ounces. The Hofers also have 3 other children Barbara, Sherrill and Kathlean.

Ginny Nitch, 813 N. Hickory, gave a party Wednesday afternoon for Lois Simpson, a former Hickory ave. neighbor, who now lives in Batavia. Ladies from the block were present.

Fly With Liberace

Peter and Jean Olinger, 935 N. Haddow, flew TWA, with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Colling, to New York Sunday. While there, they took in many sights, including Niagara Falls, Empire State building, Chinatown, Manhattan Island, the Bowery, Radio city and a few TV shows. The most exciting feature of the trip was the fact that Liberace flew on the same plane with the children. They returned home Thursday after enjoying a very interesting trip. (A

To acquaint parents of the fall kindergarten class with the program planned for the coming year, a meeting will be held Thursday, Aug. 22, at 8:30 p.m., in the kindergarten room at Wilson school. Parents will be given the opportunity to meet the new teacher and any question pertaining to daily routine and bus schedules will be answered.

Don Von Ebers, educational director, has announced that the new kindergarten teacher is Mrs. Bernadine Carlson of 1314 Harvard, Arlington Heights. Mrs. Carlson received her BA from the University of Cincinnati and her BE from the University of Indiana Teachers' college. She taught kindergarten for 5 years in Norwood, Ohio and also taught for 3 years at the Golf school on Waukegan rd.

Terrace couples who are interested in attending square dance classes this fall are urged to contact Nancy Griffith, CL 5-0263, for further information. The couples who learned to "swing your partner" last year report that even the most reluctant husband became enthusiastic after a couple of lessons. After completing a series of lessons, the square dancers are eligible to join the "Swingin' Squares," a local square dance club.

Live lobster shipped from Maine was the highlight of a patio party given by Joan and Jack McKey, 1421 Race, Saturday evening. A large tin containing the lobster, clams and Indian pudding was the object of much enjoyment as the men examined the parts of the lobster before subjecting him to the charcoal fire. Couples joining in the fun were Pierrette and Walter Leckie, Jean and Mary Hayes, Joan and Ed Donath, Lois and Gil Martin, Alice and Dick Brown, Paula and Bill Dean and Helen and Bob Zabel.

Pat and Bill Coteakis, 1237 Race, are parents of a second son, who was born August 1 in Sherman hospital. Daniel John, who weighed 7 pounds, has a brother, Fritzie, 5.

New residents are Barbara and Jim Selbee, who moved into 1706 Oakton, formerly owned by the Domingues. The Selbees have 2 children, Douglas, 4, and Janet, 2. Their former home was in Green Bay, Wis.; however, Jim was transfered to Chicago with the Diamond Crystal Salt co.

Now residing at 1333 Race are Mrs. Alice R. Bauer and her mother, Mrs. Clara Reinberg. Mrs. Bauer, who formerly lived in Chicago, has 3 children: a son, Bob, now living in New York; and 2 daughters, Mrs. Raymond Nitch of Arlington Heights and Mrs. John Evers of Prospect Heights.

Moving the first week in September are Louise and Wally Gordon and 2 sons, 1204 Race. Their new address will be 316 E. Fremont, Arlington Heights. Louis reports this is just 3 blocks from the Recreation park. While living in the Terrace, Louise was active in the Cooperative Baby-Sitting club and she states she regrets having to resign.

Out-of-town visitors spent 5 days with Shirley and Scotty Scott, 1341 Race. Their guests were Mr. and Mrs. Riley Van Meter of Huntington, W. Va. The Scotts and Van Meters are friends of long standing as both couples were married at the same time. (A

A message from 'Your Pharmacist'

YOU HAVE TO LIVE IN YOUR BODY the rest of your life. You can't turn it in for a new model every year or two as you would an automobile.

IF YOU NEGLECT your body, just like any good machine, it may develop trouble. Nature warns you before it becomes serious. You suffer occasional pains, sleepless nights, wake up tired, and more often acquire colds.

HOW MUCH IS A HEALTHY BODY WORTH to you? Of course, it is priceless. Therefore, it will pay you to make a small investment to insure your continuous good health.

FOLLOW THIS PROVED PLAN. Visit your physician twice a year for a body check-up. He knows what trouble spots to look for. Perhaps you need one of the new medicines that will help you ease excessive nervous tension. If he thinks your resistance to infection needs strengthening, he may prescribe a high potency vitamin. Your present diet might not be the best for your particular body. He has the knowledge to properly guide you.

IT IS YOUR BODY and you might as well enjoy it. In our pharmacy are the medicines, vitamins and health-aids that your body may need to serve you best.

Barrington, County Reach Agreement over Property

(CNS)—A settlement is expected to be signed in September in the Barrington Countryside association's lawsuit over purchase of land in Barrington township by the Forest Preserve district of Cook county.

Lawyers at Tuesday's county board meeting didn't have ready all legal descriptions for incorporation in this proposed settlement:

1. CUT THE SIZE of the area to be acquired from the authorized 2,400 acres to about 1,400 acres.

2. Set aside the land for flora and fauna preservation, not a mass recreation area.

Under the proposal, the Barrington township forest preserve would be bound by the county line on the north, Sutton road for the most part on the east, Bateman road for about half the distance on the west, and Algonquin road on the south.

THE FOREST preserve district would abandon plans to acquire land south of Algonquin rd.

Leaders in negotiating the proposed compromise were Charles G. Sauers, district general superintendent, and Newton Noble, president of the countryside association.

The county's original program in 1955 called for the acquisition of 3,914 acres, which included land in the Spring Creek valley as far south as Higgins rd. (AP

A motor trip through the mid-west put 3400 miles on the family car for Estelle and Chuck Baranowski and daughter, Laura, 239 Yale, and the weary travelers are glad to be home again. They covered many states, seeing Yellowstone, the Black Hills of Dakota, sights in Montana and Nebraska as well as a relaxing day at Wisconsin Dells.

Jean Deal and daughters, Pamela and Susan, 315 Yale, accompanied Ed on a 6-week business trip through Memphis, Nashville and vicinity, where they were impressed with Andrew Jackson's home, The Hermitage in Nashville. They enjoyed swimming and a trip on the Mississippi in a river boat.

Evelyn Brogan and children, Wendy and Johnny, 1519 Euclid, spent 2 months this summer in Kansas City and vicinity visiting relatives and friends. Husband Bob joined the family part of the time when free of his duties piloting planes to Europe.

A week at Wisconsin Dells was enjoyed by Ruth and Stefan Stein and children, Stephanie and Boppy, 1518 Fremont. They were intrigued with Storybook land, the Enchanted Forest, boating on the lake and fishing.

Also enjoying the pleasures offered by the Dells in Wisconsin for several days were Bea and Ed Kabat and youngsters, Diane and Tommy, 1401 Fremont. Additional side trips to other local spots of interest accounted for the remainder of their vacation time.

Sally and Al Zimmer, 247 Yale, spent last week at Blueberry lake near Hayward, Wis., fishing, swimming and water skiing.

Kathy Wrobel, daughter of Phyllis and Clarence Wrobel, 1404 Fremont, has returned from 2 weeks with the girl scouts at Camp Hickory Hill, Edgerton, Wis. Both Kathy and elder sister, Lucille, have been a great help to their mother, who is convalescing from virus pneumonia.

Home again from their annual 2 weeks in Hackensack, Minn. are Elinor and Howard Huff and daughter, Sharon, 1411 Euclid. Along with Howard's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Huff of Toledo, Ohio, they stayed in a cottage on Lake Birch, caught many fish and played pinochle.

Four pleasant days had Helen and Bill Jensen, 1401 Euclid, at Wisconsin Dells, Honeybear farm and the Wagon Wheel in Rockford.

Birthdays

Sheryl Thuerk, daughter of Shirley and Ervin Thuerk, 303 Yale, turned 8 Friday and celebrated with lunch and the movies accompanied by the following friends: Mary Beth Heinz, Susan and Pamela Deal, Carol Herda, Laura Baranowski, Mary Jo Welton, Ann Hefness and sister, Kathy. Kathy became 6 July 31 and celebrated her day at her grandmother's house with numerous cousins.

A double birthday was the occasion for a family reunion and celebration that lasted from afternoon through the evening at the Van Bladel home, 108 Reuter. Daughter Patricia was 2 August 7 and son, Gerald, became 10 August 9. Parents are Esther and Anton Van Bladel.

House Guests

Enjoying their first visit to their daughter's new home are Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Venglarchik Sr. and son, Andrew Jr., of Euclid, Ohio. Happy hosts are Dorothy and Bob Agnes, 1503 Fremont, and children, Roberta and Dennis.

It was a full house over the weekend at 1505 Euclid when Fran and Bill Johnston entertained friends from Fox Point, Wis., Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bach and their 4 children. Fortunately, the 4 Johnston youngsters matched their guests in age and were most compatible.

Lorry and Dick Cahill, 1301 Euclid, traveled Sunday to Michigan City, Ind. to attend the 13th annual all breed dog show of La Porte County Kennel club. Expecting only to gain experience in dog showing, instead they walked off with first prize in miniature poodle puppy class with their entry of Black Sherry of Shir-Gay (better known as "Cindy").

Convention Delegated

Arlene and Fred Hauth, 512 Yale, spent 3 days in Chicago attending the 39th annual American Legion State convention. Fred recently took over as commander of the Arlington post and Arlene is now president of the Women's auxiliary. Arlene stayed at the Palmer house and Fred at the Sherman hotel. They attended all business sessions and gained much knowledge to see them through their responsibilities during the coming year. Grandmother Winkelman stayed with the 3 Hauth children.

Parties

Dottie Moos, 307 Yale, was hostess this week at a baby shower for Shirley Thuerk. A decorated crepe paper umbrella contained many gifts for the new baby and only son. Present in addition to the guest of honor and hostess were Gloria Huter, Barbara Weber, Nora Amato, Peggy Fahrion, Cleta Herda, Norma Thomas, Peggy Segal, Jay York, Marge Santelli and Ann Wilson.

The weather was damp Saturday night but not the spirits of the neighbors who cavorted in the garage and driveway of the Burketts at 1405 Euclid. Fun and dancing were enjoyed by Dot and Bob Agnes, Joyce and Skip Akerlund, Carol and Orville Bolte, Bert and Andy Graczyk, Arlene and Fred Hauth, Jerry and Jack Heinz, Jean and Ed Huster, Louise and Ken Smith and Carolyn and Dick Burkett.

Horns Are Noisy!

Complaints have been received by this reporter from folks living near the children's playground on Reuter ave. that parents calling for their children make an undue amount of noise with their car horns. (A

by FRED GAREISS

Speaking generally, you'll get best results if you use your exposure meter according to the manufacturer's instructions. However, here are some suggestions that may be helpful to you when exposing film.

Incident-light type meters are ordinarily used at the subject position with the light-collecting cell pointed toward the camera. For example, if you are going to take an informal outdoor portrait, hold the meter in front of the subject's face, with the cell aimed in the direction of the camera lens. Do not let your arm or any part of your body, clothing or equipment cast a shadow on the meter cell. Held before the subject in this way, the meter's photoelectric cell integrates, or adds up, the light reaching the subject. This reading is used to set the meter for the exposure to be given.

WHEN COMPUTING the exposure for distant scenes, hold the meter at arm's length, again with the cell pointed toward the camera. This is commonly called substitution reading and is quite accurate as long as the light reaching the meter cell is the same as for the scene you want to photograph.

Reflected-light meters (and incident-light meters with conversion attachments) are used to measure the light reflected from the subject. In some circumstances the reading can be taken from the camera position, in other close-up, readings should be taken directly from the surface of the subject itself.

If you are making a photograph of an average nearby scene, you may read from the camera position. Hold the meter comfortably at arm's length, pointed toward the subject and pointed downward slightly (about 20 degrees) to minimize the effect of skylight. For distant scenes try averaging two readings: take one with the meter pointed toward the ground, perhaps 10 or 20 feet away; take another reading with the meter aimed toward the sky. Base your exposure on an average of the two readings. This is to say by setting the meter arrow halfway between the 2 readings.

WHEN MAKING a portrait of a person against a bright sky background take reflected-light readings no farther than a foot away from the face. Take one measurement from the brightest area, another from the darkest and average them. In any circumstances close-up readings are always the most accurate. With indoor photography under flood lighting, close-up meter readings are essential.

Some reflected-light meters have attachments which convert them for incident-light measurement. With such accessories the procedure is as described above for incident meters.

As you become familiar with your meter you will also become more proficient in its use. Meters differ as do cameras and methods of using them. But with just a little patient practice you will quickly develop the meter-handling that will give you best results with your individual equipment and method of operation. (B10

"TO KNOW HOW TO GROW OLD IS THE MASTERWORK OF WISDOM"

*(Author's Name Below)

Not so long ago there were fewer old folks because the average person who reached fifty was considered lucky. Now with an average life expectancy of about 70 years, there are many more people who are old in years but young in health.

There are two wise rules that will make your added years healthier. Always visit your physician at the first sign of any illness, and regularly take one of the geriatric vitamins that will supply the extra energy needed. For just a few cents per day you can get from us vitamins made by the dependable pharmaceutical firms who discovered and perfected them.

STILL AWAY OUT IN FRONT

There Must Be a Reason . . .

In competition with weekly newspapers of the United States, Paddock Publications led all the rest in volume of display advertising and far exceeded their nearest rival in total inches of classified advertising. We did this in 1955, and again decisively in 1957. There must be a reason for this wide acceptance by the local merchants. The reason is easy to see. The 12 Paddock papers go into nearly every home in the northwest suburbs. Newcomers are given a 3 months' trial subscription, introducing them to our papers and in turn to our advertisers. Thus we cover this area like the proverbial blanket. Results to advertisers are sometimes phenomenal. Incidents can be cited of entire merchandise stocks being disposed of in a 2-week sale; of crowds jamming store aisles, necessitating police control of customer traffic; of household goods being sold within hours after the appearance of the paper. There is a reason.

Nothing gives your kitchen

like a modern electric range

. . . nothing cooks cleaner, cooks cooler or cooks food faster!

As this modern kitchen clearly shows, today's trend is to electricity. And perhaps the best example of this is the electric range.

Smart looking, convenient. Insulated on all 6 sides (as are all electric ovens) you get even, steady heat for baking and roasting. No guesswork with electric surface units either. The heat you set is yours automatically every time. And the heat goes directly into the bottom of the pan, not up the sides and into your kitchen.

But the thing you'll appreciate most is the way your electric range stays modern—year after year.

In Europe, Baldness Is Profitable State-of-Head

by BILL DILLINGHAM

There are definite advantages in Europe to being bald.

A chain of French restaurants only hires men who have lost every bit of hair. This includes both waiters and cooks.

Some of the most exclusive eating places on the French Riviera will not employ a man if he has more than eyebrows.

Such restaurants advertise in discreet ways that this is one of the features of their sanitary precautions.

Waitresses, on the other hand, must have hair. "Peeple vould not eet in a restaurant where zee waitress 'ave no hhhair", exclaimed the manager of the restaurant in Nice's Negresco Hotel. "It crushes zee appetite."

Europeans, highly conscious of how to live most economically, have been given the cheerful information that baldness is a highly profitable state-of-the-head.

A SWISS BARBER points out in a large sign to his customers that the hairless man saves about $160 in haircuts over a twenty-year period. Added to this was the cost of combs (averaging one per year due to loss), soap to wash the hair with, and the time involved in all three operations. It all adds up to 2100 Swiss francs (a bit less than $500).

The single disadvantage to baldness, the large poster explained, was that of not appealing to women. But this, too, resulted in an economic gain.

Different peoples lose their hair in distinct ways. Those who border the Mediterranean have their hair start dropping out, as the Spaniards say, "Where Padre wears his cap," which is at the top-rear of the skull.

THE NORTHERN peoples begin to lose near the forehead and by the temples.

Although more rare, women too are sometimes able to turn baldness to great advantage.

A woman in Brussels, Belgium changes her wig each week. Her husband finds this quite attractive. This enables her to be a blonde, redhead or brunette, according to the husband's choice. Instead of a constant supply of new clothes "to change the person," she uses different color hair.

"When my husband begins to look at blondes on the street," Mrs. Clouyatte says, "I know it is time to change my wig."

Have You Checked Your Driver's License Lately?

With approximately 2 million Illinois driver's licenses scheduled for renewal this year, the Chicago Motor club today warned motorists to check their license expiration dates.

Some motorists seeking renewals unknowingly bring in licenses which have been invalid for one and 2 years, the club's license bureau reported.

FORGETFULNESS is no excuse under the law for motorists driving with an expired license, the club explained. If the license has expired for more than 12 months, the driver is required to take a complete examination to qualify for renewal. This includes eye, oral, written and driving tests.

To avoid last minute complications, the club advised motorists to take advantage of the law which permits renewals to be made 30 days prior to the expiration date.

Persons 70 years of age or older are required to take a complete examination to qualify for renewal.

WHEN RECEIVING a new driver's license, the motorist should check to see if any driving restrictions have been placed on him.

The restrictions are numbered from 1 to 4 on the back of the license, and include: 1) corrective eye lenses; 2) outside rear view mirror; 3) daylight driving only, and 4) other restrictions as indicated.

All restrictions are listed by their numbers in the "code' block on the front of the license. If the number 'O" appears within the block, no driving restrictions exist. (B8

KICKIN' IT AROUND

by BOB FRISK

HERE'S THAT MAN AGAIN! A name becoming synonymous with championships in the Paddock golf tournament should be very much in evidence in the 1957 affair at Nordic Hills Country Club, Aug. 18.

HARRY DODDS

Harry Dodds, 17 S. Albert, Mt. Prospect, will be playing in his third Paddock tourney. This is a mark equalled by only 2 other men, John Brennan and Harold Thorsell, but Dodds has the edge in that he has played on 2 championship units—with Mt. Prospect Hardware in 1954 and K. Whitton Realty in 1956. Bob Hornbostel is the only other individual to play on 2 tourney winners, and he turned the trick in consecutive years, 1954-55.

Dodds, who is playing No. 3 man for Golden's Food Shop of the Mt. Prospect Monday night twilight loop, has a low score of 45 for the summer which he has recorded 3 times in league action. His next 2 low 9-hole marks are 49 and 51. Dodds fired a 95-24-71 in the '54 affair and came back with a 96-20 in last summer's meet.

Can Dodds become the first man to ever play on 3 Paddock golf tournament champions? We'll know more about that Sunday about 5 p. m.!

Tourney chatter: Three members of the Urick Landscaping team which gained 5th in '52 will tee off Sunday . . . Joe Urick and Max Mayrer are playing for Charles Klehm's Nursery, and Mert Taylor is No. 1 for Barrett Insurance . . . The Fourth man on that Urick team in '52 was Merv Fink of Arlington . . . Nordic Hills is in the southeast end of Duncklee's Grove where 120 years ago the last Indians were seen in these parts . . . Low team net score for Paddock tourney is 284 . . . Winning team scores have been 285, 301, 286, 290, 303, 284, and 300 . . . Holders of the low net record for tourney are John Eiler and Bill Shassberger with 65's . . . Len Arnold's 71 in 1955 is the leading individual gross score in the 8-year history . . . Busse Motor Sales won girl's bowling championship at Mt. Prospect lanes last January and is not attempting to win men's golf . . . Joe Bodor, Koop's Mustard, has been in Paddock bowling tourney 5 times and is now in his second golf affair . . . Frank Novatny, playing with Tioga Tuesday night entry, is athletic director at Fenton.

TONY BETTENHAUSEN will be one of the stout midwest entries for the United States Auto club midget auto races next Wednesday night at O'Hare Stadium, and it's doubtful that this part of the country will ever produce a harder or more colorful competitor.

Actually a farmer in southwest suburban Tinley Park when he isn't racing, Tony recently made headlines throughout the world when he established a new world's record of over 171 mph while qualifying for the big 500-mile race over at Monza, Italy.

Bettenhausen has had numerous narrow scrapes with death, but each time he has bounced back. Some years ago he was sidelined for six months with 2 broken legs and other injuries when he leaped from a midget on fire as it sped at 90 mph. More recently a midget he was handling turned over and pinned Tony against a cement wall as it careened around a Chicago track. Many said he wouldn't survive that accident and he actually suffered a very critical skull fracture, but he was back in action in a few months.

Next Wednesday he'll be back in midget action once again and for the first time at O'Hare. Tony has, however, taken time to look at the track and pronounces it "one of the best I've ever seen."

LEW GREEN, Arlington grad in 1956, is listed as a promising quarterback candidate for the Purdue varsity this fall . . . The Purdue brochure has this thumbnail sketch: "Freshman numeral winner from Arlington Heights, Ill. where he won letters in both football and track. An English-German youngster whose father competed in both football and track at New York City U. in late 20's. His hobbies are music and sports cars. He plays the trumpet."

Rut Walters, Northwestern track coach, is quoted in a Champaign paper as saying he is going to work with Arlington's Bill Palmer, state hight jump champ, as a hurdler. "I think he could be a great one," he noted. He doesn't have phenomenal speed but he has long legs and could perfect some form."

Dean Refram of Medinah, former outstanding athlete at Glenbard, edged Arlington's Tom Jacobsen, playing out of Rolling Green, 1-up for the Chicago District Golf Assn. Junior title . . . Refram, a 20-year old Florida Southern University junior, gained a 3 and 1 win over Denny Evans of Rolling Green and Arlington in the semi-finals . . . Mike Pyle, the New Trier product who broke Dick Winterbauer's state shot put record, will not head for Yale as previously announced . . . He has accepted a tender to Michigan State and will join his brother there . . . Johnny Walbaum of Barrington, who gained All-State honors in football, will enroll at Northwestern . . . Riverside Brookfield, Arlington's first conference grid opponent this fall, has 12 lettermen back and will be sparked by All-WSC end, Bob "Zeke" Ucherek . . . R-B coach, Jim Perkins, looks for Maine to be the conference power as does everyone else . . . Main'e Vic Bagel, who had a brilliant week in the Cook County legion baseball playoffs, should be this area's top choice for All-State honors in football . . . Vic is a halfback.

ROSE-LO VS. HASEMANS for the softball championship of the Arlington summer league . . . The Aug. 15, 1947 sports page of Paddock Publications featured this game and indicated that the opposing pitchers would be Billy Becker, sporting a 10-2 mark, for Rose-Lo and Emmett Doyle (6-6) for Hasemans.

The Arlington high school basketball team honored Coach Clarence Iba at a farewell dinner at Hapsburg Inn. The squad members presented Iba with a calfskin gladstone bag. Iba, who was going to Muskogee, Okla., was to be replaced by Leo Bell.

Arlington's Redwings were ready to open a tourney stand against Grand Castle, with the latter boasting an impressive 11-3 record. In an intrasquad game the previous week a shortage of players had forced Art Schiewe, normally a third baseman or catcher, to take a turn at pitching and put Pete Groh, regular outfielder, behind the plate.

Another water ballet was to be held Aug. 16, and the Arlington Park District also announced all the youngsters who had registered in swimming and diving classes. Those registered included Craig Baldwin, Chris Kent, Alice Simroe, Ted Simroe, Emily Sherrill, Marshall Sherrill, Tom Bowersox, Ron Neuendorf, Mickey Harris, Robin Miller, Tom Theis, Suzanne Franke, Gil Robertson, John Theis, Dae Heckmiller, John Cooper, Ed

14 Foursomes In Paddock Tourney Sunday

Harris, Kleinofen, Lee, Sage To Tee-Off First at 11:30

Fore!

That will be the cry at 11:30 a.m. Sunday, August 18, at Nordic Hills Country club when the first foursome of Paddock Publications Inter-League Handicap golf tournament steps up for tee-off.

Fourteen foursomes will be striving to take home the large traveling trophy, the 12 individual medals and the dozen golf balls in the eighth annual Paddock tournament. First place teams of 14 twilight golf leagues have been chosen, handicaps have been computed, and the chase is on.

There is no $50,000 prize awaiting the winners, but action in the Paddock tourney is certain to be lively. Defending titlist league is Mt. Prospect Monday league, though Whitton Realtors, actual foursome copping the title for that league a year ago, won't be there.

FIRST FOURSOME will include Avery Harris of Kamps Signs and Old Orchard Scratch league and Chuck Kleinofen of Koop's Mustard of Arlington Heights league at Mt. Prospect. Both of these men are 1-handicap players. Others in the group are Robert Lee of Dunteman's Dairy of Rob Roy Tuesday league and Stewart Sage representing Arlington VFW loop. Both of these men are 4-handicap players.

Complete list of foursomes with handicaps is listed in this issue. Handicaps were computed on basis of 80% of the difference between a player's average 9-hole score for his 5 best nights and par for the course on which he plays. This handicap, including fractions, was multiflied by 2 to obtain the 18-hole handicap.

ALL GOLFERS must be on time for their foursomes. Expected times of tee-offs are published this week. The tournament growing to 14 foursomes it will take 1½ hours for all golfers to start play. But many of the early golfers' minds will be set at ease if they know their complete team showed up before teeing off. Last year one team was almost disqualified when one member was delayed by a flat tire.

Alternates have been named by most leagues. These men are urged to be present in case someone fails to show for the tournament. Last minute substitutions can be made, though such substitutions must have a record of their 5 best scores with them providing their league secretaries haven't already turned those scores in to the tournament manager.

NORDIC HILLS Country club is located south of Medinah, a little south of Irving Park rd. Golfers can best find their way there by driving south on route 53 from route 19. Turn off for Nordic Hills is between routes 19 and 20. Just how golfers can get around the toll road detours changes from week to week. As of Tuesday, the best route for Arlington and Mt. Prospect golfers is to go south to route 58, west to 53, thence south to the course.

There are several firsts for this year's tournament. The 14 foursomes is a new record as interest in twilight golf increases. This is the first year for St. Raymond twilight league to participate. That loop has 2 divisions, thus 2 entries. This is the first time for Our Lady of the Wayside loop, playing Chevy Chase, first time a competing foursome in the tourney has come from that particular course.

TIOGA VFW league of Bensenville has grown to 2 divisions. Thus, there is an additional entry from Du Page county. Tournament promoters had to decide on the 2 divisions of another league which had just 6 teams in each division, and ruled that for a league to have 2 entries there have to be separate divisions of competition, with at least 8 teams in each half.

And if you like puns, there are 3 VFW teams fighting for honors, plus a delicatessen battling a supermart.

WHAT'LL IT TAKE to win the tournament? Usually a 290-300 net. Foursomes can best start with 290, add their handicap, then shoot for that total with an eye as to where to put the trophy.

Golfers are asked to stick around at the course until the tournament is over. Paddock Publications photographers will be taking pictures of foursomes finishing first, second and third, plus low individual champ.

Cross Country Hopefuls Report On August 26

All candidates for cross country are requested to report to the Arlington high school track at 10 a.m. on Monday, Aug. 26. This includes freshmen.

Russ Attis will be handling the varsity this fall with Bob Meisner working with Arlington's first frosh-soph team. All boys should get in shape on their own before reporting to practice. (SP

Grace Lists Office Hours For Athletes

Wally Grace, athletic director at Arlington high school, will be in his office on August 19-21 from 9 a.m. to noon to collect fees for football and cross country and to receive physicals and parents permit cards.

Fees are $7 for sophomores, juniors and seniors in football and $4 for the freshman gridders. Grace explains that the difference in price is due to lack of laundry service at the Prospect school. Cross country fees are $3 for everybody.

Everyone is expected to take care of all the items, including the frosh at Prospect school, or they will not be issued any equipment on Aug. 24. (SP

Paddock Classic Bowlers Plan Opening Sept. 14

Paddock Classic Traveling League came one step closer to realty Saturday when franchise money was turned in, uniforms were ordered and grand opening date of the league was set.

All 6 teams of the group will bowl at the Ten Pin in Barrington Saturday night, Sept. 14, starting at 6:30. This will be the first night of play with 25 "regular' nights following interspersed with 5 "position nights" after every 5 nights of league play.

THE LEAGUE has pointed for 910 average teams. This will give the top average bowlers of the area an opportunity to be in top flight competition all season long. Bowling establishments of Hi-Way Recreation at Palatine, Beverly Lanes at Arlington Heights, Gunnell's at Mt. Prospect, Jeffery Lanes at Wheeling, and Ten Pin at Barrington are all cooperating in the league. The sixth house is still to be named, possibly this weekend.

Bowlers will appear in full uniform with individual game scores publicized in the area. Bowling at each house is scheduled for 6:30 p.m. Saturdays, with 2 teams at each of 3 houses each week.

Captains of the teams will meet this Saturday morning at Gunnell's. (SP

Arlington LL Plans Dance

The Arlington Heights Little League will hold its annual dance Sept. 7 at the VFW Hall with all proceeds going to the local organization for baseball.

George Fanelli and his orchestra will furnish the music for "The Carousel Dance' from 9 p.m. to 12 midnight. Muriel Mills is chairman of the affair and can be reached at CL 3-3455. (SP

Redwings Split, At Home Sunday

Arlington's Redwings, after an even split in the 2 affairs this week, will try to get back in the winning column Sunday against Chicago Heights. The contest is slated for 2:30 p.m. at Recreation Park.

Dick Bokelmann did the pitching and Bill Sprincz paced the offensive attack Sunday as Arlington topped the Jackson Park Phillies, 4-1. Sprincz collected 3 of the locals' 4 hits.

Three pitchers shared duties for Arlington in an 11-8 loss to Great Lakes Tuesday night. Bud Blumenthal started on the mound and worked 4 innings, yielding 9 runs. Bob Miller and Bob Hamilton finished up and allowed the final 2 runs with Miller especially impressive in his 3-inning stint.

JOE JANKERS cracked a 2-run homer for the Redwings and Miller collected a bases-loaded triple to pace the offensive. Shortstop Tony Esposito pounded out 2 doubles.

Arlington now stands 7-6 in league play with league-leading Skokie at 12-5. The Redwings are still mathematically in the chase for the crown of the Greater Chicago semi-pro baseball loop. (Sp

Cole-Lenzi Tops Boosters, 10 More Tilts for Locals

by RANDY THOMAS

Sunday collapses are a thing of the past and Black's Boosters can be thankful they don't have to compete in any more Sunday affairs.

The Black's dropped their last scheduled Sunday engagement 3-0 to Cole-Lenzi of La Grange, thus eliminating the locals from championship league play. League competition will continue between those clubs not having absorbed their third loss this Sunday.

With 10 games remaining to be played, Black's will have 4 chances this week to improve upon their present 16-14-1 overall season record.

A CHICAGO PARK District team, the Chicago Ravens, offers the opposition tomorrow evening at 6 p.m. at Recreation Park. Saturday the locals will invade City Park of Aurora and attempt to make the annual Aurora "All-Steel Equipment Co." picnic as miserable as possible for the hosts.

Immediately following the conclusion of the picnic contest the Boosters will tangle with the Aurora Tigers in a make-up game, originally slated for August 3rd but rained out. Tuesday, August 20, the big bad Chicago Yankees (Klaus, Hansen, Gawron and Co.) come to town for the last twilight match of the year.

The powerful Cole-Lenzi outfit, presently 1-2 in league play, bunched 2 hits, an infield out, a hit batsman, and a passed ball to score 2 runs in the fourth for their margin of victory. They added an insurance tally in the sixth on a long triple to left, the only extra base blow of the game, and a single through the middle by third baseman Joe Mac who piled up 3 straight hits after flying out his first trip.

ASIDE FROM THESE two innings, starter and loser Bob Miller, who suffered his initial setback, was in serious trouble only in the first and the seventh, both times escaping without damage. In the first frame he loaded the bases with a hit and 2 free passes but got Mac to fly to left. In the seventh he ran into another wild spell, duplicating his initial fit of wildness. Thanks to catcher Bob Dotts who alertly trapped Leroy Saban between third and home, Miller snuck out after fanning winning pitcher Ty Binder.

While not exhibiting the lusty slugging which had been prevalent in former matches, the Boosters displayed some of the finest baseball seen at Recreation Park this summer. Our local athletes could muster only 4 singles off Binder, who neatly spaced these in the 2nd, 6th, 7th and 8th. Binder was so effective he retired 13 men in a row after Dotts singled with one gone for the first Booster hit in the second. After this Binder was tapped for harmless safeties by Bob Getts, newly acquired first-baseman Leo Behrens, and Dan Vittum, who ran his consecutive game hitting streak to 15.

WEDNESDAY, August 7, the Ninth District Legion All-Stars pulled a New York Yankee operation in the late innings to grab a 2-1 victory and gain an even split in a 2 game series with the Boosters.

The Stars gained the tying run in the sixth on a double, a wild pitch and a two-out clutch single by Lee Magnuson. They used almost identical procedure to score the winning run in the seventh off loser Bob Hamilton, who for the second time ran into late inning difficulties with the legion nine.

The "Yankee Tactics" began with two out in the seventh. Jerry Segebrecht began the assault with a line shot to right. This disrupted Hamilton so, he uncorked his 10th wild pitch of the campaign and Segebrecht dashed to second. Jerry Klement, twice a strike out victim, picked on a 2-2 pitch to bat it through the box and send the deciding run scampering across. Rich Wisner fanned to end the inning.

Miller, who hurled legion ball before joining the Booster's staff and was elected to the All-Star squad, pitched the 6th and the 7th for the stars. He never looked sharper as he struck out 5 of the 6 men he faced to properly discourage any hopes the Black's had for a rally.

Fritz, Bob Felker, Rog Ragland, Peck Hoffman, Tom Theis, Jim Laughlin, Don Neuendorf, Bill Cutler, Bunnie Baumann, and Rod Pelletier.

Busse Motors, Dunteman's Only Tourney Repeaters

Busse Motor Sales and Dunteman's Dairy are the only 2 teams in the 1957 Paddock Publications Inter-League Handicap golf tournament who have appeared in a previous meet.

Busse Motors, representing the Mt. Prospect Tuesday night league in the '57 affair at Nordic Hills, Aug. 18, has appeared in 2 other tournaments and finished third both times—in 1952 and 1953. Dunteman's played in the '54 tourney and also finished third.

Fourteen individuals of the 56 contestants are also appearing in at least their second tournament with one, Harry Dodds, shooting for his third straight championship in his third meet. Dodds played on the title teams of 1954 and 1956 with Mt. Prospect Hardware and K. Whitton Realty. This year he is playing with Golden's Food Shop.

THREE MEMBERS of the Urick Landscapers' unit of 1952 that finished fifth will be playing this Sunday with 2, Joe Urick and Max Mayrer, shooting for Charles Klehm's Nursery. Mert Taylor, a third member, is No. 1 man for Barrett Insurance of the Wayside league.

Bill Wilson, who plays on the Wheeling Lumber entry, saw action for L-Nor Cleaners' second place team last summer. Stewart Sage, playing with the Drivers of the Arlington VFW loop, played on a 10th place team in '56, firing a creditable 82-3-79.

Busse Motors' Larry Sbarbaro shot a 99-20-79 with K. Whitton Realty's fifth place squad in 1951, and Ralph Karner and Ray Seddon, teammates on Miller's Standard Service entry, both played on Rendezvous Cabin teams with the latter shooting 89-19-70 in pacing a second place finish in '54.

A THIRD member of the Miller's Standard Service team, Jim Biesterfeldt, played with Hugh's Body Shop in 1951 and his 86-12-74 was instrumental in guiding a fourth place finish. Bob Lee and Len Duntemann, both playing for Dunteman's 1957 entry, appeared in 1956 and '54 respectively and both played on third place units.

Lou Stefanik, a last minute substitution for Tom Barrett on the Barrett Insurance team, played with Stefanik's Foods in 1953 and shot 100-17-83 as the food shop captured sixth place with a net 316. Joe Bodor, No. 4 man for Koop's Mustard of the Arlington Heights twilight league, turned in a 107-26-81 in '53 as Webber Paint netted 313 for third place.

Len Arnold, alternate for the Kamps Signs team, is the only repeater on that team. Arnold, who fired a brilliant 71-0-71 in his only tourney performance, was a member of the fifth place team in 1955.

There they are! The repeaters for the 1957 Paddock Inter-League Handicap golf tournament, both individual and team. And each man and team is hoping their '57 appearance will be the most successful! (SP

German Shepherd Obedience

Again this year, as last, the German Shepherd Dog Training Club of Chicago will be the host club for the German Shepherd Club of America when the obedience trial classes for this breed are held Sunday, August 25, at the Chicago club's training ground, located on rt. 53 south of Lombard.

This is one of the outstanding German Shepherd obedience trials in the nation, and the event will get under way with the tracking tests at 8 in the morning to be followed by various regular obedience classes at 10 Judging will continue throughout the day and all classes will be finished by approximately 8 p.m.

Doberman Specialty Show

Also of general interest to readers in the area will be the 12th annual specialty of the Doberman Pinscher Club of Chicagoland to be held October 13 at Oak Lawn.

Although it does seem a little early to start talking about a show to be held in October, what makes this particular show outstanding is that the judge will be Will Rothfuss of Stuttgart, Germany. He is considered tops on his continent as a judge and authority on Dobermans. Although this will be his first visit to the United States, his name and achievements are quite familiar to many of the American Doberman judges and fanciers.

Further information regarding this show could be obtained by writing to Phoebe Hansen, entry correspondent, 6259 Sheridan rd., Chicago 40.

Dog Populations

The total population of dogs in this country has often been mentioned and it might be of general interest to readers to know the situation in some of the European countries. Although facts and figures can often make for rather dry reading, at least there are some breeds of dogs mentioned in the following tabulation which very few people have ever heard about, much less seen. The data was compiled by the Gaines Dog Research center:

Holland: estimated dog population, about 700,000; dogs registered annually, about 7,000 most popular breeds, Boxer, English Cocker, Poodle, Alsatian, (German Shepherd) Miniature Pinscher, Fox Terrier, Pekingese and Airedale.

Sweden: dog population, about 300,000; dogs registered (1956) 136,831; most popular breeds Kortharig Tax (smooth haired Dachshund), Drever (a hound similar to the Harrier), Hamilton-stovare (a Swedish hare hound), German Shepherd, English Cocker, Miniature Poodle, Stravharig Tax (wire-haired Dachshund), Boxer and Pekingese.

Switzerland: dog population, about 100,000; dogs registered annually about 7,000; leading breeds about 7,000; leading breeds, German Sheepdog, Collie, Airedale, Terriers, Boxer, Poodle and Dachshund.

Belgium: dog population, about 25,000; dogs registered annually, about 3,500; leading breeds, Cocker Spaniel, German Shepherd, Basset, Schnauzer and Boxer.

Denmark: dog population, between 100,000 and 150,000; dogs registered annually, about 7,000; leading breeds, German Shepherd, German Short-haired and Wire-haired Pointer, Cocker Spaniel, Poodle and Dachshund.

Norway: dog population, between 100,000 and 150,000; dogs registered annually about 5,000; leading breeds, English Setter, Norwegian Elkhound, Dunker (Norwegian hare hound) German Shepherd, Collie, Hamilton-stovare, Schwiezerstovare, (Swiss hare hound), Wire-haired Fox Terrier and Pointer.

Austria: dog population about 250,000; dogs registered annually, between 3,000 and 4,000; leading breeds, Dachshund, Spaniel, German Shorthaired Pointer, Poodle, Boxer, German Shepherd, Fox Terrier, Schnauzer, Gebirg-Schweisshunde (Swiss mountain dog), and Collie.

Spain: dog population, about 500,000; dogs registered annually, between 500 and 600; leading breeds, Mastine Espanole, Podenco Ibienco (Ibizan Hound), Perdiguero de Burgos (native Pointer), Perro de Pastor Catalan (Catalan Sheepdog), German Shepherd, Boxer, Poodle, Pointer, Setter and Miniature Pinscher.

Temporary Pets

Families on vacation in the country or at summer resorts should not adopt dogs or other pets unless they intend to keep them permanently.

The adoption of "summer pets" often comes about when parents heed the pleas of the children to accept the puppy that someone has offered. But when the summer ends and the family returns to the city "where" the parents explain, "it would be too much trouble," the pet is left behind or guiltily dropped out of the car several miles distant. Perhaps it is a foundling stray that has been taken in and who, after briefly knowing kindness, is again forsaken.

People who abandon pets like to think that the animals will "find" new homes, but there is ample proof that this rarely happens. If the family could only see the suffering of the deserted dog in his desperation, his fear and hunger and possible injury or death on the road as he tries to follow, they might think twice before being guilty of abandonment. Hold Baseball Tryout Camps

The Atlanta Crackers of the Southern Assn. of professional baseball clubs will conduct baseball tryout camps at the Illinois State Training School for boys at St. Charles, Ill. on Aug. 17-18, and at Wing Park in Elgin on Aug. 31 and Sept. 1. The sessions will be under the direction of scout Jim Konofsky and will begin at 9 a.m. and end about 4:30 p.m.

Boys 16 years and older are invited to attend, and those with American Legion eligibility must present a note of permission from their coach or post commander.

It is understood that the player will bear his own expenses in connection with his tryouts. In the event a player is signed as a result of his showing at these caps, he would then be reimbursed for his tryout expenses.

Roselle Golf

Lambertis Pik Kwik went on a rampage and gathered their second largest total of the year in the Roselle twilight golf league by getting 7 points to finally go over the 50-point mark.

The rest of the league was pretty well spread out. Next week the league will play its first rained out night with the No. 3 man alternate. This Sunday, Aug. 18, is the Paddock tourney at Nordic Hills Country Club. As many golfers as possible should be there to help Miller's Standard Service win it. Incidentally, Nordic Woods "got lucky" and took 13 points from Millers.

WEDNESDAY OF THIS WEEK the Inverness Golf Club paid tribute to a great guy, their pro Stan Arendt, with a special day in his honor. Stan has served the membership of Inverness since way back in 1927, a full 30 years ago when the course was only 9 holes and known as the Meadowbrook Golf Club and owned by the Cudahy Packing Company. Now Inverness has a beautiful clubhouse and is leased and operated by the membership along the lines of the better clubs of the Chicago area.

Last fall Stan suffered a severe heart attack but it is hard to keep a man of Stan's caliber down and the popular Inverness pro is back at the old stand again.

He is now giving some lessons, operating the pro shop, and getting in some very good golf aided by mechanical transportation. Stan is on a restricted schedule but is out at the club all the time doing everything possible to help the membership enjoy their golf. By the way, Stan is playing even better than before his illness.

SUNDAY AFTERNOON the Paddock Publications Annual Golf Tournament is scheduled at Nordic Hills Golf Club for the leading teams in the 14 twi-light leagues operating in the Paddock news area. Nordic Hills is a real sporty layout located just off highway 53 to the west and just about three quarters of a mile south of Irving Park Road. We played the course recently and were much impressed with the natural beauty of the course which has its setting in a hilly and quite heavily wooded area. The first 9 is especially interesting with thick woods lining the fairways to catch hooks and slices.

It is our impression that the player who concentrates on good direction instead of distance will go out in front on the first nine as the holes are not long but can be full of trouble for shots which stray off the direct line to the green.

Another point to keep in mind is that the greens are fast and your 7, 8, or 9 iron won't stick the ball on the green unless dropped near the front of the green. We found to our sorrow, after having to take extra approach shots on the first 4 holes, that the best policy was a pitch and roll game. As a 15 handicap player, we shot well over what we should due to this approaching problem on the first nine. The fairways are in wonderful shape making summer rules which will be used in the Paddock tournament no handicap to anyone.

The greens are very fine and putting is about the same on all of them.

Nordic Hills is a daily fee course but, like others which have formerly been private clubs, has retained all the locker room and refreshment facilities of a private layout. Sunday's tournament will be held in a setting which will be enjoyed by the participants and by anyone who wants to get out for a game on a good daily fee course.

A WEEK FROM MONDAY football practice will get underway in Illinois high schools. Most of them will have physical exams required of players in advance of that date and equipment issued on the weekend. This year Palatine High is asking all who go out for football except the freshmen to see their family doctor and take care of getting their physicals before the deadline. Freshmen will be examined at the school but others must pay for their own check ups. Players who report late may not compete in the first game unless they have 14 days of practice before the opening game, whether or not the team practices twice a day. This state rule is to insure good condition before competitive play in an effort to avoid injuries.

Most coaches ask their boys to report in good condition so that hard work may start the first day. They are encouraged to run and do calisthenics on their own to get in shape. According to the state rules, no practices may be held in advance of the state opening day.

Groups of boys getting together to practice without the coach violate the rules just as though he were there and particularly so if he has issued balls or other equipment which encourages such action. A number of Illinois schools have been punished for violating this rule and have had to forfeit some of their first scheduled games and forced to start the season several weeks later. The regulations are quite clear but there seem always to be a few unscrupulous individuals who want to evade the spirit of the rule. Enforcement is not so easy. Some schools complain about their neighbors but the real enforcement must come from within the schools themselves for they made the rule and must punish their own coaches who bring a bad reputation to the school through breaking the association rules and taking advantage of their opponents.

Fadaro's Tops Busse Motors In Mt. Prospect Golf Loop

Fadaro's Redwood Restaurant defeated league leading Busse Motor Sales Tuesday, Aug. 6, in Mt. Prospect league play by a narrow margin, 5 2/3 to 4 1/3, but the victory did little to change the Motor Boy's grip on first place. With their margin of 12 points over the nearest contender Busse looks like a cinch for first place in the final standings.

The real battle now is for the second and third place trophies. Mt. Prospect Jewelers, up to now one of most serious contenders for first place, was dumped from second place to fourth after a 4-6 defeat administered by Hank's Pure Oil who continued to display the steady drive that has characterized their advance from the second division to serious contention for one of the place positions. Fadaro's improved their position with their defeat of Busse Motors and remained in third place.

WHILE THE above teams were slugging it out, Licht's Paint Store pulled a sneaky end-around, defeating second division Moler's Barber Shop 8-2, thereby capturing second place unwillingly vacated by the Jewelers. With only 3 nights of play to go the struggle for the place positions could turn into quite a dog fight.

Birdies: Pete Peterson No. 13 and Bill Nave No. 11.

Barrett Insurance Holds Top Spot in Wayside League

Barrett Insurance maintained their lead Wednesday evening at Chevy Chase in the Our Lady of the Wayside league by running over Moodys by the score of 5-1. The lone defeat for Barrett came as Bucky Bakalar suffered a stroke penalty for lost ball on the final hole as darkness closed in. Bernie Kelly played very good golf however, and Bucky would have settled for a tie. Mert Taylor's 41 was low gross for the evening as he, Jack Boland and Tom Barrett put their team into a 2-point lead with 1 night of play left.

Era Tool rolled past Continental Can Co. by a score of 4½-1½. The Can Co. dropped two matches by forfeit while winning one and playing one tie. Howie Johnson and Paul Marsh were victorious while Steve Bratko tied Dick Jamieson. Tom Strass scored for Continental Can.

ARLINGTON MILK managed to score 3 points to tie Stefanik Food Store as Lou Stefanik and Don Engstrom shot some hot golf against the dairy team. Lou picked up low net with a 35 while the points for Arlington Milk were scored by Tom McGrath and Bruno Jacobs.

The league tournament is to be held at Chevy Chase on Sunday, August 25. Members are requested to make up their own foursomes now and turn in the names to Sec. Bob Taylor.

His records include the three titles he won at the 1956 ABC tournament—team, doubles, and all-events. No man before Lillard ever won 3 titles in the same tournament. Lillard also set the cash prize record for ABC Tournament records when he won $2,180.75. He is the fourth man to win four ABC titles — he was a member of the 1954-55 team champions. (Sp

Dairy Wallops Gunnells by 5 In Golf League

Two nights of league play remain for this season in the Rob Roy Tuesday night division. Next week's regular schedule and the last night's position round will fill out the slate.

Tuesday Dunteman's rolled over Gunnells Recreation, 5½-1½, to increase their lead to 12½ points. Second place L-Nor Cleaners swamped Elston Driving Range, 6-1. The Cleaners own the only mathematical chance to overcome Dunteman's and the milkmen must lose 13 out of the next 14. Of course, the Cleaners must win all 14 in the meantime. The Dunteman team is the first in league history to win both the honor of playing in the Paddock tournament as well as the league championship.

THE BATTLE for second should hold the spotlight from here on in. This year the league elected to award trophies to the first and second place winners and then to give a trophy to the best man in each division. The only stipulation on the last mentioned trophies is that the winner is not a member of the first or second place team. The division leaders are as follows:

First division: Don Hager, 28½; Norvel Funk, 28½; Bert Casteel, 28; Stan Fill, 26½; Hans Adler, 26;

Third division: Vinc Hoffman, 28½; C. B. Owen, 28; Ed Daugird, 27; Len Dunteman, 26.16.

FOURTH DIVISION: Bill Behrens, 30; J. L. Stearns, 28; Johnny Brennan, 27; Joe DeMichele, 27; Hap Procunier, 24.33.

There are 6 possible points remaining and can be gained by attendance (1 point), winning a match (1 point), and low nets in division (1 point). Among the alternates the leaders are Jerry Andrews, 20½; Mel Harting, 20; Vic Soderstrom, 20; Paul Malchow, 16½.

Best rounds of the night came on the front nine in a match between Bob Noble and Hans Adler with Noble winning on the last hole.

General Mills Gains Crown In Softball

Facing a win or else situation, General Mills came up with a 4-2 victory over Fastex to take the second round championship in the YMCA softball league. This victory forces a playoff game betwen Fastex and General Mills for the championship.

And a fitting climax this game will be, as these two teams took turns defeating each other, with Fastex winning the first round game and General Mills emerging the victor in this crucial second round tilt.

After grabbing single markers in the first and third innings, General Mills saw Fastex tie up the game with a two run fifth. General Mills grabbed the winning runs in the sixth on a clutch double by Mueller. Engstrom led off with a single and Winklehake was safe on a fielders choice. After Middleton flied out Mueller came up with a big two bagger to clear the bases.

Fastex came up with 3 of their 6 hits in the last 2 innings but couldn't punch a run across, so General Mills 5 0 4-2 victory to force the play-off game.

Begin Planning Unique City for Handicapped

Nine specialists have accepted the responsibility of planning for the health and education of 500 children who will live in an entirely new community to be built near Chicago.

The community, designed to provide mentally retarded children with the means to a useful existence, and a permanent home for the rest of their lives—is planned on a 60-acre tract in Algonquin rd., near Rolling Meadows. It will be known as Little City. Children from midwestern states only will be accepted.

BEN SEARS, chairman of Little City, Inc., this week announced the acceptance of almost all members asked to form the professional medical planning committee for Little City. Others currently out of the country, are expected to join the committee on their return.

Members of the committee who have accepted this voluntary assignment are:

John A. Bigler, M.D., chief of staff, Children's Memorial hospital, Chicago.

Benjamin M. Gasul, M.D., director, pediatric cardiophysiology at Cook County Children's hospital and Hektoen Institute for Medical Research, and clinical professor, department of pediatrics, University of Illinois, Chicago.

Hans Meyer, M.D., clinical director, Fort Wayne State School, Fort Wayne, Ind., formerly clinical director, Muscatatuk State School, Butlerville, Ind.

Paul Moore, Ph.D., director of voice clinic and voice research laboratory, Northwest university, Evanston.

Helmer R. Mykelbust, Ph.D., professor of audiology and director of the Institute for Language Disorders in Children, Northwestern university, Evanston.

P. J. Sparer, M.D., professor of psychiatry and preventive medicine, University of Tennessee medical school, Memphis, Tenn.

Johanna K. Tabin, Ph.D., Chicago Psychological Institute.

Joseph M. Wepman, Ph.D., assistant professor, department of psychiatry and surgery, University of Chicago.

ADVICE ON the optimum form for physical facilities needed for Little City will be among the initial responsibilities of the professional planning committee, said Sears.

Current plans for Little City call for 30 homes, each to accommodate a house parent and 15 to 20 children. Each home will have its own kitchen and dining facilities. Other buildings will house administrative offices, infirmary and dispensary, schools, church, recreation hall, and research center.

Sears pointed out that the need for professional advice in building lies in the nature of the inhabitants of Little City, who will have diverse levels of handicap. Generally, mentally retarded children have a short span of attention, he said, so school buildings and class rooms must be designed to help overcome outside distractions.

OTHER DISABILITIES may include children who are retarded and deaf, retarded and blind, or retarded and emotionally disturbed, orthopedically handicapped, and those with speech problems.

Ground-breaking for Little City will take place after the sponsors have concluded a city-wide drive for an initial $200,000 to raise the first group of buildings, Sears said. The tract of land has already been purchased at a cost of $45,000 with money raised by Chicago area businessmen and service groups interested in the cause of aiding the mentally retarded child.

The 6 Chicago service groups affiliated with Little City, that have pledged financial aid ranging from $1,000 to $16,000 are: Open Hearts for Retarded Children, Zohar Foundation, Society for the Advancement of Retarded Children, Rose Protus Social Service Club, Louis "Chip" London Foundation for Retarded Children, and the Al Abrams Memorial Foundation.

POLICIES FOR Little City to be set by the professional planning committee include the intellectual grouping of the children. "These children cannot all be grouped into one category — mentally retarded. They have different capacities for learning, and at Little City the medical committee will have full scope to explore the range of their educable possibilities."

The generally accepted standard for diagnosing the mentally retarded is an I.Q. range from 80 down. An I.Q. of 80 to 50 is considered retarded but educable. Children in this group can be taught to do some reading, writing, and with vocational adjustment, work at semi-skilled jobs. Those with an I.Q. of 50 to 35, are considered trainable but require a constantly protective environment. Generally, those with an I.Q. lower than 35 are considered custodial cases.

OTHER POLICIES to be decided by the planning committee include the emotional needs of the family of the retarded child. It is sometimes not wise to take a retarded child from his family. In other cases, it becomes important for the child's emotional well-being that he be permanently separated from the family.

"At Little City" Sears said, "every effort will be made to keep children in close contact with their families when it is possible, but the system must be flexible." He pointed out that every family will be thoroughly investigated before admitting a child to Little City.

THE MEDICAL planning committee concur in recognizing the imperative need for a community such as Little City.

These needs are: first the lack of professional residential boarding facilities for mentally retarded children in the Chicago area. The schools that do exist have long waiting lists and are restricted to certain age levels and I.Q. brackets, and most of them are financially prohibitive to the average family.

Second, the mentally retarded need professional care, since their problems are complex and often beyond the scope of the understanding of parents.

Third, they need an environment in which they can compete on their own terms. (B7

Former Chemist To Speak Sunday In Mt. Prospect

An industrial chemist who gave up a career in that field to enter the ministry, will occupy the pulpit of the Community Presbyterian church, Mt. Prospect, next Sunday. Dr. Charles A. M. Hall, a graduate of Northwestern Institute of Technology and later, of McCormick theological seminary, will conduct the 2 morning worship services in the absence of the Rev. R. Norman Herbert, who is on vacation.

Dr. Hall served as pastor of a church at Willow Springs while studying at McCormick. Following his ordination he chose to continue his studies at Basel, Switzerland, where he received his Ph.D. degree. While there, he was brought under the tutelage of Dr. Karl Barth, an outstanding theologian. Dr. Hall now teaches in the department of Biblical history, literature and interpretation at Wellesley college.

Die Young; Escape Senility

by LELAND ELLIS TRUXELL

Although you may hear people say "I know what I would do if I were his age," or "I hope I don't live that long," it is impossible for anyone to know what they will do, how they will feel, or whether they will want to die at, say, age 70 or not.

I have often overheard conversations where people in their fifties say of their aging parents, "I would be better for them if they would 'go on'." But life is as sweet at seventy as at fifty, or thirty. Not how old you are, but how you feel about life and living is the criterian by which any individual measures his life. And no person can say at thirty how they will feel at fifty or seventy, let alone how another, older person feels, or what is best for them. I would resent, and so would any other person, being told it was "best for me to go on." And I certainly do not feel that I have the right to say when another person should die, or whether it is best for them to die. I feel that that is up to God.

I WOULD BE willing to bet that, baring serious illness and great suffering, even the person who hopes he doesn't live "that" long, will want to live on after he reaches "that" age, whatever that age may be; and the person who knows "What I would do if I were his age," will suddenly find old age upon them, and that their ideas have changed completely.

I know folks who wish their parents would go on—either because they are tired of caring for them, or are impatient to get their hands on the money they would leave behind, or for some such reason. Time will come when they, too, will find their children anxious for them to go on, and they will resent it, will feel abused and not wanted, unless by their example and teaching, they raise their children to honor and love them. Life is a cycle of birth, youth, maturity, old age and death. Only those who die young can escape it.

Thousands Jam Annual 4-H Fair at Arlington

A bogus solar battery, a uranium comforter with less radioactivity than a radium watch dial and a "therapeutic comb" were among the attractions viewed by more than 30,000 persons at the North Cook county fair last weekend.

THESE 3 ITEMS were among many displayed by the federal Food and Drug administration, a new exhibitor at Arlington Park this year. The agency is a watchdog that makes sure the American consumer gets his money's worth and stays healthy.

The booth was one of the most popular during the 3-day fair, a fact quite pleasing to Donald W. Johnson, a chemist in the Chicago office who manned it Sunday.

The curious could put on earphones and listen to the slow clicking as Johnson tested the comforter with a Geiger counter, then hear the clicks come 5 times as fast as he held the needle over his watch dial.

The battery was a cement disk with holes in it which supposedly "activates water used to cure intestinal ills." An evil-appearing cat made out of popcorn was another in the gallery of phony and dangerous products detected and taken off the market by the food and drug sleuths.

"The cat contained such large amounts of coal tar dyes that children became ill when eating it," declared Johnson.

ANOTHER favorite with the sport-shirted crowds of parents and children was a booth operated by the Palatine Pet shop There golden hamsters dozed in their cages, parakeets ($2.98 each) looked pretty and tropical fish cavorted in their watery prison.

A tame monkey was shown by the Northwest Suburban chapter of the American Cancer society to let the public know of the monkey's use in the continuing search for a cure for the disease. However the animal was less than anxious to meet the public, however, for it remained rolled into a ball much of the time.

Most of the 60 commercial exhibits drew clusters of strollers, many offering a chance at a gift as a lure. Teen-age boys were seen half buried under the hoods of sleek new automobiles or behind the wheel while girls flocked to dress and music displays.

OUTSIDE ON the bleachers many soaked up the sun while partaking of generous-sized plates of foodstuffs. Bands from Arlington high school and Great Lakes Naval Training Center offered music during the weekend and amateur talent had its big night Saturday night. The horse show Saturday saw dozens of youngsters tensely leading their mounts.

The heart of the 11th annual fair was, of course, the 636,700 4-H entries. There were dozens of neatly-arranged bundles of home-grown produce, some 20-odd displays of home economics club and many individual displays and literally hundreds of animals and poultry.

One of the most interesting of the club entries was that of the Up & Doing unit of Elk Grove township. On a civil defense theme, the background was a gray mushroom-shaped cloud with the message "duck and cover" while in the foreground a housewife took shelter behind a couch in a living room and city drivers left their cars to head for cover.

For the youngsters who entered into the 4-H competition, the highlight of the weekend was the awarding of grand champion and class ribbons.

Youngest of the grand champion winners was 11-year-old Nancy Mae Sheer, who lives on a farm on Penny rd. near Bartlett rd. Her purebred Angus heiffer, "Blackcap Donnie," took the prize for beef cattle.

Active in 4-H only 1 year, the pert lass said Blackcap was a gift from her brother 2 years ago.

"I take care of her most of the time," she smiled, "but Daddy sometimes feeds her in the morning when I don't get up."

FARMING IS a full-time occupation for several of the grand champion winners. One of them is Wesley Plote, 19, who took both the dairy and dairy showmanship prizes.

He has captured a case full of 4-H trophies in 9 years as an exhibitor but these were the first in the 2 categories. Plote, who farms 400 rented and owned acres around Algonquin and Ela rds. with his father, showed 8 head of cattle plus sheep and swine.

All of them he has purchased over the years and they form the backbone of his dream — a farm of his own.

Other champion winners and their class: Sheep — Bill Engler, 14, Palatine township 4-H; Swine, Erwin Schmid, 21, Barrington Pioneers; Poultry, Lyle Hecht, 12 Hanover Hawks; Rabbits, Donald Gerken, 15, Wheeling Do'ers; Home Garden, Sandra Zick, 13, Elk Grove 4-H; Crops, Martin Hahnfeld, 13, Wheeling Do'ers; and Commercial Garden, Gordon Von Bergen, 16, Elk Grove Junior Farmers. Thirteen-year-old Sandra Bonkoski took first in a milking contest.

Elected king and queen were Herbert Schmid, 18, of Barrington township, and Audrey Gronert, 18, of 2012 E. Euclid, Arlington Heights. (B-7

GRAND CHAMPION VEGETABLE GROWER in north Cook county is 13-year-old Sandra Zick, of 537 Washington, Des Plaines. She has been active in 4-H affairs for 4 years and is a member of an Elk Grove 4-H unit. Sandra also submitted chinchilla and flower entries.

FOURTEEN-YEAR-OLD BILL ENGLER captured the grand champion award for sheep at the north Cook county 4-H fair last weekend. He lives in rural Palatine township and showed 5 Shropshire sheep in the fair.

ROYALTY OF THE NORTH COOK COUNTY 4-H FAIR last weekend were King Herbert Schmid, 18, of Barrington township, and Queen Audrey Gronert, 18, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Gronert, 2012 E. Euclid, Arlington Heights Audrey, a 1957 graduate of Arlington high school, won a Rotary club scholarship several months ago and will attend the University of Illinois.

ELK GROVE TOWNSHIP contributed Gordon Von Bergen of Elmhurst rd. to the grand champion's circle at the north Cook county 4-H fair. His display took first in the commercial garden class. He has been a member of the Elk Grove Junior Farmers 4-H for 6 years.

ARLINGTON HEIGHTS ONLY GRAND CHAMPION WINNER at the north Cook county 4-H fair was Don Gerken, 15, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred C., 718 N Vail. A member of the Wheeling [illegible]nning New Zealand white rabbits.

Judge Fisher Upholds Rand Rd. Auto Wrecking Company

(CNS)—Circuit Judge Harry M. Fisher has held operation of an auto wrecking company on a Palatine township site is a legal non-conforming zoning use.

The court said Andrew and James Chiumiento have a clear legal right to continue in business on a triangular 4-acre plot on the south side of Rand road about 900 feet west of Wilke rd. Name of their business is Andy's Auto Wreckers.

However, Judge Fisher further ordered by agreement that they refrain from burning rubbish on the premises and stop any noisy work after 8 p.m. and around the clock on Sundays.

ALL SELLING and dismantling of cars and parts must be done behind an existing 8-foot high sheet iron corrugated fence, the court said.

Testimony was introduced during the year old case that the property was used for dismantling old cars since 1923. This disputed the county's contention that such use was discontinued for more than a year at a time during the years 1940 to 1956.

On this basis, the county maintained any right to operate as a legal non-conforming use ceased to exist. It called the place a "junk yard" and said it didn't belong in a farming district.

ALBERT F. DePUE, 203 N. Hale st., Palatine, township supervisor, said the place couldn't operate because it didn't have the necessary written consent of property owners within 1,000 feet of the premises.

But, Harry Knaack, former new car dealer at 16 N. Vail st., Arlington Heights, testified the place for the last 17 years was used for wrecking cars.

Laverne Levine, 10 W. Campbell, Arlington Heights, said he had personal knowledge of this for the past 25 years.

Another witness, C. J. Williams, 1 N. Hickory st., Arlington Heights, said he was familiar with the place and its owners in the past 20 years. (AKP

Q. How far under the table should the chairs be pushed, when placing them for dinner?

A. The front edge of the chair should be on a perpendicular line with the edge of the table.

"When are "informals" properly used in correspondence?

A. The "informal" is a fold-over card, and may be used for any short note — for sending and replying to invitations, for enclosing with a gift, and so on. It is not proper, however, as a roper, however, as a letter of condolence.

Jarecki Urges New Vigor For Suburban Democrats

by CHARLES HAYES

A "new political order" is emerging in one-party suburbia.

"The days of old-fashioned ward meetings and straight ticket voting are past," declares John T. Jarecki, 49, of 705 E. Fairview, Arlington Heights. "The average voter today is better equipped and better informed than ever before."

Jarecki is almost certain to seek the political leadership of Wheeling township Democrats in next April's primary. Present committeeman is Jack Clark, 9 E. Hawthorne, Arlington Hts.

"SUBURBANITES have become Republicans in the same way they join a club or buy a commutation ticket — as a matter of habit or conformity," explaines Jarecki. "Old timers never want to face realities and talk about issues. They confine politics to personalities and vagaries."

Insisting that the time has come to make a new pitch for independent, well-informed suburban votes, Jarecki adds that "voters can no longer be sold a bill of goods."

He describes suburbs as "the forgotten step-children of professional politicians. Suburbs are saddled with absentee political leadership. There's no spokesman interested enough and influential enough to look after the real interests of this territory."

JARECKI POINTED to a 3-year delay in widening Central rd. as "disgraceful" and due to this inactive or ineffective political leadership.

If elected Democratic committeeman, Jarecki said he would initiate a 4-point program:

1—Establish an organization of "vigorous leadership" in every precinct and provide "everyone with an opportunity to participate and express viewpoints.

2—Organize a program of public information, inviting officials to visit suburbs and explain their jurisdictions, such as probate work and taxation.

3—Organize information programs on elections, registration, and voting machines to make sure a maximum number of eligible voters have an opportunity to vote.

4—Insure personal contact of every voter by a precinct captain.

JARECKI SAID he was encouraged by the "tremendous amount of unsolicited support I've received from Democrats and independents in Wheeling township and elsewhere.

"The 2-party system is healthy for any area," he said. "There's certainly a great need for more active, vigorous discussion of public questions in these suburbs. The voter is being cheated of his democratic right by this indifferent approach to current issues."

JARECKI WAS BORN in Chicago, educated in parochial schools, and graduated from Morgan Park military academy. He holds B.A. and law degrees from Northwestern university. From 1936 to 1942, he was state securities commissioner and from 1947 to 1952, collector of internal revenue for 26 counties in northern Illinois.

He has held a reserve commission since 1929 and served on active duty during World War II from 1942 to 1946. His last assignment with the legal department of the Signal Corps was assisting in the reorganization of Radio Tokyo. He is presently a Lt. Colonel in the reserves.

Jarecki, son of former County Judge Edmund T. Jarecki, is now in private law practice with offices at 10 S. LaSalle st.

A resident of Arlington Heights since 1949, he is married and has a son, John Jr., 8.

IS HE THE "hand-picked candidate" of Mayor Richard J. Daley?

"Hardly," laughed Jarecki. "When a delegation from Wheeling township visited Daley recently, they were told in no uncertain terms that Jack Clark is Wheeling committeeman." (ACM

Fatal Burning of Boy, 5, Is Declared 'Accidental'

(CNS)—The fatal burning of Theodore E. Emil, 5, of 2657 Scott street, Des Plaines, has been declared accidental in an inquest conducted by Deputy Coroner James Dempsey.

At the inquest, August 7, at Oehler Funeral Home, Lee and Perry, Des Plaines, police said young Emil was fatally burned in a flash fire in a garage at the rear of 2639 Scott street, Des Plaines, last Tuesday.

Neighbors told police that an explosion preceded the fire.

A BOOK OF burned matches was found next to the boy's body, police said, along with a book of unused matches. A third book of matches was found in the boy's pocket.

A gasoline operated power lawn mower was near the body.

Henry Scantlin, owner of the garage, said the doors of the garage had been left open.

The child's mother, Shirley, said she had left the house 5 minutes before the explosion to go shopping. The boy's father, Erik, is a tool and die maker. (B7

Jehovah's Witnesses Tell Of Action Against Pastors

Ten American missionaries were deported to Puerto Rico from the Dominican Republic August 3, Richard E. Paulick, presiding minister of the Des Plaines congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses, which has members living in Arlington Heights, Rolling Meadows, and Palatine, announced yesterday.

Fare was paid by the Dominican government and the missionaries were escorted under arrest to the plane.

ACTION CAME on the heels of "a wave of persecution equaled only in Communist countries" climaxed by a total ban proscribing the work of Bible education conducted by the Witnesses in the Dominican Republic since 1945.

An ultimatum to the Christian missionaries to renounce all association with the organization and cease communication with their Brooklyn, N. Y., office or leave the country was made last month by Major General Arturo Espaillat, Minister of Security, whom the U.S. government has sought to question in the disappearance of Dr. Jesus de Galindez. Some of the missionaries have been in the country for 11 years.

ACCORDING TO official news sources of the Dominican Republic, proscription of the Christian activity of Jehovah's Witnesses was legalized by President Hector Trujillo on July 25 and the law carried penalties of from one to three months imprisonment with fines of from thirty to one hundred dollars.

It was announced that over $1 million had been appropriated by the Dominican government to enforce the ban.

PAULICK SAID a full-scale campaign to restrict the religious freedom of the Witnesses has been underway since July 1. Kingdom Hall meeting places had been ordered closed and about 250 of Jehovah's Witnesses were brought in for questioning.

The Witnesses have been subjected to beatings and violence by police and prison guards in an effort to make them renounce all association with the movement, Paulick stated. About 50 are now in prison, some with sentences of two years.

OK Rand Rd. Rezoning for Business Use

(CNS)—Cook county board has approved application from Fred J. Anderson, Marengo, McHenry county, to rezone 1.25 acres on the south side of Rand road about 278 feet south of Thomas avenue in Wheeling township from farming to business.

THE COMMISSIONERS were told a contract purchaser plans to construct an additional building consisting of 2 stores. They would be for retail sale of hardware supplies, pumps and other equipment used for water wells.

If You Want to Help

a neighbor family in bereavement here is a suggestion:

About a week after the funeral, drop in and offer to address acknowledgment cards. By helping in this way you let your neighbors know you are thinking of them . . . afterwards . . . when companionship is so important.

NEEDLE in the GROOVE

by PAUL LITTLE

Here's a hi-fi demonstration disc to end all of them—Mercury's fabulous 12-inch "Bach on the Biggest." It features organist Robert Elmore on the auditorium organ of the Atlantic City Convention Hall. To give you an idea of its dimensions, we might tell you that a 13-story building could be set on the floor of the hall and not touch the roof. The organ itself is the world's largest, with seven manuals and 1250 stops and 33,000 pipes (which occupy 20 rooms!) and its total sound equals the combined volume of 25 brass bands. To capture the mighty resonance and wide-range frequency response of this gigantic instrument will stand as an electronic engineering feat of magnitude for a long time to come.

Elmore plays Bach's wonderfully moving Toccata and Fugue in D Minor, 2 beautiful chorale preludes and the majestic Toccata, Adagio and Fugue in C Major. But to hear his mastery of this incredible organ demands a hi-fi system of the utmost clarity and reproducers that will take the thundering pedal points without "fluttering." We used the Bozak B-310 with its 4 woofers, one mid-range and 8 tweeters, and an Electro-Voice 50-watt Circlotron power amplifier, with the hum-free wide-range Miratwin cartridge. We only wish all you music lovers could have heard the breathtaking grandeur and pulsestirring tones of Bach's grandiose music thus realized.

IN CONTRAST, Norm Granz has a Verve 12-incher, "Drumorama," that sets sonic standards in jazz: Louis Bellson, one of the nation's top drummers, is featured with his orchestra. "A Trip to the Jungle" starts off with fascinating pace and torrid drum work, but "Drum Solo" is the real prize; with sensational speed yet utmost clarity, Bellson makes his percussion instruments sound like a whole concerto, and this is the most realistic sound we've ever heard on a jazz lp. Other tunes are "Heat Wave," "Blues in 6/4," and "Scene U.S.A." Don't miss this one!

From Victor, in the noted Birdland jazz series, we cite "Woods and Quill," LPM-1284. Phil Woods and Gene Quill are alto sax men artistically influenced by the great Charlie Parker. Their combo includes Sol Schlinger's glowing baritone sax, Dave McKenna's lyrical piano, Buddy Jones on bass and Shadow Wilson on the drums. All three sax men sing out with "Sax Fifth Avenue," as neat a piece as it is a pun; Bill Potts' creative touch is highlighted in his originals "Frank the Barber" and "Pottsbille U.S.A." Nat Pierce contributes some fine numbers in "Rib Roast," "Dig Your P's and Q's," and the sultry "Cabeza," while Woods, original "Una Memento" has a zestful Latin flavor to it. Very good modern jazz, and sound to match.

Another dandy Victor 12-incher (LPM-1491) is "A Most Musical Fella," starring the Lou Levy Trio with Lou's sparkling piano, Max Bennett on bass and Stan Levey on drums. Hear their "Night and Day," a very original treatment as Stan plays a part of the verse melody on the cymbals. Others are "Angel Eyes," "Lou's Blues," "Yesterdays," "Apartment 17" (a 64-bar-long miniature that's tart and neat), "Baubles, Bangles and Beads," and a lilting "I'll Remember April."

ANOTHER VICTOR Birdland 12-incher (LPM-1282) stars Al Cohn and Zoot Sims playing in their own sextet. Here are 2 great tenor sax artists, paced by the magnificent Osie Johnson on drums, Milt Hinton's fine bass, Dave McKenna and Hank Jones on piano, and Dick Sherman's trumpet. Tunes include Ralph Burns' fascinating "Crimea River," Osie Johnson's exuberant "Mediolistic," Manny Albams brilliantly effective "A New Moan," and "My Blues," a gut-deep blues number by Al Cohn that's extremely convincing.

And if you're vacation-minded as you should be this time of year, then Mercury's "Fiesta in Hi-Fi" will give you the impetus needed; the full-color cover of a bass with drawn bow and a Mexican serape and sombrero in mid-air alongside lets us anticipate the pungent and exotic melodies of Robert McBride's brilliant "Mexican Rhapsody," lead along gayly in Lyndol Mitchell's "Kentucky Mountain Portraits" to the "Shivaree" finale, treat us to Ron Nelson's lyrical "Savannah River Holiday," and wind up brilliantly with Charles Vardell's rollicking "Joe Clark Steps Out." A credit to our native composers, and masterfully played by the Eastman-Rochester Symphony under Dr. Howard Hanson, himself a great composer and prime champion of our native musical talents. Beautiful sound!

Unique Fisherman Embarks on Trip

Loren P. Woods of Homewood is going fishing.

But he's going fishing as an ichthyologist, not as a Weekend fisherman in a small boat on lake or stream.

Woods, who is curator of fishes at Chicago Natural History Museum, will be at sea for some 42 days, without touching shore or coming within the international 12-mile limit. He will fish along the entire Caribbean coast of Central America from Yucatan to Panama.

WOODS WILL SAIL Tuesday from Pascagoula, Miss., aboard the Motor Vessel Oregon, a tuna clipper belonging to the U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service. The regular crew will be engaged in investigating problems relating to commercial fisheries, but Woods will be collecting thousands of specimens for purposes of scientific research and exhibition at the museum. The Oregon's crew will be trawling at depths of from 25 to 300 fathoms, and also will engage in long-line fishing for tuna. These operations will yield many interesting specimens for Woods, in addition to what he catches on his own.

Returning to Chicago with his collections late in September, Woods will just have time to sort out his specimens into jars of alcohol before he departs again on the Oregon in November for a similar 40-day expedition farther south along the Atlantic coast of the Guianas and Brazil. (B7

Firestone Introduces New Low-Price Nylon Cord Tire

A low-priced nylon cord replacement tire with high speed characteristics will be made available to motorists this month by The Firestone Tire & Rubber Company, according to Jack Walsh, Northwest Tire & Supply, 700 E. Northwest hwy., Arlington Heights.

"The tire is new from start to finish," Walsh said. "It is designed to withstand hot summer driving on the nation's turnpikes and other vacation routes."

CALLED "DE LUXE Super Champion," the new passenger tire is reinforced with speedway tested nylon cord. The company's original "bladed' design provides longer mileage, better traction, easier ride and holds squeal and whine to a minimum.

Nylon was built into the new DeLuxe Super Champion to provide motorists with an economy priced high speed tire for vacation driving. Nylon adds a 15 mile-an-hour safety margin.

"Combined with the tires high speed performance," Walsh said, "is a cord body that will take rough roads in stride. Nylon practically eliminates the danger of sidewall breaks.

"That means car owners can get more and better recaps," he said.

FIRESTONE'S newly developed "speedway weld" is the basic construction feature of the tire. Heat resistant thread compound, improved synthetic rubber and high adhesion stock are used in the tire's construction.

Oxidation and deterioration, common enemies to tire life, are curbed by the heat resistant thread compound. High adhesion stock between the thread and tire body completes the "speedway weld."

The modern "low look" was built into the tire by reducing the width of the white sidewall. A heavy rubber bumper protects the white finish from curb scuffing.

Nylon DeLuxe Super Champions will be available this month in popular sizes at Northwest Tire and Supply. (BB

Home Prices to Rise 20% By 1962, Predicts Builder

Home ownership in today's rising real estate market can provide a good hedge against inflation, a Chicago area home builder reported.

"Increasing prices will make present homes worth 20 per cent more in 1962 than current market values," according to Albert E. Riley, president of Hasbrook Construction Co., Inc., which is building 532 homes in Arlington Heights.

"THIS MEANS that for a $2,000 down payment today, a homebuyer can take command of $19,000 worth of real estate, the purchase price of the home. In five years, the market value of this home will rise to $23,000, for a $4,000 gain," he said.

Riley based his estimate on an analysis of real estate price increases in the last decade, which have amounted to 5 per cent yearly.

"This steady rise is a result of the post-war demand for new housing, plus the inflationary impact of the continued high level of government spending and the wage-price spiral," he said.

In the next 2 years the increase will slow to 2½ per cent per year because of the tight money market.

"IN 1960, a new housing boom is expected when the 'war-babies' born in the 1940s marry and form families," Riley said. "This demand will push housing starts well over a million yearly. The increased market activity combined with continued inflationary pressures will undoubtedly cause housing values to again return to their 5 per cent yearly increase rate."

Thus, he explained, a house purchased today will increase in value 2½ per cent per year for the next 2 years, then 5 per cent per year thereafter, for a total increase of 20 per cent by 1962. (BB

Visits Famous Research Center

The world-famous Johnson's Wax Administration and Research Center designed by Frank Lloyd Wright was visited last week by George A. O'Connell, 574 S. Hale st., Palatine.

A tour was made of the Administration Building called by architects the "greatest contribution to business housing since the skyscraper" and the Research Tower, one of the architectural wonders of the world.

The Tower has no first floor, no supports directly under the side walls. A central core anchored 54 feet in the ground carries the 15-story building. Twenty-one miles of glass tubing circle the building betwen bands of brick.

Johnson's chemists, who develop a wide range of chemical specialty products for the home, industry, commercial maintenance and agriculture, were viewed at work. (BB

Mt. Prospect Youth Travels Al-Can Trailer Trek North

ED WILSON, Arlington Heights senior and his father, Edward L. Wilson, 323 S. George st., Mt. Prospect, stand beside the station wagon and trailer Ed is driving to Alaska. He is a crew member of the Al-Can Trailer Trek, which includes six trailers from the middle west and six from Los Angeles which are carrying a party of nationally-known outdoor writers up the Alcan Highway. The middle western unit left Chicago Saturday, August 10. They will fish in Canada and the Yukon Territory. The trip is sponsored by the Mobile Homes Manufacturers Association of which Mr. Wilson is managing director.

by EDWARD H. WILSON

International Falls, Minn., Aug. 11, (Special—by telephone to Paddock Publications). —Six travel trailers, the middle western section of the Al-Can Trailer Trek, rolled into International Falls tonight on their way up the Alcan Highway to Alaska.

We moved out of Chicago Saturday and at the same time 6 travel trailers rolled out of Los Angeles, all headed for the same destination, Anchorage, Alaska. The caravan includes crew members and nationally-known outdoor writers intent on fishing along the Alcan and in Alaska.

TODAY WE PARKED along the road near Superior, Wis., and cooked our first trailer meal—chili. Each unit is fully supplied with food and must prepare its own meals. We have a cargo trailer with us and included in its supplies are 750 cans of food. We have lots of can openers.

We plan to fish in both Canada and Alaska.

Yesterday we stopped at West Bend, Wis., to visit the plant of the Mallard Coach Corporation. The writer is driving the third trailer in the caravan which happens to be a 17 foot long Mallard. It is well equipped with bunk beds, cook stove, heaters, gas lights and even a propane gas refrigerator.

WE SPENT LAST night in Marshfield, Wis., the home city of another manufacturer who has a trailer in the caravan.

The trip is sponsored by the Mobile Homes Manufacturers Association. Jack Foster, of Chicago, assistant managing director of the association, is captain of our section of the caravan

The writers in our unit include Tom McClary, a magazine writer from New York City; Jack Parry from the Gary Post-Tribune; and Steve Harrison of the Chicago Tribune News Syndicate. George Johnson, a New Trier junior is traveling with us. He is writing an outdoor article for Boys Life and also the Wilmette Life. Other outdoor writers will join us on the way.

TODAY WE HOPE to fish near Kenora, Canada, and will then move on west toward the Alcan Highway. We have plenty of fishing equipment; including almost every kind of lure made so the trip should be good.

Just prior to the takeoff of the travel trailer trek, Ross Loeffler, assistant secretary of the interior, wired Edward L. Wilson, MHMA managing director, best wishes for a successful trip and a pledge of continued assistance from the department's representatives in the Territory. His wire follows:

"On behalf of the Fish and Wild Life Service, I am pleased to extend our very best wishes for the successful sportsman's trek up the Alaska Highway to the fishing and wildlife paradise of Alaska. We of the service are particularly interested in enlarging the public knowledge of the outdoor sports this area affords and are most enthusiastic about this venture, which will bring so many of the nation's outstanding outdoor writers and photographers into first hand contact with Alaska's splendor.

"YOUR ORGANIZATION'S trip utilizing 10 sports type trailers and towing units will give outstanding testimony to the accessibility of Alaska via the Alaska Highway and interest many more people, who are looking for new and stimulating experiences. It has been a pleasure for us to co-operate with you in planning this trip and our personnel are ready and anxious to help at all times while you are in Alaska. We look forward with keen anticipation to the stories that will be written about the trip and its experiences as well as the films which will be made.

"Please extend the service's and my own very best wishes to all who are connected with this trip and to those who will make the journey."

Palatine Man Is Chosen Rotarian

William A. Dasho, 2101 N. Quintens rd., Palatine, has been selected as the public relations profession's representative in the Chicago Rotary Club.

Membership in the club comprises one selected representative from each industry in the city.

DASHO is the founder and president of Dasho-Rogers, Inc., public relations firm with headquarters at Suite 1000, First National Bank building, Chicago. Founded in 1933, the firm is credited with being the oldest public relations firm in the midwest. Its operations are nationwide, representing education and industry.

Dasho has served as publicity director for many years of the annual celebration of Chicago Youth week, which brings attention to the activities of some one million Chicago area youth. He is also national publicity director of the Codes of Conduct movement, an organization which had its beginnings in Chicago and has spread to high school groups all over the western hemisphere.

THE PALATINE resident is also a member and former director of the Illinois Athletic club, Medinah Temple, Scottish Rite Bodies, Knights Temple, Lounsbury Lodge 751, Barrington, and the Merchants and Manufacturers club of Chicago.

New FHA Terms

Chicago area home buyers will now find it easier to purchase houses under $20,000, according to Martin H. Braun, Chicago Metropolitan Home Builders association president.

Since the lowering of FHA down-payments as of August 5, a $20,000 home which previously required an original investment of $3,200 can be purchased for only $2,400 down-payment under FHA insured financing.

MEMBERS of the home builders association expect an immediate increase in demand for these lower priced homes. Braun believes that buyers will act now because labor, land, and financing costs have already risen and will soon force builders to increase prices.

"However," Braun pointed out, "this cost increase pattern has already been experienced by homebuilders and has nothing to do with the lower FHA downpayments."

PRICES HAVE not yet been affected because the houses on the market now were built under costs which were lower than today's. FHA downpayments on new houses over $20,000 are also lower, but the decrease is not as significant as on the lower priced houses.

The downpayment on a $16,000 house, for example, has been reduced $1,000 to only $1,200, putting it within reach of many thousands of families who have been trying to scrape together their downpayment.

Heads Promotion Of New Gasoline

Harry O. Krass, 418 W. Wilson, Palatine, recently directed Shell Oil company's introduction of their new gasoline, Super Shell. Krass is retail manager for the oil company.

Advertising the new product required a considerable amount of work as thousands of gasoline pumps had to be repainted, a new white color, and special decorations had to be installed and new signs had to be placed at every Shell station.

Krass and his corps of merchandising instructors supervised Chicago division revisions at over 1500 Shell service station.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

Scientific healing — healing through the power of God, Soul—will be a topic dealt with at Christian services Sunday, August 18.

Matthew's account of Christ Jesus' healing of the two blind men (9:27-31) will be included in the readings from the King James Version of the Bible. The subject of the Lesson-Sermon is "Soul."

From "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy the following will be read (210:11-16): "Knowing that Soul and its attributes were forever manifested through man, the Master healed the sick, gave sight to the blind, hearing to the deaf, feet to the lame, thus bringing to light the scientific action of the divine Mind on human minds and bodies and giving a better understanding of Soul and salvation."

The Rewards From Christianity

After being bedridden and completely helpless as results of arthritis and heart condition, a woman from Detroit explains how she overcame resentment and was healed on the regular Sunday television series, "How Christian Science Heals," seen on Channel 7 at 9:45 a.m. The other testifier, a man from London, England, had been totally deaf in one ear, due to an organic condition resulting from illness. Both the hearing and the structure of the ear were restored to normal as a result of his increased understanding of God.

The radio program of the same name is heard each Sunday over Station WAIT (820 K.C.) at 1:30 p.m. and Station WNMP (1590 K.C.) at 9:15 a.m. "Reformation Brings Healing" is the title of this week's program.

In the Shadow of the Steeple

A Chat with Missionary At Plushy Golf Course

by REV. WILLIAM McGILL

The plusher golf courses are not usually the places where you expect to hold missionary conversations.

It is expected that businessmen might discuss contracts and arrangements on the course. But usually one does not expect to learn about the Christian hope expressed in mutual sharing of service at the golf course.

OUR denominational magazine sent me to one of the nearby courses recently (whenever they receive a notice of change of address, they forward it to the nearest minister with the advice, "Go, see these people). Ke Bom Kim, a Korean, student at the University of Redlands, was working at the course for the summer, helping his brother parking and delivering automobiles.

Ke Bom is working for his brother who has the parking lot contract. When this brother isn't parking cars, he is doing graduate work in business administration at the University of Chicago.

This might seem to be an unusual family yet only because they are Korean. We are familiars with capable families which send the young people through school on a variety of scholarships and jobs. Sometimes the average church family thinks this only happens in American families.

THE KIMS have several sons. There is another son at the University of Chicago, studying political science.

One is a doctor presently interning at Montreal where he received his degree from McGill University. There is another at UCLA. One brother returned to Korea last year after completing graduate work in agriculture at Cornell.

How does one Korean family manage to keep five or six boys in American schools? The State Department encourages promising students in certain fields, such as agriculture; the mission board encourages others, particularly in medicine and teaching. Various churches are willing to make special grants of assistance to Christian young men and women who wish to further their education.

KE BOM, for example, is sponsored by a church in California; that congregation brought him to this country and continues to express an interest in his efforts. And the boys work and save.

It's a pattern with which we are all familiar. The Eisenhowers obtained their educations the same way. I can think of several people with whom I have gone to school who have accomplished the same thing in their families.

It is reassuring to know that there is sufficient interest in the Christian future of Korea (and other countries) that American churches and political agencies are cooperating to encourage promising students to take their part in the future of their country.

"COOPERATING" may not be the word, since we have a separation of church and state. A promising student is assured of help by the State Department. More to Come ..... $$

Add to In the Shadow of The Then he talks to his minister who talks to representatives of the mission board. The church is able to offer certain other helps. Probably both of them encourage him to work for his own needs, so far as he can.

This provides a good balance of help and self-dependence. And that is an excellent way for things to be done. (B12

An angry man is Sylvester T. Bly,
Who today was sold a piece of "blue sky."
He'd stepped in a showroom—out of the rain,
Was sold a new car before he could explain!
How he hated the styling—so high and square
And in new features it was really bare.
"I got a real bargain—the buy of my life—
But how do I ever convince my own wife?"

Moral: You're paying for a new car... make sure you get one!

When you buy a new car, put your money on tomorrow—not yesterday. Swept-Wing Dodge actually obsoletes other cars in its field. Should you invest in high, boxy styling when Dodge offers the low, low look of tomorrow? Should you invest in outmoded coil springs when Dodge offers new Torsion-Aire Ride? Should you invest in an old-fashioned lever-type transmission when Dodge offers the ease of Push-Button Driving? In other things, too—engines, brakes, interiors—Dodge is years ahead. So put your money on tomorrow. See your Dodge dealer. Join the swing to the Swept-Wing Dodge!

Arlington Coed Describes Mexico City Earthquake

Now that it is a thing of the past, the earthquake which shook Acapulco and Mexico City 2 weeks ago is quite a conversation piece for Karen Lacina, Arlington Heights girl attending the University of Mexico this summer.

Karen, whose parents live at 108 S. Vail, sent the following description of her part in the disaster.

"WE WERE IN Acapulco, Mexico's famous pacific port, for the weekend, as a break from our studies at the University. The weekend was rainy and unlike the city's sunny reputation. Hurricane warnings were circulating around the morning of the 27th, but they didn't worry us since they came from Vera Cruz, which is situated on the opposite coast.'

'That night we went swimming to break our strange monotony of logic problems and college songs. About 2:30 a.m., as we wound our weary path back to the apartment building with bare feet and dripping hair, one of the girls cut her foot quite badly. We rushed her up to our third floor apartment and dug out the iodine and bandages. As our tense little group clustered over bloody toes and iodine, a rumble that seemed to come from all around us pierced the night. At first it seemed like the rumble of a freight train. It abruptly increased. The lights went out immediately. We heard the tinkle of broken glass on the street below."

"THE BUILDING quivered — then shook. Two of the girls tried to run, but we held them back, not knowing exactly what was best. Tense voices came through the darkness — 'Get down away from the glass. It's an earthquake. Don't run.'"

"The trembling building rocked and shook as the earth awoke beneath us. The trembling lasted for what seemed like ages, although we found out later that it was only 90 seconds. Then all was quiet as before and we collected our wits to search for candles, but with no avail. So there we sat like 6 fireflies, for all you could see were 6 burning cigarettes. Our attention was again focused on the bloody foot, but this time by the light of a cigarette lighter. We excitedly told each other our thoughts of 5 minutes earlier."

"I WOULD SAY that we will never forget that moment in the darkness as the earth stirred beneath us. One can talk of fear or read of it, but a person can never know what fear really is until he experiences it."

"Little damage was done in Acapulco, if it is compared to Mexico City. We returned to that city Sunday, the 28th, to view uneven roads, collapsed buildings, and the broken Statue of Independence — La Glorieta."

Make This Your Carnival!
The LIONS are the only service club in Mt. Prospect. For 18 years they have used the net proceeds from their carnivals to help improve Mt. Prospect. LOOK at these LION contributions:
- Purchased LIONS PARK
- Built shelter house at LIONS PARK
- Purchased street signs
- Beautified LIONS SCHOOL with evergreens & shrubs
- Backed the community players in "12 Angry Men" raising $1,000 for the New Hospital.
- Established, maintained and carried insurance on the parking lot at the train station for years. When this was no longer possible, we kept the parking meter revenue out of private hands, made it possible for the village to have this additional money.

Notes on Driving Home

Dear Peg:

One of the most impressive sights in the United States today, I'm sure, is the almost completed, 100 million dollar, Mackinac Bridge.

Easily seen from many miles away, this gigantic super structure will soon link the upper and lower peninsulas of Michigan and will supplant the present ferry service operated by the state of Michigan.

With its two 552 foot towers supporting cables which span 8,614 feet (the longest in the world) the suspension bridge resembles San Francisco's Golden Gate Bridge. The Mackinac Bridge will accommodate 4 lanes of traffic and you'll be able to travel the 5-mile distance across the straits between St. Ignace and Mackinaw City in about 10 minutes.

Unless you have waited in line to board one of the 5 ferries which now crosses the water, you have no idea what a boon this bridge will be to travelers. Bob and I are among those who bear the dubious distinction of being the last of the ferry boat passengers—we waited 2½ hours to make the 53-minute trip!

We left our "Riverview" cabin at Wildwood Retreat after a hearty breakfast Thursday. Traveling on route 41, it wasn't long before we crossed into Michigan's upper peninsula and came into sight of Lake Michigan, stretching out smoother and bluer than I ever remember seeing it at home.

Changing here to highway 2, we enjoyed this view of the water and the woods of pine and birch all the way from Escanaba to St. Ignace. Although lunchtime rolled around, we thought we'd drive right on and have a late lunch in St. Ignace where we might have to wait a little while to board the ferry (what a laugh!)

It was a thrilling sight, as we approached St. Ignace, to see the dim but unmistakable outline of the lower peninsula across the straits to the south of us, and as we drove into town, to see Mackinac Island off to the east of us. The added grandeur of the bridge—a colossal symbol of man's ability to use God's gifts—filled us with awe at the panorama spread out before us.

Fortunately, the afternoon was not too hot as we sat in line waiting to board the ferry. Of course, the initial shock of the 2½-hour wait came as a blow, but resigning ourselves to the fact, we ate hotdogs, drank ice tea, read the newspaper and all the literature on the bridge until at last our line moved up the ramp and on to "The City of Petoskey."

It was a coincidence that we should happen to draw this boat as our destination and vacation spot for the next 4 days was to be just outside of Petoskey, on Little Traverse Bay, at the Menonaqua Beach Club.

My love,

Patty.

Quite Contrary

From Homemaker To a Movie Star

by MARY

Would some one kindly tell me what is so special about a woman coming out of the door of a house with her apron on? I just never gave it much thought before this last week end.

But, somehow in the scheme of things, it has acquired great significance.

Father has always thought it would be peachy to take home movies of all of us going around our daily chores. So, at last he has his hot little hands on a camera and from now on, I have the feeling that I am haunted.

SO, HE TOOK pictures of the youngest doing such unusual things as riding her bike, playing with her cat, and walking up the sidewalk. Startling, isn't it?

Then he took shots of the middle ones mowing the lawn and pulling weeds. This, posterity will be mighty happy about. Feeling that somehow I was being left out and being anything but camera shy, I left the dishes and complete with apron went to the front door to get in on the fun. I always hope that some picture taken of me will turn out to look a little like Katherine Hepburn with a touch of Barbara Stanwyck thrown in.

THEY ALWAYS turn out looking more like a skinny Marie Dressler with a smidgin of Marjorie Main creeping in around the edges. But I am a game one. So out the front door I tottered and had my picture taken. This, I was told, would give our home movies that realistic touch. Mother, the homemaker at home doing homey things that make a house a home. Sounds dreary as dishwater to me, but who am I to argue with the current Darryl Zanuck?

If that had been the end, it wouldn't be so bad but a little later I went out the back door, in my apron, to empty the garbage. It just never occurred to me to jazz myself up to empty the garbage so this shot is sheer stark realism sort of a la Paddy Chayefsky.

WAS THIS TO be all? Nope! Not 10 minutes later, I roamed out the back door and went to the neighbor's yard to see a neighbor who, by the way, had sense enough to take her apron off before she ventured out. I hadn't. So, we have another shot of Mother in her flowered tent going out a door.

Later in the day, I got all cleaned up and did some quite nice things with makeup and hair. Then I went gracefully out the front door walking like Bette Davis.

Father had gone to play golf.

Q. Will you name some of the duties of the best man at a wedding?

A. He looks after the bridegroom, generally driving him to the church. He takes care of the ring, giving it to the bridegroom at the proper moment in the ceremony. He gives the clergyman his fee, and takes care of any tips incidental to the going-away, being of course reimbursed by the bridegroom at a convenient time.

Q. Just what is proper, when meeting on the street, for the man or the woman to speak first?

A. Formerly, it was always the "lady" who spoke first. But today, if they are good friends, there is nothing at all wrong with the man's speaking first.

This Appetizing Meal Is Perfect for Patio

by LOIS SEILER

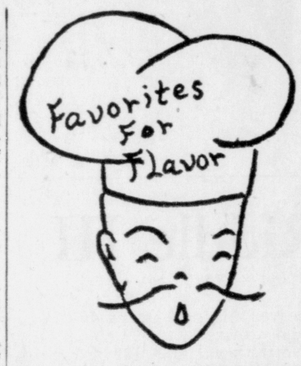
An appealing menu for a hot day patio meal has been shared with us by Mrs. James F. Jones of 103 Ridge, Prospect Heights.

The menu features a new and unique method of serving hamburgers. A large bun, the size of a pie plate, is made from a simple yeast dough. The hamburger, too, is pressed into a pie plate, cut into wedges and broiled — preferably outdoors, if you have barbecue equipment.

The baked bun is cut into pie-shaped pieces and served with broiled hamburger wedges. Mrs. Jones accompanies the hamburgers with a large assortment of relishes.

For this patio meal she also serves a tempting fruit plate heaped with luscious summer fruits. On a large platter edged with garden lettuce she places watermelon wedges, peaches filled with blueberries, strawberries, pineapple cubes and other seasonal fruit.

For dessert Mrs. Jones suggests delicious Butter Chews which take the place of cake. They have a butterscotch flavor and are perfect to serve with iced tea or coffee.



This is an attractive as well as appetizing menu to serve on a hot summer day.

Hamburger Bun

1 small cake yeast
2 tablespoons sugar
½ teaspoon salt
2 tablespoons butter or shortening
½ cup lukewarm water
1¾ cups flour

Crumble yeast in bowl. Add sugar, salt and soft butter or shortening. Stir in milk. Add the flour and mix well.

Turn out on floured pastry cloth and knead until smooth and elastic. Place in greased bowl, cover and let rise until double in bulk, 1 to 1½ hours.

Shape into a large bun the size of a pie plate. Place on ungreased cookie sheet, brush top with shortening, cover with a tea towel and let rise again, about 30 minutes.

Bake in a hot oven, 400 degrees, 15 to 20 minutes. Cut into eighths.

Press seasoned hamburger into the same pie tin in which you shaped the dough. Cut into eighths. Remove from tin with a spatula and broil. Place hamburger wedges on bun wedges and serve. Serves 4.

Butter Chews

¾ cup butter
3 teaspoons sugar
1½ cups sifted flour

Make a crumbly mixture from these ingredients and pat into a greased, 8x8 inch pan. Bake in 375 degree oven until a delicate brown, 10 to 15 minutes.

3 egg yolks
2¼ cups firmly-packed brown sugar
1 cup chopped nuts
¾ cup coconut (optional)
3 egg whites

Beat egg yolks until thick. Add the brown sugar, nuts and coconut. Mix well and fold in the stiffly-beaten egg whites.

Spread on above baked layer and bake 20 minutes in 325 degree oven.

Cut in small squares while warm and sprinkle with powdered sugar. (S

FOOT SAVING EDUCATION

Jack H. Kotz

Why are children's shoe so expensive?

The correct answer to this question amuses some people, angers others and doesn't help the budget a bit. It might save a pair of feet if Mom can use it to convince Dad that shoe prices are not bad.

The real season that shoes are expensive is because we have to have TWO of them. When we look at a pair of five dollar shoes we should think of them individually as two-fifty each. That is how the manufacturer must look at them when he figures his cost of material and labor.

A single shoe at two-fifty, three or three-fifty is a far better value than a hat, a purse or a necktie at the same price. The shoe must withstand grinding on sandstone and yet not blister little feet. It wades through puddles, kicks cans, shinnies up trees and comes up smiling with a little polish.

With the exception of glasses, nothing that we buy for a child can affect his future happiness as much as the footwear that protects the very foundation of bodily health.

IN MEMORIAM

W. James Wetterman: In loving memory of Jimmy, who left us 10 years ago August 17.
Our hearts still ache,
Our eyes still shed a tear,
Only God knows how we miss you,
As ends this 10th sad year.
Loving Mom and Dad,
Cynthia and Teddy.

IN MEMORIAM

Mrs. Fred Siese. In fond memory of our dearly beloved wife and mother who passed away 2 years ago, August 14, 1955.

A heart that was purer than gold,
And to those who knew her and loved her,
Her memory will never grow old.

Calf Crop in Range States Down 4 Per Cent from 1956

by L. H. SIMERL

The official calf crop report for 1957 was released recently. It gives us a better picture of the feeder cattle situation than was available heretofore.

The total number of calves born and to be born this year is estimated at 41.3 million head. This number is 2 per cent less than last year, and 3 per cent less than the record calf crop 3 years ago.

Of the total calf crop, about 48 per cent was from cows and heifers kept for milk, and 52 per cent from other cows and heifers.

RANGE STATES. The calf crop in the 17 range states is expected to be about 17.7 million head, compared with 18.4 million head last year. The reduction amounts to about 700,000 head, or 4 per cent.

The big reductions are in 2 states, Texas and Kansas. Texas will have an estimated 3.8 million calves, 8 per cent less than last year. Kansas will have 1.4 million, 12 per cent less. Most of the other 15 range states will have about the same number of calves as they had last year.

On January 1 the 17 range states had about 10.0 million calves, or 6 per cent less than one year before. Most of these calves are now yearlings. This number does not include any dairy heifer calves. Again, the greatest reductions were in the southern plains — Texas, Kansas, Oklahoma — where cuts averaged about 11 per cent.

RESTOCKING. Some of the range states cut cattle numbers during the drouth years, and may now rebuild herds. This is particularly true of Kansas and Texas. The number of non-dairy cattle in Texas on January 1 was 6.5 million, down 12 per cent from the peak 4 years before. The number in Kansas was 3.0 million, down 17 per cent from the peak 2 years ago. This rebuilding job is relatively small compared with some of those in the past, as in 1951 and 1952. Furthermore, it is not likely to be done in one year.

The total number of non-dairy cattle on farms and ranches last January 1 is estimated at 60.7 million head. This was only 2 per cent less than the all-time high a year before, and 1 percent less than the second highest number two years before.

An addition of 2 million cattle would bring numbers up to near their all-time high in the 17 range states. This number would be about 10 per cent of the calves and yearlings now in those states.

HEAVY RESTOCKING in the central and southern plains will restrict the supply of stockers and feeders moving out of those areas. On the other hand, other areas of the United States also produce large numbers of beef cattle. Therefore, the holding back of cattle for restocking this one area will not cut deply into the supply of beef next year.

Farmers in the corn belt stocked up with large numbers of cattle, especially calves, last fall. Some of these cattle are still on hand, so farmers may not need so many cattle as they bought last fall. (Fm

Livestock Heritage Important

"Family background" is an important point to check when buying breeding livestock.

Dr. L. E. Boley of the University of Illinois college of veterinary medicine says that one of the most effective ways of combatting infertility and other breeding problems in cattle is to purchase replacement animals only from disease-free herds. Often genital diseases and other abnormalities are spread by strange animals brought into the herd.

Dr. Boley emphasizes that it's safer, from a disease-control standpoint, to raise your own replacement stock. But if you must buy replacement animals, here are some precautions that will lessen the chance of "getting stung."

Have your veterinarian examine all cows or bulls before you buy them, and scan the breeding records of the individual animals and of the herd for any evidence of disease.

In addition, quarantine herd replacements for 60 days, and have the veterinarian retest for brucellosis before you add them to the herd.

If abortions occur despite all precautions, isolate aborting animals from the herd as soon as possible, and have the veterinarian make a laboratory test to determine the cause.

Dr. Boley also recommends having a veterinarian promptly examine all cows showing a persistent genital discharge, frequent or continuous estrous periods, failure to show estrum for 60 to 80 days after calving or failure to conceive after being bred 2 or 3 times by a fertile bull or by artificial insemination.

As a rule, a veterinarian should perform pregnancy examinations on all cows every 60 days or 45 to 60 days after service. (Fm

Experiments Help Farmers Get Choice T-Bone Steaks

Make mine medium-rare! This may well be the motto at the University of Illinois beef cattle farm, where experiments are in progress to help farmers produce choice T-bone steaks more efficiently.

According to W. W. Albert, assistant professor of animal science, 312 head of cattle were used last year in feeding trials. These experiments were conducted to help fatten cattle more economically and to produce cattle yielding higher quality retail cuts.

At the farm today, 2 herds of cattle are maintained—the experimental herd and the college herd. The experimental herd is used primarily for feeding trials and other for research work.

One of the current experiments visitors can see involves hormone implants and hormone feeding in steer rations. In the past the 2 methods have produced similar increases in cattle gains. Present studies are using cattle on pasture to determine whether winter hormone implants will carry over and affect summer gains and also whether winter implants plus summer implants will give cumulative responses.

A recently completed experiment tested the addition of various percentages of corn to forage at silo-filling time. Dubbed "all-in-one-silages," the idea is to feed in one operation instead of feeding corn and silage separately. Corn can be added to the silage in different amounts, starting with a low level and gradually building up to a higher level. Studies are being made this summer with silage containing 40 per cent corn.

Results from these and other experiments will be presented at the annual Cattle Feeders day November 1.

Several groups of fattening steers can also be seen in the big, airy barns. They will be used for classroom purposes, and a few may be shown at the International Livestock Exposition by the herdsman, Donald Taggart.

The college herd is composed of 3 purebred breeds—Angus, Shorthorn and Hereford. About 30 breeding females are maintained of each breed, and the number of purebreds totals about 150. These cattle are used during the year in livestock judging classes and in the production courses, and some are used as experimental animals. Occasionally a few heifers or bulls are consigned and sold in the state purebred association sales. Most of the better heifers are retained as herd replacements.

Albert says that several of the college cattle and fat steers are shown a few times to compare them with stock produced by other breeders.

Most of the cows and heifers at the farm today are on pasture, as the grazing season is in full swing. But when October comes around, they'll go into drylot for a winter ration of silage, plus some grain and hay.

The farm is located south of the campus in Urbana. Visitors are welcome at any time. (Fm

Those of you that attended the 4-H Fair will agree with me, I think, when I say that you saw a very fine show and fair. It was outstanding from the beginning to the end. 4-H members are to be complimented on their fine program.

Highways

When driving around Cook County, one begins to realize the amount of land taken by highways. With the construction of the toll roads, we are losing a lot of land now. The toll roads are from 250 to 300 feet wide. In the next 13 years, Illinois will lose 56,400 acres of land for highway purposes. This does not count the clover leaves, which take from 21 to 63 acres each.

IT WILL TAKE conisiderable land out of production, but we don't need the land now to produce food. In later years it may be a different picture. At any rate, Cook County is losing more than its share of this 56,000 acres.

According to the expert predictions, the Cook county area is scheduled to expand rapidly because of the St. Lawrence Seaway. On Saturday, August 24, I am going to take a boat trip around Lake Michigan and down the Sag Canal. Representatives of the U. S. harbor engineers on board the ship will explain all the present industries and the proposed industrial developments.

The boat leaves the Michigan Avenue Bridge at the Wrigley Building pier. It cruises down the Chicago River to Lake Michigan and down the inner harbor to the Calumet River. (This gives a very beautiful view of the Chicago shore line.) The boat enters the Calumet River about 90th st., passing through the great industrial development of that area, and going by the steel mills and railroad barge turning basin giving an opportunity to see the harbor development there.

THEN INTO Lake Calumet where the grain elevators and the proposed new harbor are located. It enters the 16-mile Cal-Sag at the Blue Island locks and travels on the Sag through the Palos area where the big dredges are in operation. At Lemont the boat enters the main sanitary drainage and ship canal and follows it to the south branch of the Chicago river back to the Wrigley building.

After I take this trip, I will report what I saw. This particular cruise is sponsored by the Community Center foundation at Palos Park. Approximately 160 people from throughout the country will take this trip. (Fm

Farmers Warned About Blackleg

Blackleg has a nasty habit of continuing to "flare up" once it gets its foot in the door.

Veterinarians at the University of Illinois college of Veterinary Medicine warn that blackleg germs can live in the soil for years. For that reason, it's a good idea to vaccinate all calves living in a blackleg area."

Calves vaccinated at one or two weeks of age should be revaccinated by the time they are 4 months old because young calves may not develop and retain lasting immunity. Even if you don't have blackleg on your farm, it will pay to vaccinate if there's a chance the germs may be washed or carried from neighboring farms contaminated by the disease.

If you suspect blackleg, it's important to get a veterinarian's diagnosis right away. Although the disease is usually fatal, prompt vaccination often can prevent losses among the rest of the herd.

Blackleg germs may enter an animal's body through small cuts and punctures in the skin or may even be picked up through grazing. Typical signs of the disease include dullness and lameness followed by fever and severe swelling of affected leg due to collection of fluids and gas in the affected tissues. The victims usually die quicky.

Carcasses of animals that die from blackleg should be burned or buried deeply under lime to prevent the infection from spreading.

The danger of blackleg is greater in spring and fall months. However, it has been known to strike at any time. (Fm

Tree Planters Should Make Plans Now

Owners of rural land interested in planting trees in the spring of 1958 should make their plans now. The reason for this early planning, according to Elmer Offerman, soil conservationist, is to make certain that planting stock will be available. This is especially true if they wish to use stock from state nurseries. The supply of most varieties are exhausted by January 1.

Planting trees and shrubs for soil and water conservation, field shelterbeds, protection of watersheds and wildlife habitat, is definitely on the increase, Offerman indicated. For these reasons, supplies of nursery stock are depleted early.

The recommended varieties for sloping, well drained sites are Red, Jack and Scotch pines. On the more level areas or bottomland, varieties such as Cottonwood, Ash and Sycamore are recommended.

Offerman suggested that multiflora rose be planted around these areas to serve as a living fence and wildlife cover.

The state division of forestry at Springfield will accept orders starting September 1 for spring planting in 1958. Price lists, order blanks and complete information are available by writing to the division. Information is also available from your farm adviser and soil conservationist at the Farm Bureau building in Arlington Heights. (Fm

No Proof Caged Chickens Better Than Floor Variety

Although cages have come into wide use, no conclusive proof has yet been produced that they are superior to other systems, according to R. K. Noles, University of Illinois agricultural economist.

Speaking here today before the annual meeting of the American Poultry Science Association, Noles lists these factors for and against the cage laying system.

Housing investment per bird will be more than with a floor system if cages are only single-decked. But with the double-decked cages, housing investment per bird will be less.

For example, a house designed for 1,000 single-decked cages would take about 3,770 square feet. Figuring about 3 square feet per bird, this same house would handle about 1,257 birds on the floor. However, if cages were double-decked, the house would handle 2,000 birds.

Equipment for watering, feeding and nest space will cost at least 50 cents a bird more with a cage laying system compared to a floor system.

Production records kept by cage owners to make culling more accurate are given as an advantage. However, because of the high amount of time required, many cage operators do not keep records and have gone to culling birds on appearance.

Cage operators have also found that culling on the basis of a required number of eggs in a given period results in excessively heavy culling and a loss of income.

Earlier culling in a cage system can mean a lower mortality rate. However, where cage layers have shifted to culling on appearance, the cage system has no advantage.

Cannibalism and competition between birds is eliminated. But floor operators can allow adequate floor space and debeak to solve these problems.

Cage layers seem to have less coccidiosis and roundworms but bronchial diseases and paralysis are more frequent.

Labor requirements for cages can be one of their biggest disadvantages. Feeding takes more labor since there are more linear feet of feeder space. When records are kept, egg gathering takes more time. The watering system requires individual attention and manure management and removal also adds to the labor required.

Double-decked cages which have an advantage in investment costs for house and equipment have a definite disadvantage in labor required and physical effort involved. They require more stretching and bending by the operators in gathering eggs, feeding and cleaning.

Fly control is a major problem in cage operations.

Eggs laid in cages are often dirtier and require more cleaning than with the floor system.

With higher labor and management requirements in cages, Noles concludes that it will be hard to keep cage layer costs comparable to floor layer costs. (Fm

'Hey, You Forgot Something!'

The Way We See It

Trailer Parks Create Burden For Tax-Heavy Suburbs

One of the less welcome effects of the current boom in northwest Cook county is the growth in number and size of the area's trainer camps.

Big projects such as highways, mass housing developments and the like attract thousands of laborers into the northwest. The only temporary quarters available for many of them are in the camps.

Also, with the severe shortage of rental housing locally, many persons with permanent or semi-permanent employment can find or afford no other housing.

A migratory carpenter may park his trailer next to that of a teacher or an engineer.

Existing trailer parks are expanding rapidly to handle the waiting list of customers; a 140-trailer camp will open soon next door to Ravenswood airport on Touhy ave.

At least one more camp will be built if zoning restrictions can be broken down. Would-be camp operators so far have had quite some success in evading or by-passing county zoning laws covering the mobile homesteads.

One county commissioner who has championed the rights of the suburbs has gone so far as to charge that "The trailer parks of today will become the county's slums of tomorrow."

While the commissioner, Charles F. Chaplin of Northbrook, may be overstating the danger there can be no doubt that the trailer camps are creating problems.

One of the most urgent of today's problems is that the trailerites are not paying a fair share of taxes in return for the governmental services they consume.

Home owners in nearly every rural school district and in several urban districts are digging into their pockets to educate trailer park children. And the trailers, 't might be mentioned, are not all parked in camps — many are stuck away behind barns, unnoticed from the highways.

The reason for the placing of this burden on the permanent resident is in the method of taxing trailers and trailer camps.

The camp is assessed and taxed as real estate. But such camps have little in the way of buildings to be taxed. The assessment on washhouses and water and sewer mains doesn't begin to yield taxes to educate the number of children residing at the camp.

Trailers are assessed and taxed as personal property. But the trailer owner seldom is around to pay the tax bill. One township official estimates that "at best" taxes are collected on 5 per cent of the trailers.

And it would hardly pay the State's Attorney to spend $150 in chasing down the migrant owner to collect on a $75 tax bill.

What can be done to remedy this situation?

Voluntary contributions by the camp operator or trailer owner would be the ideal solution. One such plan was announced last year to bring relief to a country school district. So far the school has received only $450 instead of the $10,000 a year it was promised.

Another suggestion has been made but it would probably require a change in state assessment law.

This method would have the camp owner assessed and taxed for all the trailers on his property as of a certain date. The taxes would then be passed on in higher rental fees, much as apartment dwellers have a tax charge buried in their monthly rent.

There is some question as to whether this would stand up in court because the camp owner would pay taxes on someone else's personal property.

If this is not the answer, another solution must be found.

Illinois' outdated tax machinery must be overhauled to distribute the cost of education and other services fairly among those who receive the benefits.

Recreation Diamond Needs Repair

While all the controversy goes on over sidewalks and flood conditions, there is still another problem in Arlington—though not as monumental—which should be remedied.

The condition of the large baseball diamond at Recreation park is deplorable! In the past, the Recreation park diamond at the northeast corner was considered about the best in the area, if not in the entire state. Today, there is no comparison to the field as it appeared 3 years ago.

Everybody worries about keeping the Little League diamonds in good shape, while nothing whatsoever is done to maintain the large diamond. There is no question that the Little League program is of extreme value, but why "discriminate" against the older group?

It appears that the Arlington Park district is deliberately discouraging summer baseball for boys 15 and over. To spend 15 minutes after each use for 4 months during the summer does not seem too much to ask. It was done before—why not now?

In the past, bicycles were not permitted to be ridden in the park area. And this law was strictly enforced. Today bicycles are ridden at will, anytime and anywhere and sometimes on the infield area of the large diamond, creating large ruts and holes, making the surface unplayable. This doesn't help the facilities and also endangers the children.

This may not seem too important a problem to a lot of people. But as long as there is baseball in Arlington Heights and it is played at Recreation park, the diamond should be kept in the best possible, playable condition.

More and Better Driver Training

By
ALFRED L. MOSELEY
Moseley and Associates
Consulting Psychologist
Institute for Safer Living

A brief survey of national vehicle accident statistic will lead to the conclusion that our licensed drivers have not been properly trained in how to avoid accident.

The accident facts speak for themselves.

CONSIDERABLE progress has been made in the utilization of the advantages of driver education. Research in driver safety, teaching aids, testing equipment, excellent text material and teachers' manuals are among the assets.

Some secondary schools in each state provide driver education course. Standard teaching procedures are followed in 44 states in the secondary schools, and in 5 states in commercial schools. Courses for adults are available in 15 states and in 15 states commercial driver trainers are licensed.

APPROXIMATELY 40 per cent of public and private secondary schools offer driver education. Approximately 30 per cent of those who are eligible for the course enroll. Thus one of 7 students who should be receiving training is enrolled.

If this year our secondary school facilities were taxed to the utmost, we would train 400,000 and there would be 8 million students with no opportunity for driver education.

This situation is a critical need, for the statistical picture hardly changes from year to year. In order to meet minimum requirements for driver training needs each secondary school must train 66 per cent of its student population.

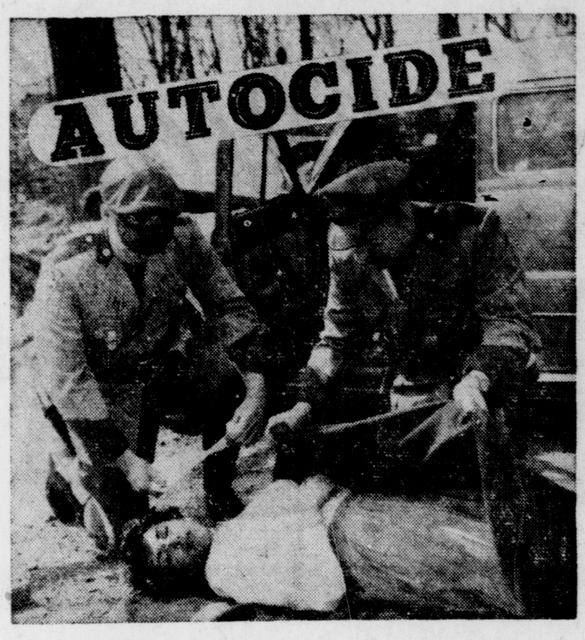
IN ORDER for driver education to contribute its maximum potential in accident prevention in the future, 4 broad areas should be considered:

1 — First, there is the problem of supervision and control. Certification for secondary school teachers is essential, and licensing for commercial teachers is imperative. Courses which are approved should follow a standard prospectus, or be approved against a carefully devised set of standards including content, teaching methods, and demonstrations. Classroom study should include at least 25 class hours, and practive driving instruction should be not less than 16 hours, and should include night driving. Provisions for adult drivers education are badly needed in all parts of the United States. Steps should be taken to provide driver education in the curriculum of every public and private secondary school, accomplishing this objective as rapidly as possible.

2 — Second, student drivers will be limited in their accomplishment by the quality of their teachers. Driver education is often assigned as a collateral duty, without extra pay, and in addition to the normal teaching load.

3 — THIRD, some important aspects of the course are deficient, such as night driving, accidents, speed control, weather, road surface conditions, pedestrians, and cyclists.

4 — Fourth, is the consideration of the student. He should not be deprived of an opportunity to learn to drive safely. In addition to making courses available in the schools, an effort should be made to enforce participation in them. No application for examination for an original license should be accepted from any person who cannot show evidence of successful completion of an approved driver education course.



(This is another in a series of 10 articles compiled under the direction of the Institute for Safer Living and is offered by Paddock Publications as a public service to its readers.—The Editor)

Is parent driver instruction adequate? Training experts say no.

Sound training insures proper youth attitudes . . . respect for enforcement.

At present, 8 million students have no opportunity for driver education.

Proper licensing of commercial driving schools and instructors is imperative.

Proper training before licensing is vital . . . accident facts prove it.

Mt. Prospect — Wm. Cordes is taking in more pickles than he expected, just because his manager is fair and square and because he don't kick.

Alfred Soenksen fell in the pickle tank last week which was filled with salt water and would have drowned if Edwin Wille hadn't come to his rescue and puled him out.

L. W. Wille received the biggest pickle last week, weighing about thirty pounds, and it required all of Edwin Wille's strength to pull it out of the vat.

MT. PROSPECT CITIZENS Band like Arlington Heights Concordia Band is making fine progress under the able leadership of Prof. Wm. Wagner. They gave such splendid satisfaction at Lake Zurich on the Fourth that they have been reengaged to furnish music for the Old Settlers Picnic there Sunday, Aug. 18.

Buffalo Grove — The game of ball between our married men's club and the Bachelors Club Sunday was one of the hottest games played this season. Although the Bachelors were leading in the first half of the game, the married men pulled together as one man when the ladies arrived to honor the occasion and tied the game in the 8th inning. Owing to the threatening outlook of the weather, some of the M.M. left the game and substituted a bachelor of course. This and the inability of the M.M. Club to stick to the ball when mostly needed gave the Bachelor Boys an advantage and they were able to scratch up a few tallies in their benefit — score 17 to 15.

The bachelors were Will Horcher, Joe Weidner, F. Leist, Alex Smith, W. Firnbach, C. Mark, C. Juett, J. Hinsberger, Alley Weidner, C. Rauff, Adam Horcer, S. Mark. Married men were Ernst Brunckhorst, Will Pettinger, Clem Weidner, Joe Emmerich, Ton Wise, F. Weidner, H. Firnbach, G. Weidner, J. Weidner, F. Weland, J. Nickol and Chas. Weidner.

WM. VOSS died of organic heart trouble at the Schaumburg Old Settlers picnic Sunday afternoon. It was just as he shook hands with Fred Katz that he fell to the ground. It was a sorrowful party that returned from a place where they had gone as joyful.

Mr. Voss was born in Germany in 1852. He had been carpentering many years for J. G. Horstman.

Palatine — I will open a kindergarten at my home beginning Sept. 2. Any parents who have children between the ages of 3 and 6, may enter them at this time. The children will be taken to and from school in bad weather. At home Thursdays. — Rose K. Converse.

Roselle — The marriage of Miss Ida Bokelman to Herman Albrecht at the home of the bride was a beautiful affair. About 35 families were invited.

AT THE LAST regular meeting of the Village Board, Mayor Hanson resigned. He had been giving the administration of the office splendid service, satisfaction and had made many friends.

Wheeling — Edwin Gieseke, 16 years, son of Fred Gieseke, left home Friday evening, Aug. 9, wearing his best suit of black clothes and gray hat. His sorrowing parents and family are anxious to hear from him.

Arlington Heights board of education at their last meeting elected Miss Olive Cooper of Pontiac, as assistant high school teacher. Following is the complete corps of teachers for the coming year with their respective salaries: Prof D. W. Gamble, principal, $1,000; Miss Olive Cooper, assistant, $625; Miss Kampert, grades 6 and 7, $500; Miss Ruth Gamble, grades 4 and 5, $450; Miss Marie Muller, gradés 2 and 3, $550; Miss Sophie Thielgaard, grade 1, $500; Miss Kunie Horcher, primary, $650. Total salaries for 10 months school, $3,275.

August 17, 1917

Some of the patriotic people of Shermerville got together Tuesday and organized a Red Cross Society. Some people, especially the special reporter, has been waiting for this to happen and at last all are satisfied.

No service at St. Luke's church Sunday, August 19 on account of the joint celebration of the 400th anniversary of the Reformation on the Orphan Home grounds at Addison.

The Fourth Annual Cook County Fair is over. Successful as it was, it has left behind it a determination on the part of a lot of people to get behind the 1918 Fair and boost so hard that it will be still bigger and better than ever. Young as is this fair, the eyes of our people are beginning to open to the great possibilities that exist for a county fair for the greatest and biggest County in the U.S.

It can not be denied that the burden of the 1917 fair fell entirely upon the shoulders of two men, Charles Dean and M. I. Aronson. They were compelled to surmount big difficulties and the fair was a credit to them and this town.

ITASCA — Misses Edna Schuette, Lydia Weber, Grace Lawrence, Ila and Jennette Woodworth motored to Elgin Saturday and took the completed Red Cross supplies to the Elgin headquarters. There were 27 ambulance pillows filled mostly with snippings made by the little girls. There was also a large suit box of surgical dressings and 24 bed shirts. The society now numbers 100 and meets Monday evenings and all day Wednesdays.

Carl F. W. Mensing was born in 1850 in Landsberg, Hanover. As a life's vocation he learned the mason's trade. In 1878 he married Miss Fredericks Dohe. The marriage was blessed with four children. Through honest labor and intense interest shown along church lines he was tendered the honorable position of an elder in our Friedens church. Friday morning, July 20, the Lord came and rescued him from all pain.

One of the last business blocks in Arlington Heights built in the old days upon "stilts" will be lowered to the street level. Mr. Landmeier, who has purchased the Trettenbach property, intends to lower the store to the street level, moving it a little to one side and build a number of garages in the rear. The present building, used by Mr. Landmeier for his trucks, has become too valuable for such purpose and the new garages to be erected upon his latest purchase will give him garage room adjacent to his store for many years to come.

AL RECORDS for the assembling of a steel structure in this part of the country have been broken at the Arlington Track in the erection of a grand stand which will be completed by Saturday night. The first steel beam was erected July 16. The last piece of steel was set in place last week. This means that 600,000 tons of steel were erected within 18 days.

The race track project has made a lot of business for many of the Arlington Heights business places, but probably none of them are as busy as the railroad depot. The business of that station the past month has increased over 300 per cent.

'Sidewalk Day' Plans Set For 12 Hours of Values

Bargain Fest Here Friday

Thirty Palatine business firms are ready to move onto Slade and Bothwell sts. Friday for 12 hours of out-door selling during the chamber of commerce sponsored sidewalk days sale beginning at 9 a.m.

TOPPING THE day's festivities will be a dance from 9 p. m. to midnight at the corner of Bothwell and Slade sts. with music provided by an instrumental and vocal quartette, the Sunset Serenaders.

To keep the pace moving, 2 prizes will be given away every hour by local merchants from 11 a. m. to 9 p. m. with winners' names being called over a public address system.

Winners must claim their gifts within 30 minutes or else they're added to the prizes to be given away to the next hour's winner. At the final drawing at 9 p. m., names will be called until the prizes are claimed.

TICKETS ARE presently being distributed by local merchants for the hourly drawing.

Refreshments and food stands are being planned by the chamber to quench thirsts and appetites for the stomach. However, it may not be possible to quench the thirst for bargains which local merchants will offer.

Center of the sale will be on Slade st. between Brockway and Bothwell and on Bothwell st. between Slade and Chicago ave. The event is a come rain or shine affair. Parking at all meters will be free Friday with the chamber of commerce picking up the tab.

THE CHAMBER also will have Palatine Centennial books on sale.

Merchants participating in sidewalk day include Suburban Shoes, Village Inn, Pearce's, Palatine Office Supply, Roy LaLonde, Pioneer Hobby Shop, Foster Department Store, Olsen Music Center, Palatine Motors, Palatine Savings and Loan, Urhammer, Palatine Pastry.

Palatine Drug, Moore's Fashion Nook, Sanitary Market, Schoppe Department Store, Ben Franklin's, Roz-Lyn's, Barrington Trucking, Hansen Hardware, Nelson Florist, Red Clare, Cork and Bottle, Paddock Publications, Palatine Paint and Glass, Jewel Tea, Everson Household Appliances, Steak House, Drive-In Cleaners, and Palatine Locker.

THREE NEW ADDITIONS to the village of Palatine are a police officer, a patrol car, and gasoline pumping system. The officer is John Moore, the car is one of 2 new ones leased by the village, and the pump is used to dispense motor fuel for police, fire and public works vehicles in order to save Palatine approximately $1,000 yearly in fuel taxes. All joined the village in July.

Five Gambling Stamps Are Issued in Palatine Area

(CNS) Five locations giving the post office address of Palatine were issued federal gaming stamps costing $250 per machine last week, according to a list issued Tuesday by H. Alan Long, district director of internal revenue.

ONE OF THE Palatine addresses was a renewal by 220 Moose club, C.R. Strobeck, care of Valentine Namovicz, route 3, box 136, Palatine, who has held slot stamps since 1953.

The other 4 were newcomers, however, indicating they might be operators of pinball games which make payoffs in free games cashable at the counter, who were held in a U. S. supreme court decision this June to be liable for the $250 tax per machine.

THIS LIKELIHOOD was strengthened, agents said, by the fact that Lake county last week had 262 gaming stamps issued for the present fiscal year starting July 1, compared to 7 stamps in the entire preceding fiscal year.

That the supreme court ruling brought this about is also indicated by the fact that in the fiscal year ending June 30, 1956, Lake county had 312 gaming stamps of which 283 were issued May 13 that year, shortly after U. S. District Judge John P. Barnes held the pinball machines taxable. The U. S. court of appeals reversed him, causing the decrease last fiscal year, but was in turn reversed by the supreme court in June.

THE 4 NEW Palatine addresses were: Gra-Mar, Grace Johnson, route 3, box 239; Nick and Al's Inn, Mellilli Mariane, 807 Baldwin rd.; Joseph Salem, Edith's Pizza, route 3, box 237; and Harry Skeros, Skeros Supper club, route 12, Palatine.

Does Palatine Want New Chemical Plant Site?

The village of Palatine was asked by Attorney Norman F. Visdal, 61 S. Roberts rd., Palatine, if the manufacturing and packaging of pressurized cans of deoderants, insecticides, paints and insect repellents comes within the village's scope of light industry.

VISDAL brought forth question for C. W. Demmon, executive vice president of Kerr Chemicals, 9 S. Fairview ave., Park Ridge, concerning an 18 acre tract on the north side of Colfax st., starting 440 feet west of Smith st. and extending to the western village limits.

The board referred the matter to the planning and zoning committee for investigation. The area in question is zoned for light industry under the proposed village zoning ordinance.

DEMMON IN a letter to Visdal said, "I will appreciate it if you will check with your village council as to whether our type of manufacturing will meet with their approval. As soon as this is done, we can seriously consider your town as a future site.

"Our new plant will house our entire office staff; our laboratory; our packing lines; and warehouse. The industrial end of business will remain in Des Plaines and we can see no probability of moving it from that location in the future.

"The manufacturing or packaging operation that will be conducted in our new plant will include the following products in 6 ounce, 12 ounce, and 16 ounce pressurized cans: room deoderants, insecticides, Christmas snow, paint, weatherproofing, insect repellent, oven and grill cleaner, odor fish lures, rust inhibitor, plant spray, etc. We are enclosing a few of our sales brochures for your further information.

Being a chemical industry, the chief factor which the involved committees must look into is whether or not production of these products will create objectionable odors.

Trustees Seek Legal Teeth

By a 4-0 vote, village trustees authorized the village attorney, Tom Mathews, to draft an ordinanace giving the village the right to inspect and remove trees hit by the Dutch elm disease.

In a report concerning the disease by Trustee Bob Nelson, chairman of the public health and welfare committee, Nelson reported one varified case of Dutch elm disease. In that case the tree was removed.

VILLAGE MANAGER Robert J. Eppley said the village is considering training employees in raising cultures. By doing so, it will save several weeks in knowing if trees have Dutch elm. Presently it takes 3 to 4 weeks to obtain results when sent to the University of Illinois for tests.

Trustees Dick Wallace, Nelson and Bob Martin voted in favor of drafting the ordinance. When Trustee Fred Dickover abstained from voting, President Howard I. Olsen added his consent. Trustees Dan Wachs and Frank Regan were absent. (PF

by STUART R. PADDOCK

The herd of elk in Busse Woods, Elk Grove, is creating new trouble for Charles G. Sauers, superintendent of the forest preserve district. The elk are having too many "children." (At least we do not have to provide school rooms for them.)

The last time Sauers attempted to thin out the herd, a wave of protest by the general public caused its abandonment.

If the love life of the elk cannot be curbed, we can't blame Sauers if he provides some elk steaks for county institutions. We trust he's too wise to order the entire herd destroyed.

Rolling Meadows' desire to create its own park district can be understood. It's the right answer. The present Palatine rural district would not take kindly to providing modern park facilities for that thriving city of more than 8,000 persons. Wheeling township rural park district will soon face the same problem.

The 1957 4-H Fair is now history. New records in attendance and displays were established. Again the North Cook county fair has outshown its rivals.

The invasion of Chicagoland into rural areas has not lessened interest in farm animals, products, and 4-H club achievements.

Spraying against Dutch elm disease is poisoning many birds. Cook county forest preserve reports indicate that despite spraying, elms are being lost.

The curator of the herbarium of the Natural History museum says, "Since the songbirds help to control the balance of nature, which is preferable to sacrifice: the birds or the elms?"

We would like to know if our readers have noticed, is there less singing by our feathered friends these bright mornings?

Elk Grove Village surpassed all other municipalities in the suburban area in building permits for July.

As we see it, thousands of homes must be constructed to support all those shopping centers that are on the way.

If the village of Mount Prospect carries to the state supreme court an appeal from the latest zoning decision of Judge Fisher, that municipality will be doing a good deed for other municipalities which face similar situations.

A Mount Prospect dentist sought to maintain his office in his residence. Village zoning says "no;" Judge Fisher says "yes."

If legalized, nothing would prohibit the erection of signs in residential areas advertising beauty

Oak St. Resident Seeks Help for Tilting Home

An Oak st. resident whose house keeps tilting further day after day sought action of the Palatine village board Monday night to come to his aid as well as that of others in the southeast section of Palatine with storm sewers to alleviate permanent water holes.

RICHARD HOLPUCH, 312 S. Oak st., in a letter to the village board said, "All of us are victims of leaking basements and sinking houses.

"In my case, I own 2 lots upon which I have built a home into which I have put nearly $20,000. Now I am watching it sink and tilt to the point where my investment is in danger.

"I am sure that storm water drainage could make this a useable property and would eventually drain the water table that is undermining my house.

"MY NEIGHBOR'S lot contains a storm water manhole which I understand was once a storm sewer for this area. How did this come to pass? Did the village permit home builders in this area to disrupt this sewer line? Perhaps it could be reconnected. All this does now is apparently breed mosquitoes.

"My lot has been under water so long now that I haven't been able to control weeds and it has turned into a dense jungle. Our street is partly under water most of the time and has become a muddy eyesore. I think it is imperative that something be done in this area to protect property values and encourage residents to improve these swampy areas.

"I will attempt to contact my neighbors to make a concerted effort to get something done about this. I would like to go on record as being strongly in favor of action.

"I sympathize with Mr. Antonelli and think it is outrageous that a progressive town like Palatine should have such a situation."

Holpuch said that there is so much excessive water in the ground that the other day when he went to plant a tree he struck water just a foot down and had to abandon his plans.

"THE HOUSE keeps tilting a little every day," he remarked. "It's so bad that when you look out the bedroom windows you nearly get sea-sick."

The Mr. Antonelli to whom Holpuch is referring is Donald F. Antonelli, 503 S. Benton st., who has a similar water hole surrounding his garage and near his back door and also wrote the village board about it.

From a point just south of Hellen rd. and east of Plum Grove rd. the area is lacking storm sewers and from a point one block further south it is also lacking sanitary sewers.

IN HOLPUCH'S case he is less than 200 feet from a storm sewer but just over the hump so that water flows south and would require a special assessment to construct a system to run it into Salt creek.

The village will not take steps on this project which is considered "local" rather than "village-wide" until voluntary contributions covering the costs are received or a special assessment authorized. Also the question remains whether the village or home owners will initiate action to clear up the many permanent water holes.

Winston Starts Building Soon

Workmen are expected to move into Winston Park in force early in September to begin constructing 559 homes in Unit No. 1, Robert Richards, sales manager for Winston Park, Northwest corp., announced this week.

Those moving in first from Winston Park's first housing project venture in the Chicago area at Melrose Park will include excavating, concrete, forming, framing, brick, and roofing subcontractors. When work reaches its peak, Richards estimates approximately 500 men will be on the job.

ALREADY MATERIALS are being moved into the area and stored in compounds for readiness, and land and streets graded.

Work is being rushed to completion on Winston's 5 model homes along Palatine rd. in order to give the public a glimpse of what the 1,900 home project will look like in Palatine's newest subdivision of 755 acres. (PF

Visdal Offers Parking Deal

A new innovation in proposed parking lot plans was brought to the village's attention Monday night.

Attorney Norman Visdal and his wife, 91 S. Roberts rd., Palatine, have offered to lease to the village nearly 4,000 square feet for a village parking lot.

The board took the matter under consideration for an area 25-feet wide running west from Brockway along the north side of the new city parking lot along the Chicago and North Western railway tracks.

THE INNOVATION is that Visdal would receive 83 1/3 of the gross revenue from the 78 stalls. However, Visdal also would pay 50 per cent of the gross revenue for meter costs and 33 1/3 per cent for grading and blacktopping.

Under the proposed set-up the village would claim 16 2/3 per cent without any outlay of cash except for maintaining, collecting and policing the meters. Apparently, Visdal would not receive any income until the meters or the grading have been paid.

Violation to Court

(CNS) — Cook county has charged in court that a machine shop operated in a farm zone in Wheeling township violates the zoning ordinance.

The County court suit was filed Friday against Frank A. Sroka, named as owner of the shop on the north side of Meadow Lane west of Wolf road.

Signed by Francis J. Hogan, county violations supervisor, the complaint also charged Sroka erected an addition to his garage without a permit.

like a modern electric range

so modern, so clean, so cool!

... nothing cooks cleaner, cooks cooler or cooks food faster!

As this modern kitchen clearly shows, today's trend is to electricity. And perhaps the best example of this is the electric range.

Smart looking, convenient. Insulated on all 6 sides (as are all electric ovens) you get even, steady heat for baking and roasting. No guesswork with electric surface units either. The heat you set is yours automatically every time. And the heat goes directly into the bottom of the pan, not up the sides and into your kitchen.

But the thing you'll appreciate most is the way your electric range stays modern—year after year.

County Board Denies OK For Schaumburg Mix Plant

(CNS) — Led by Commissioner Fred Fulle, the county board Tuesday denied rezoning for a proposed ready mix concrete plant in Schaumburg township.

The unanimous vote overrode the county zoning board's recommendation to approve the project involving 38 acres on the west side of Rodenburg road and the north side of the Milwaukee road right-of-way.

THE PETITION was amended at a public zoning board hearing to consider reclassifying from farming to heavy industrial only the south 13 acres.

A delegation of nearby home owners was present Monday when the case was before the county board public service committee.

Fulle said all of them were against the rezoning plea because the concrete plant would be near a church and a school. (PF

May Double Life Insurance Coverage

The Palatine administration and finance committee, chairmaned by Trustee Dick Wallace, is presently considering doubling the amount of life insurance for village personnel.

Seventy-five per cent of the employees favored an additional $2,000 life insurance at the individual's expense. The village pays for the first $2,000 of insurance. Because an increase must be accepted 100 per cent, Wallace worked out a plan for $4,000 for male employees and $2,000 for female employees.

This also will enable insurance on department heads to be raised from $5,000 to $10,000 at no expense to the village but with added coverage to its employees.

Tag Day OKs Up to Officials

The Palatine village president and manager have been granted authority by the village board to approve repeat tag days in Palatine. New tag days must go before the village board for approval. (P

A Palatine woman, Mrs. Glenn Chelius, 301 N. Schiller st., received 2nd degree burns about her feet, left leg, and arm and had her hair singed when fuel she was mopping up in her home ignited.

At the time of the fire Tuesday, Aug. 6, Mrs. Chelius was mopping up spilled fuel in the utility room when it suddenly ignited. Damage to the home was estimated in excess of $1,500.

Plan Examining Fee Is Approved

Palatine trustes passed an ordinance Monday night diverting $7.50 for plan examining fees for each new structure from going to individuals to the general corporate fund.

Two Physicians to Examine Woman Sueing for $65,000

The Palatine village board Monday night authorized 2 local physicians to examine a bedridden Arlington Heights woman in a $65,000 law suit against the village.

At the same time, the board authorized the village attorney, Tom Matthews, to obtain a deposition from Mrs. Charles Kessler, Box 277, Route 1, Arlington Heights ,about an accident March 21, 1953, on village sidewalks at Chicago ave. and Brockway st.

MRS. KESSLER claims in her suit filed in 1954 that the village was negligent and that she suffered permanent injury and has been bed-ridden since the mishap. She reported diverse bones to be broken.

The suit filed is for $50,000 for herself because of the injuries and $15,000 on behalf of her husband, Charles, for loss of services.

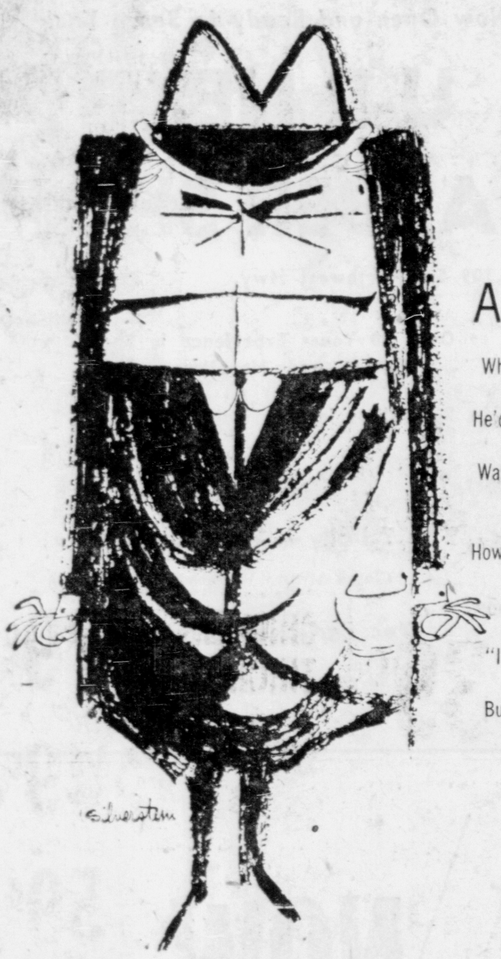
Blame $8000 Fire on Deep Fat Fryer

A fire, created when a deep fat fryer became ablaze, caused an estimated $8,000 damage to a west side Palatine home last Thursday, Aug. 8.

While Mrs. Elizabeth Lautz was outside her home at 439 W. Daniels rd., she noticed flames spurting from her kitchen where a deep fat fryer was ablaze, setting plastic kitchen tile on fire.

THE BURNING tile created dense smoke, sooting almost every nook and cranny in the house. In addition to the Ritchen, a bath room and hall also were badly damaged by fire.

Although no one was injured, a dog and cat perished in the blaze. (PF



An angry man is Sylvester T. Bly,
Who today was sold a piece of "blue sky."
He'd stepped in a showroom—out of the rain,
Was sold a new car before he could explain!
How he hated the styling—so high and square
And in new features it was really bare.
"I got a real bargain—the buy of my life—
But how do I ever convince my own wife?"

Moral: You're paying for a new car... make sure you get one!

When you buy a new car, put your money on tomorrow—not yesterday. Swept-Wing Dodge actually obsoletes other cars in its field. Should you invest in high, boxy styling when Dodge offers the low, low look of tomorrow? Should you invest in outmoded coil springs when Dodge offers new Torsion-Aire Ride? Should you invest in an old-fashioned lever-type transmission when Dodge offers the ease of Push-Button Driving? In other things, too—engines, brakes, interiors—Dodge is years ahead. So put your money on tomorrow. See your Dodge dealer. Join the Swing to the Swept-Wing Dodge!

DIAL SERVICE FOR ALL PALATINE

In June, 1956, about 1,500 telephones in the east section of Palatine were changed to dial. This Sunday, at 12:01 a. m., the final step in our program will be completed when the remainder of Palatine's telephones will be changed to dial service.

If you have individual-line or two-party service, you'll be able to dial direct to Chicago and most suburbs. Eventually, you'll be able to dial direct to many distant points throughout the nation.

Complete information about using your new dial system is contained in the first few pages of your new telephone directory. If you haven't received your copy, call your Service Representative, Palatine 9981, and she'll see that one is delivered to you right away.

Here are some changes that will take place with the coming of dial: All Palatine numbers will start with either FLanders 8 or FLanders 9, and some numbers will be changed entirely. Those already having dial service will be able to dial direct to all telephones in Palatine. It will no longer be necessary to dial the code number "711." Our telephone business office number — now 9981 — will become FLanders 8-9981.

We know you'll like your new dial service. The familiar "voice with a smile" will still be with you — behind your dial, ready to help you in any way she can.

JOHN E. LLOYD, Manager
MISS PEGGY MESSERSMITH, Chief Operator
FRANK W. FOLEY, Wire Chief

After the change-over Sunday, please remove the temporary dial sticker from your telephone. Your "two-letter, five-figure" telephone number is underneath.

New Dial Phone Service Changeover Is Completed

Sunday was dial day for Palatine!

Equipment in the new telephone building at 20 S. Brockway st. sprung into action at 12:01 a.m. on August 18, bringing dial service to all telephones in Palatine.

Some 1,500 telephones were changed to dial operation last summer in the first step toward bringing dial service to all of Palatine. These telephones have been served on a temporary basis by equipment in the Arlington Heights telephone building but they will also be served by equipment in the new building here.

"COMPLETION of the changeover to dial service marks a significant step forward in communications progress here," said telephone manager John E. Lloyd. Besides dialing local calls, individual line and 2-party telephone users will be able to dial direct to Chicago and many nearby communities. This puts an estimated 2 million telephones at their fingertips, according to Lloyd.

With all telephones here converted to dial, the special procedures for calling between dial and non-dial Palatine telephones will no longer be necessary. All local calls will be dialed direct.

NEW TELEPHONE numbers beginning with the telephone names FLanders 8 and FLanders 9 will be introduced for present non-dial telephones on Sunday along with dial service. Dial customers will keep their present FLanders 8 numbers.

Distribution of new directories containing these numbers began last week. Lloyd asked persons who do not receive the new directory by Friday to call the directory delivery office in Arlington Heights at CLearbrook 5-2840. He also suggested that telephone users remember to look in the directory for new numbers—and for information on dialing — before making calls, after the changeover on Sunday. Complete information on dialing local and out-of-town calls will be found in the new directory, Lloyd said.

MIDNIGHT WAS not selected as the time of the change-over for any dramatic reason, Lloyd explained, but simply because only a few calls are normally made at that time.

Operators at the switchboard will interrupt calls being made by non-dial customers and ask the callers to dial the call a few moments later. If any emergency calls are underway, the change-over will be delayed until after the emergency has passed.

"Although we try to keep interruptions of service to a minimum, the change-over will interrupt calls being made by present FLanders 8 telephone users," Lloyd pointed out. "If you happen to be talking at that time and are cut off, please hang up for a few seconds and dial the call again.

EVEN WITH dial service, operators will still be at work "behind the dial." Operators at Arlington Heights will handle calls to information and out-of-town calls—as well as being available for assistance in emergencies.

Regular Palatine operators have been offered the opportunity to continue their employment by transferring to other nearby telephone offices. According to Miss Peggy Messersmith, chief operator here, many Palatine operators will transfer to Arlington Heights following the changeover here.

Home Building Slowing Down

Only a $35,000 4-dwelling apartment kept Palatine building figures from falling below the 100,000 mark for the month of July.

Construction values for Palatine were $124,285 for July, Martin Plate, superintendent of public works, reported this week. This brings the amount of building in 1957 to $1,253,791.

In addition to the apartment building, permits were issued for 5 homes valued at $75,000, 9 garages at $8,631 and 6 home additions at $5,154. (P

What's in Dial Name FLanders?

"FLanders" will soon be one of the best known names in Palatine.

It's the telephone name which went into effect for all telephones here when dial service came to remaining non-dial Palatine telephones on Sunday.

About 1,500 telephones in the east part of town have had numbers beginning with FLanders 8 since dial service began there last year. With the completion of step 2 of the dial program, additional FLanders 8 as well as FLanders 9 numbers will come into being.

TELEPHONE manager John E. Lloyd said that telephone company planners chose the name FLanders for Palatine because it is easily spelled and understood. It also makes telephone numbers here a part of the nationwide numbering plan now being established throughout the country.

This numbering plan is one of the keys to nationwide Direct Distance Dialing, the new service already available in some areas which lets customers dial many of their own long distance calls. Lloyd said that plans to make this service available here are already underway.

Selecting telephone exchange names for use throughout the country involves a great deal of careful planning. Names to be used must be clearly understood by operators and customers in all parts of the nation.

FLANDERS WAS selected for use here from a list of pre-tested exchange names. Names on this list were read over the phone to hundreds of operators in all parts of the country. Only those names which registered close to 100 per cent for accuracy were finally chosen.

"Of course another important consideration is that the name should have a pleasant sound," Lloyd added, "and we think FLanders does." (P

by Jack Coleman

One of these days you'll be able to pick up your telephone and dial Aunt Minnie, wherever she may be, without going through an operator. Telephone company engineers are busy with all kinds of projects . . . like the telephone booth that's almost as comfortable as an easy chair. This new gossip spot has concentrated light on the phone and writing shelf, rubber floors and a ceiling ventilator. Like a kid before Christmas, that's almost too good.

The ventilator's the disturbing feature. If people can actually breathe in a telephone booth, they may stay there for hours, while the waiting line forms on the right and stretches from here to there. Maybe the new chatter chamber needs a trap-door to evict folks who talk for more than 10 long minutes.

A Boston judge told a ventriloquist he'd have to choose between his dummy and his wife. He chose the dummy. Probably just wanted the last word in any argument.

You don't always have to be a ventriloquist to have the last word. Your physician has the last word when it comes to diagnosing disease and prescribing treatment. When that treatment includes medication, our pharmacy is the "last word" in rendering faithful prescription service.

TV SERVICE

The 'do - it - yourself' TV repair books have lost their popularity among home tinkerers. It is understandable that some folks like to tinker with anything that fascinates, and the inside of a television set is fascinating. But when you realize the intricacy of hundreds of electronic parts and devices, you know that it is not like mending a broken chair or fixing a leaky faucet. Proper instruments and meters are necessary to service a TV set besides the learned training.

In one way, we at RED CLARE'S TV SALES & SERVICE hate to see the 'do-it-yourself' books go. Some of the resulting jobs we received were real challenges. One, for example, turned the lights off in the house when the volume was turned-up to a certain capacity. It just burned out the house fuses.

If the inside of your TV set fascinates you, phone Palatine 516 and you can watch us service it in your living room. We'll show you some points that will give you a real kick.

State Approves Street Widening

Word has come from Springfield this week that the widening of Chicago ave. between the Chicago and North Western railway tracks and Bothwell st. has been approved by the state highway department.

The low bid of $28,300.08 by Contracting and Materials co. of Evanston was held up by the state because of items which were above state maximum costs. However, final details were worked out by the highway department.

THE LATEST BID accepted by the village was the same price by the same firm submitted 5 weeks ago but held up because of high individual item costs.

Work is expected to begin shortly which will permit the newly installed stop lights at Chicago ave. and Plum Grove to be put into operation.

The approval will come as good news to merchants along Chicago ave. who have protested against the ban on parking due to the hazard created by the narrow width of the street. (PF

High School Budget Set For Approval

Palatine township high school district 211 is expected to act on a $481,280 budget for the fiscal year which began July 1 at the next board meeting at 8 p. m. Thursday, Sept. 12, in the high school.

Amount of the budget is up slightly more than $100,000, 70 per cent of which is eaten up by the addition of 11 teachers to meet an increased enrollment of 25 per cent and by annual raises approximating $300 for each teacher.

IN ORDER to meet the school expenditures, several thousand will have to be financed by tax warrants. State aid to the high school district totals $5,-227.98 or slightly more than 1 per cent of the total budget.

Under the proposed budget, the district will have 3 supervisors. Their duties will include supervision of faculty and students as well as instruction.

Also a full-time school nurse will be on duty this fall instead of on a part-time basis as was true in past years.

Village Gives Weeds Stern Look, Acts

The Palatine village board is taking a stern look at high weeds in the village and has authorized village officials to ensure that property owners keep weeds mowed.

On the strength of complaints turned in by village officials or citizens, offenders will be given 10 days notice in writing by the village manager to cut the offensive weeds.

INSPECTION OF WEED areas will be made by the village board of health through its health inspector, Dr. Justin Fleischmann.

If weeds are not cut by the owners, property owners, tenants or agents will be charged $6 an hour for village equipment to cut them in addition to a fine which by law can run between $1 and $100. The minimum charge for weed cutting by the village will be $6, Robert J. Eppley, village manager, said.

According to the Palatine weed ordinance, offensive weeds are jimson, burdock, ragweed, thistle, cocklbur and quack grass. (P

Newcomers At Home

ONE OF THE many new families in Palatine are the David Ostergaards and their 3 children who moved in at 148 N. Hale st. 3 months ago. David and Ruth Ostergaard formerly lived in Elmwood Park before buying the Immanuel Lutheran parsonage, which they are now busy redecorating. They own acreage on Ela rd. and someday hope to build there, but at present are happy to settle in town.

The Ostergaard children are Wilma, 18, who works in a local nursing home, David, 12, a seventh grader at Oak Street school, and Laurie, 2½. A dog, cat and parakeet complete the family circle.

Mr. Ostergaard recently went into an engineering design business for himself in Des Plaines. His hobby is flying and the children enjoy this too, as dad takes them up in his Taylorcraft on weekends.

Mrs. Ostergaard is a member of the Home Bureau, and Wilma has joined Palatine Players. The family has not yet joined a church in Palatine but expect to do so in the near future.

NEWCOMERS since June 1 in the Pleasant Hill section of Palatine are Frederick and Jeanne Hamilton of 613 S. Bennett. The Hamiltons are from Chicago but have been visiting friends in Pleasant Hill for several years, so it was an easy choice to make in buying their new ranch home in the same section.

Martha, 7, and Andrea, 4½, are their daughters. Martha will enter Pleasant Hill school in fall. The family pet is a bird.

The couple met at the University of Illinois and were married in their sophomore year. Both graduated in the class of 1949, Fred in the engineering school and Jeanne majoring in history. Fred is now an electrical engineer with Chicago Aerial Industries in Melrose Park.

THE JUNIOR Walter Marquardts of 330 S. Plum Grove rd., Palatine, purchased their lot and then contracted to build a 1½ story home on it, moving in April 6.

Ann Marquardt is an Arlington Heights girl, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Schwartz. She attended Arlington high school and was married in the Arlington Heights Methodist church.

Her husband studied at Bucknell university, Lewisburg, Pa., and is employed in the office of Eimco Corp. in Palatine. Living close to his work gives Mr. Marquardt more time with his wife and son, Steven, who will be 2 in September. The Marquardts are expecting another child in about one month.

TO BE NEAR their grown children and families Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Lohr moved to 126 S. Greenwood, Palatine from Cicero, Ill., 2 months ago. The Lohrs have 2 sons, Raymond and Joseph, who are owners of Lohr's Pharmacy in Arlington Heights. The sons urged their parents to make their home in this vicinity so the families could be close together.

Mr. Lohr is retired but spends many busy hours as a handyman at his own and his sons' homes. He formerly owned a paint store in Cicero.

Since moving to Palatine Mrs. Lohr, (Albina) has ben ill in bed for a month, but is now recovering well enough to be up and around. Through her illness the family has been able to visit often and help with her convalescence by living and working nearby.

The Lohrs have 4 grandchildren who give them great pleasure. Raymond's children are Karen and Ray, and Joseph's are Jodie and Joseph.

DONALD AND Corinne Kramer are new residents who are building their own ranch-style home at 2061 W. Wood st., Palatine. They purchased the lot and started building 2 years ago. May 30 they moved in and are now completing the inside. This leaves little time for social activities or hobbies, but the home will be quite an accomplishment when finished.

Mr. Kramer, a graduate of Northern Illinois State college at De Kalb, is a millwright with J.J McDonald and Co. in Chicago. He taught shop classes in several Chicago high schools before becoming associated in the millwright business. His wife attended Wright Junior college and business school.

The Kramers have 2 children; a girl, Kim, who is 3 and a boy, Terry, who is 2. They have friends and relatives living in Palatine, making them feel right at home. Their uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. John McDonald, live on Old Plum Grove rd. (P

Registration for All New Schaumburg Pupils Aug. 23

Registration of all children new to Schaumburg grade school district 54 will be held Friday, Aug. 23, in the Community Center barn, Robert Flum, superintendent of schools, announced this week.

Hours of registration will be from 9 a.m. to noon and 1 to 3 p.m.

Registration applies to all children entering the first grade and those in grades 2 through 8 who have not previously attended school in the district. This does not apply to children enrolled last June during the regular registration period.

A CHILD MUST be born between Jan. 1 and Dec. 31, 1951, to be eligible to enroll in the first grade. No exceptions are made to this requirement. First grade enrollees should bring their birth certificates while children enrolling in other grades must have transfer forms from their previous schools.

Flum said that according to Jack Hoffman, vice president of F & S Construction co., severe rains in the past few weeks have greatly slowed construction on the new Parcel C school building. As a result, the building will not be entirely completed by Sept. 3 as planned.

THE SUPERINTENDENT added that Hoffman assured the board that several rooms will be completed and ready for use Sept. 3 and the remaining rooms should be completed by Sept. 15.

With these facts in hand, Flum said, all schools will begin full-day classes the day after Labor Day, Sept. 3.

Flum added that there are still several vacancies on the teaching staff and those interested and qualified, even if they are former teachers, should contact him at Fairview school in Hoffman Estates for details. (PF

The nominating committee's efforts are bent toward a slate which will be proposed to Hoffman Estates home owners at the polls, Saturday, Sept. 28.

ON MONDAY, Sept. 9, a general meeting will be held when the nominating committee will present a slate to the district representatives. No names will be released before that time.

The men chosen for the nominating committee were selected by the Home Owners association board in order that group opinion would not be biased and that the community would receive a representative selection.

In the Shadow of the Steeple

A Chat with Missionary At Plushy Golf Course

by REV. WILLIAM McGILL

The plusher golf courses are not usually the places where you expect to hold missionary conversations.

It is expected that businessmen might discuss contracts and arrangements on the course. But usually one does not expect to learn about the Christian hope expressed in mutual sharing of service at the golf course.

OUR denominational magazine sent me to one of the nearby courses recently (whenever they receive a notice of change of address, they forward it to the nearest minister with the advice, "Go, see these people). Ke Bom Kim, a Korean, student at the University of Redlands, was working at the course for the summer, helping his brother parking and delivering automobiles.

Ke Bom is working for his brother who has the parking lot contract. When this brother isn't parking cars, he is doing graduate work in business administration at the University of Chicago.

This might seem to be an unusual family yet only because they are Korean. We are familiar with capable families which send the young people through school on a variety of scholarships and jobs. Sometimes the average church family thinks this only happens in American families.

THE KIMS have several sons. There is another son at the University of Chicago, studying political science.

One is a doctor presently interning at Montreal where he received his degree from McGill University. There is another at UCLA. One brother returned to Korea last year after completing graduate work in agriculture at Cornell.

How does one Korean family manage to keep five or six boys in American schools? The State Department encourages promising students in certain fields, such as agriculture; the mission board encourages others, particularly in medicine and teaching. Various churches are willing to make special grants of assistance to Christian young men and women who wish to further their education.

KE BOM, for example, is sponsored by a church in California; that congregation brought him to this country and continues to express an interest in his efforts. And the boys work and save.

It's a pattern with which we are all familiar. The Eisenhowers obtained their educations the same way. I can think of several people with whom I have gone to school who have accomplished the same thing in their families.

It is reassuring to know that there is sufficient interest in the Christian future of Korea (and other countries) that American churches and political agencies are cooperating to encourage promising students to take their part in the future of their country.

"COOPERATING" may not be the word, since we have a separation of church and state. A promising student is assured of help by the State Department. Then he talks to his minister who talks to representatives of the mission board. The church is able to offer certain other helps. Probably both of them encourage him to work for his own needs, so far as he can.

This provides a good balance of help and self-dependence. And that is an excellent way for things to be done. (B12

Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Valukas, their daughter, Linda, and sons, Ronnie and Jim, returned home August 11 from a 10-day vacation at Sioux Narrows, Canada. They traveled 725 miles with relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Hicks and daughter Jo Ann, before reaching the resort. Most of the vacation was spent on the waters of the Lake of the Woods. The Valukases agreed that the fishing was good, and to prove it Mary Ann can boast of taking a 3½-pound walleye on her first attempt. Before returning home the Valukas spent some time in Kenora.

Mr. and Mrs. Hank Cauwels of Higherest took a 3-day trip last weekend to Memphis, Mich. where they picked up their son, Hank, who has been vacationing for one month at the home of an aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. A. Tonza. On the way back home the Cauwels drove to Sturges, Mich. for a short visit at the home of Hank's brother's family, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cauwels. (P

How 4-H Programs Prepare Youth for a Better Future

The 4-H leadership and achievement programs are rated high in helping teen-age boys and girls become solid citizens of the future. National recognition awaits 14 members who have done a superior job in carrying out objectives of the programs. The 1957 champions will be announced next December during the national 4-H Club Congress in Chicago.

Besides high honors, the national winners will each receive $400 college scholarships: 12 in achievement and 2 in leadership. In addition the 2 top achievement winners will be presented with a beautiful gift of silverware from the President of the United States. The 2 national leadership winners will receive silver trophies from Edward Foss Wilson, formerly of Chicago and now assistant secretary, U.S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare.

EARLY THIS FALL, awards also will be made to county and state winners. Both programs are arranged by the national committee on boys and girls club work and conducted by the extension service.

Ford Motor company supports the achievement program, providing the national, state and county awards. Handsome gold-filled medals will be given to four outstanding 4-H members in each county, while the state winner will receive an expense-paid trip to the Chicago Congress. The program encourages club members to set high goals for themselves and to "make the best better" in whatever they undertake.

WILSON HAS supported the leadership program for 20 consecutive years. In addition to the national awards, he provides gold-filled medals of honor for the outstanding boy and girl in each county; pen and pencil sets for the two who are selected as state winners.

Expense-paid trips to the Chicago Club Congress will be given to four boys and four girls representing the four Extension sections. (4-H

Barrington, County Reach Agreement over Property

(CNS)—A settlement is expected to be signed in September in the Barrington Countryside association's lawsuit over purchase of land in Barrington township by the Forest Preserve district of Cook county.

Lawyers at Tuesday's county board meeting didn't have ready all legal descriptions for incorporation in this proposed settlement:

1. CUT THE SIZE of the area to be acquired from the authorized 2,400 acres to about 1,400 acres.

2. Set aside the land for flora and fauna preservation, not a mass recreation area.

Under the proposal, the Barrington township forest preserve would be bound by the county line on the north, Sutton road for the most part on the east, Bateman road for about half the distance on the west, and Algonquin road on the south.

THE FOREST preserve district would abandon plans to acquire land south of Algonquin rd.

Leaders in negotiating the proposed compromise were Charles G. Sauers, district general superintendent, and Newton Noble, president of the countryside association.

The county's original program in 1955 called for the acquisition of 3,914 acres, which included land in the Spring Creek valley as far south as Higgins rd. (AP

Air Rifle Pellet Strikes Youth

A 20-year-old Palatine youth, came within a half an inch of being seriously injured when an air rifle pellet struck him in the face just below his eye.

James Penning, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Penning, 30 S. Northwest hwy., told his parents he was driving a Palatine township truck near the village last Thursday when he was struck in the face by an unknown object.

HIS FATHER said the pellet must have been well spent because it didn't injure him and he was able to look down in the seat and see what it was. Penning told his father he was hardly able to keep the truck under control.

According to reports he saw several boys in the area and took out after them. In their haste, they dropped the rifle and Penning picked it up and turned the weapon over to police.

Penning was unable to be reached for comment, having left for a short vacation before he returns to his studies at Western Illinois State Teachers college, Macomb. (PF

Barrington Woods

New Arrival

Topping the news this week is the announcement that Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hahn are proud parents of a baby girl, named Cynthia Lou, born in Sherman hospital, Elgin, weighing 7 lbs. 4 ounces. The Hahns has 3 sons, Tom, Steve and Rickey.

Among recent visitors in Barrington Woods are Mrs. H. R. Boverman and Felix Pautler. Mrs. Boverman, from Detroit, Mich., has been enjoying a week's visit with her daughter, Mrs. John Reindell.

Felix Pautler has been staying with his daughter, Mrs. Robert Buchanan, while Mr. Buchanan is in St. Joseph hospital, Elgin, recovering from major surgery. Mrs. Buchanan has reported that her husband is convalescing nicely and is expected home today, Thursday. Mr. Pautler plans to return home today also.

Outdoor Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. William Tillman and Mr. and Mrs. James Hower acted as co-hosts and hostesses at a party honoring Mr. and Mrs. Kendall Hayes, former local residents, who returned to Barrington Woods for a visit. The party, given Saturday evening at the Hower home, had an informal atmosphere as the guests enjoyed an outdoor bonfire with hot dogs and coffee.

Last Thursday evening Mrs. Gerald Tracey was hostess to her sewing club.

'Plant Booth' Set for Fair

The plant booth at the Community Fair, October 11 and 12, will give area residents an opportunity to keep the "summer look" all year in their homes. With all plants donated, bargain prices will be available on all types of philodendron, ivy, geraniums, oxalis, lantana and other popular house plants.

Plants are now being potted and sorted for the fall event by the Plant Booth chairman Mrs. T. E. Schreyer of Des Plaines. Mrs. Joseph Svoboda of Des Plaines, booth co-chairman, is assisting in the work.

A LARGE VARIETY of unusual plants will be offered in addition to the "standard" varieties. Included will be real English ivy from Mount Vernon. Several rare new varieties of African violets will be featured including America, Holly, Wine Velvet and Painted Boy.

Rare plants expected to be "stars" of the booth will be the Italian Bell-flower and the Affine plant. These plants were recently brought to the area by Mrs. Schreyer from her summer home in Vermont.

TO BE HELD IN Recreation Park field house, the Community Fair will provide a 2-day pre-Christmas bargain shopping opportunity for all types of handwork, food, plants and commercial items. Sponsored by the Northwest Community hospital women's auxiliary, all funds raised will be used for the emergency room of the hospital.

Law Books Spur New Annexation

A statute on the Illinois law books has caused the Palatine village board to ask its attorney to draw up an ordinance annexing a tract of land completely surrounded by the village.

The area surrounded by the recent annexation of Winston Park is south of Palatine rd. between Rohlwing rd. and Salt Creek. The south boundary would be the eastward extension of Kenilworth rd.

As the result of being surrounded by incorporated territory, property owners are powerless to remain in unincorporated territory unless the village board fails to annex the territory. (P

Wins Sweater

Mrs. Harry Fick of Marengo won a fur blend sweater presented by Roz-Lyn fashions of Palatine at the annual 4-H Fair at Arlington Park last weekend. The winning number was drawn by Fair Queen Audrey Gronert of Arlington Heights and King Herb Schnid of Barrington. (P

Heuer Rejects Parking Offer

Village Attorney Byron Matthews announced to the board Monday that Fred Heuer has rejected an offer made by the village to him for his Chicago ave. lot as part of a 110-car off-street parking lot and that condemnation proceedings had been instituted.

This is the result of village board action 2 weeks ago authorizing condemnation proceedings as well as authorizing the fiscal agent to prepare a bond issue.

TRUSTEE BOB Nelson, also president of the chamber of commerce, told the board that the chamber will pay for leveling, filling and grading the parking lot and accordingly the bond issue need be only for the cost of the property. This would reduce the bond issue approximately $30,000.

Nelson also said local merchants have committed themselves 100 per cent to the purchase of the parking meter bonds should they be issued.

Matthews advised the board that a referendum on a parking lot issue is not binding upon the board and is advisory only. (PF

Annex Street, Enforce Limits

Palatine's size, expanded 755 acres by the annexation of Winston Park, is expected to grow more since the village trustees ordered the village attorney, Tom Mathews, to draw up an annexation ordinance.

However, this piece of property is not quite as large. In fact, it's only the south half of Palatine rd. between Rohlwing and Wilke rds.

ONLY THE NORTH half of Wilke rd. is now in the village limits. Without the south half, the village is unable to post speed limits and enforce them.

Shortly the village's population sign is expected to be moved from Rohlwing rd. down the road to the village limits at Wilke rd.

The village has drawn up a new map which should be ready shortly. Also the new map is a requirement for a new census which will be taken shortly.

THIS PICTURE was taken in north Cook county following the recent heavy rains. The loss of many tons of soil and water is apparent. Soil conservation practices such as contour farming and strip cropping would have prevented this from taking place. (Fm

Fenders Offended

Two fenders are now being repaired as the result of an accident at Chicago ave. and Northwest hwy. last Saturday when an auto driven by John A. Harlalla, 32, 3128 Bradenton rd., Sarasota, Fla., cut into the inner lane, hooking a fender of a car driven by Kenneth D. Massara, 26, 321 Mozart ave., Palatine. (P

Authorize Sewer Cleaning Equipment

The purchase of a $4,000 sewer cleaning machine was authorized by the Palatine village board Monday night to clean badly clogged sewer pipes full of debris.

The unit will include 2 gasoline windlass units and 5 sizes of brushes and buckets.

PALATINE annually spends between $500 and $1,000 to have sewers cleaned by a commercial firm. Cost to the village is $25 per hour and of late service has not been dependable. As a result of the urgent need, bids were waived.

Next week the machine is expected to be at work on local sewers.

Storage Company Wins Zone Case

The county board Tuesday approved the zoning reclassification from farming to light industrial for Edler and Company, Inc., 8109 Skokie boulevard, Skokie.

THE SITE IS on the south side of Glenview road (if extended) and between Dearlove road and the North Western railway tracks.

George Edler, company president, said at a recent zoning hearing that the warehouse would be completed over a five year period with about 45,000 square feet finished first.

Ultimately, the building will contain 150,000 square feet.

Plans call for solid masonry walls, steel beams, and a steel poured gypsum roof. Each section of the building will have 12-inch brick walls for fire protection.

NON-PERISHABLE materials and office furniture will be stored.

North of the property is a light industrial zone containing a woodworking plant. Approval of Edler's petition was recomendmed by the county zoning board.

About 80,000 square feet will be used for landscaping and off-street parking for employes and customers, Edler said.

Sewage disposal system will be installed. A well will be drilled for water supply. (C

Mr. Martinez, originally from New Mexico, has traveled extensively through Central America, and has a full repetroire of "South of the Border" guitar folk songs and calypso numbers. Through his paternal side he is a direct descendent of Padra Martinez, who came to the New World from Spain in the 1500's.

Start Repairs Of Busse Road

County highway department scrapers moved onto Busse rd. Monday morning to start the long-awaited rebuilding of the road.

By Monday evening the scrapers had torn up the surface of the road between Central rd. and Lincoln st. This section will be repaved with blacktop next spring, after an 8-inch stone base has set through the winter. The road is being leveled and widened to 20 feet.

NEXT SUMMER work will begin on the sections south of Lincoln st., according to a county highway employee. He said no work will be done on this section now because a sewer main is to be laid alongside the road between Lincoln and Oakton.

A new and larger culvert will cross Busse rd. north of Lincoln to drain storm water from Hatlen Heights. The culverts will replace one of about 4-foot diameter.

A 10 by 12 foot culvert is now being placed under Busse rd. south of Algonquin rd. A narrow bridge which has been weakened when repeatedly struck by autos will be replaced. (CF

MAC SAYS

by G. A. McELROY

WEDNESDAY OF THIS WEEK the Inverness Golf Club paid tribute to a great guy, their pro Stan Arendt, with a special day in his honor. Stan has served the membership of Inverness since way back in 1927, a full 30 years ago when the course was only 9 holes and known as the Meadowbrook Golf Club and owned by the Cudahy Packing Company. Now Inverness has a beautiful clubhouse and is leased and operated by the membership along the lines of the better clubs of the Chicago area.

Last fall Stan suffered a severe heart attack but it is hard to keep a man of Stan's caliber down and the popular Inverness pro is back at the old stand again.

He is now giving some lessons, operating the pro shop, and getting in some very good golf aided by mechanical transportation. Stan is on a restricted schedule but is out at the club all the time doing everything possible to help the membership enjoy their golf. By the way, Stan is playing even better than before his illness.

SUNDAY AFTERNOON the Paddock Publications Annual Golf Tournament is scheduled at Nordic Hills Golf Club for the leading teams in the 14 twi-light leagues operating in the Paddock news area. Nordic Hills is a real sporty layout located just off highway 53 to the west and just about three quarters of a mile south of Irving Park Road. We played the course recently and were much impressed with the natural beauty of the course which has its setting in a hilly and quite heavily wooded area. The first 9 is especially interesting with thick woods lining the fairways to catch hooks and slices.

It is our impression that the player who concentrates on good direction instead of distance will go out in front on the first nine as the holes are not long but can be full of trouble for shots which stray off the direct line to the green.

Another point to keep in mind is that the greens are fast and your 7, 8, or 9 iron won't stick the ball on the green unless dropped near the front of the green. We found to our sorrow, after having to take extra approach shots on the first 4 holes, that the best policy was a pitch and roll game. As a 15 handicap player, we shot well over what we should due to this approaching problem on the first nine. The fairways are in wonderful shape making summer rules which will be used in the Paddock tournament no handicap to anyone.

The greens are very fine and putting is about the same on all of them.

Nordic Hills is a daily fee course but, like others which have formerly been private clubs, has retained all the locker room and refreshment facilities of a private layout. Sunday's tournament will be held in a setting which will be enjoyed by the participants and by anyone who wants to get out for a game on a good daily fee course.

A WEEK FROM MONDAY football practice will get underway in Illinois high schools. Most of them will have physical exams required of players in advance of that date and equipment issued on the weekend. This year Palatine High is asking all who go out for football except the freshmen to see their family doctor and take care of getting their physicals before the deadline. Freshmen will be examined at the school but others must pay for their own check ups. Players who report late may not compete in the first game unless they have 14 days of practice before the opening game, whether or not the team practices twice a day. This state rule is to insure good condition before competitive play in an effort to avoid injuries.

Most coaches ask their boys to report in good condition so that hard work may start the first day. They are encouraged to run and do calisthenics on their own to get in shape. According to the state rules, no practices may be held in advance of the state opening day.

Groups of boys getting together to practice without the coach violate the rules just as though he were there and particularly so if he has issued balls or other equipment which encourages such action. A number of Illinois schools have been punished for violating this rule and have had to forfeit some of their first scheduled games and forced to start the season several weeks later. The regulations are quite clear but there seem always to be a few unscrupulous individuals who want to evade the spirit of the rule. Enforcement is not so easy. Some schools complain about their neighbors but the real enforcement must come from within the schools themselves for they made the rule and must punish their own coaches who bring a bad reputation to the school through breaking the association rules and taking advantage of their opponents.

PH Baseball

Last week the Tigers of Prospect Heights lost their most important game of the season to the Yanks by a score of 8-7. A previous game with the Sox that had ended in a tie and was later protested because of a rule violation, was awarded to the Sox and left the season's league leaders resting in second place.

The 1957 champion Cubs have the distinctive record of having knocked off the Tigers in all their games this year. At the beginning of the season they lost their first 2 games and bounced back to win the pennant.

Final Standings:

Cubs	11	4
Tigers	10	5
Sox	9	6
Yanks	9	6
Braves	3	12
Cards	3	12

The exhibition game between the 12-year-olds going into Pony league next season will be played Saturday at 3 p.m. at the Little League field. "National" and "American" league teams will play a game that shouldn't be missed by league baseball fans.

German Shepherd Obedience

Again this year, as last, the German Shepherd Dog Training Club of Chicago will be the host club for the German Shepherd Club of America when the obedience trial classes for this breed are held Sunday, August 25, at the Chicago club's training ground, located on rt. 53 south of Lombard.

This is one of the outstanding German Shepherd obedience trials in the nation, and the event will get under way with the tracking tests at 8 in the morning to be followed by various regular obedience classes at 10 Judging will continue throughout the day and all classes will be finished by approximately 8 p.m.

Doberman Specialty Show

Also of general interest to readers in the area will be the 12th annual specialty of the Doberman Pinscher Club of Chicagoland to be held October 13 at Oak Lawn.

Although it does seem a little early to start talking about a show to be held in October, what makes this particular show outstanding is that the judge will be Will Rothfuss of Stuttgart, Germany. He is considered tops on his continent as a judge and authority on Dobermans. Although this will be his first visit to the United States, his name and achievements are quite familiar to many of the American Doberman judges and fanciers.

Further information regarding this show could be obtained by writing to Phoebe Hansen, entry correspondent, 6259 Sheridan rd., Chicago 40.

The total population of dogs in this country has often been mentioned and it might be of general interest to readers to know the situation in some of the European countries. WEDNESDAY OF THIS WEEK the Inverness Golf Club paid tribute to a great guy, their pro Stan Arendt, with a special day in his honor. Stan has served the membership of Inverness since way back in 1927, a full 30 years ago when the course was only 9 holes and known as the Meadowbrook Golf Club and owned by the Cudahy Packing Company. Now Inverness has a beautiful clubhouse and is leased and operated by the membership along the lines of the better clubs of the Chicago area.

Last fall Stan suffered a severe heart attack but it is hard to keep a man of Stan's caliber down and the popular Inverness pro is back at the old stand again.

He is now giving some lessons, operating the pro shop, and getting in some very good golf aided by mechanical transportation. Stan is on a restricted schedule but is out at the club all the time doing everything possible to help the membership enjoy their golf. By the way, Stan is playing even better than before his illness.

SUNDAY AFTERNOON the Paddock Publications Annual Golf Tournament is scheduled at Nordic Hills Golf Club for the leading teams in the 14 twi-light leagues operating in the Paddock news area. Nordic Hills is a real sporty layout located just off highway 53 to the west and just about three quarters of a mile south of Irving Park Road. We played the course recently and were much impressed with the natural beauty of the course which has its setting in a hilly and quite heavily wooded area. The first 9 is especially interesting with thick woods lining the fairways to catch hooks and slices.

It is our impression that the player who concentrates on good direction instead of distance will go out in front on the first nine as the holes are not long but can be full of trouble for shots which stray off the direct line to the green.

Another point to keep in mind is that the greens are fast and your 7, 8, or 9 iron won't stick the ball on the green unless dropped near the front of the green. We found to our sorrow, after having to take extra approach shots on the first 4 holes, that the best policy was a pitch and roll game. As a 15 handicap player, we shot well over what we should due to this approaching problem on the first nine. The fairways are in wonderful shape making summer rules which will be used in the Paddock tournament no handicap to anyone.

The greens are very fine and putting is about the same on all of them.

Nordic Hills is a daily fee course but, like others which have formerly been private clubs, has retained all the locker room and refreshment facilities of a private layout. Sunday's tournament will be held in a setting which will be enjoyed by the participants and by anyone who wants to get out for a game on a good daily fee course.

A WEEK FROM MONDAY football practice will get underway in Illinois high schools. Most of them will have physical exams required of players in advance of that date and equipment issued on the weekend. This year Palatine High is asking all who go out for football except the freshmen to see their family doctor and take care of getting their physicals before the deadline. Freshmen will be examined at the school but others must pay for their own check ups. Players who report late may not compete in the first game unless they have 14 days of practice before the opening game, whether or not the team practices twice a day. This state rule is to insure good condition before competitive play in an effort to avoid injuries.

Most coaches ask their boys to report in good condition so that hard work may start the first day. They are encouraged to run and do calisthenics on their own to get in shape. According to the state rules, no practices may be held in advance of the state opening day.

Groups of boys getting together to practice without the coach violate the rules just as though he were there and particularly so if he has issued balls or other equipment which encourages such action. A number of Illinois schools have been punished for violating this rule and have had to forfeit some of their first scheduled games and forced to start the season several weeks later. The regulations are quite clear but there seem always to be a few unscrupulous individuals who want to evade the spirit of the rule. Enforcement is not so easy. Some schools complain about their neighbors but the real enforcement must come from within the schools themselves for they made the rule and must punish their own coaches who bring a bad reputation to the school through breaking the association rules and taking advantage of their opponents.

14 Foursomes In Paddock Tourney Sunday

Harris, Kleinofen, Lee, Sage To Tee-Off First at 11:30

Fore!

That will be the cry at 11:30 a.m. Sunday, August 18, at Nordic Hills Country club when the first foursome of Paddock Publications Inter-League Handicap golf tournament steps up for tee-off.

Fourteen foursomes will be striving to take home the large traveling trophy, the 12 individual medals and the dozen golf balls in the eighth annual Paddock tournament. First place teams of 14 twilight golf leagues have been chosen, handicaps have been computed, and the chase is on.

There is no $50,000 prize awaiting the winners, but action in the Paddock tourney is certain to be lively. Defending titlist league is Mt. Prospect Monday league, though Whitton Realtors, actual foursome copping the title for that league a year ago, won't be there.

FIRST FOURSOME will include Avery Harris of Kamps Signs and Old Orchard Scratch league and Chuck Kleinofen of Koop's Mustard of Arlington Heights league at Mt. Prospect. Both of these men are 1-handicap players. Others in the group are Robert Lee of Dunteman's Dairy of Rob Roy Tuesday league and Stewart Sage representing Arlington VFW loop. Both of these men are 4-handicap players.

Complete list of foursomes with handicaps is listed in this issue. Handicaps were computed on basis of 80% of the difference between a player's average 9-hole score for his 5 best nights and par for the course on which he plays. This handicap, including fractions, was multiflied by 2 to obtain the 18-hole handicap.

ALL GOLFERS must be on time for their foursomes. Expected times of tee-offs are published this week. The tournament growing to 14 foursomes it will take 1½ hours for all golfers to start play. But many of the early golfers' minds will be set at ease if they know their complete team showed up before teeing off. Last year one team was almost disqualified when one member was delayed by a flat tire.

Alternates have been named by most leagues. These men are urged to be present in case someone fails to show for the tournament. Last minute substitutions can be made, though such substitutions must have a record of their 5 best scores with them providing their league secretaries haven't already turned those scores in to the tournament manager.

NORDIC HILLS Country club is located south of Medinah, a little south of Irving Park rd. Golfers can best find their way there by driving south on route 53 from route 19. Turn off for Nordic Hills is between routes 19 and 20. Just how golfers can get around the toll road detours changes from week to week. As of Tuesday, the best route for Arlington and Mt. Prospect golfers is to go south to route 58, west to 53, thence south to the course.

There are several firsts for this year's tournament. The 14 foursomes is a new record as interest in twilight golf increases. This is the first year for St. Raymond twilight league to participate. That loop has 2 divisions, thus 2 entries. This is the first time for Our Lady of the Wayside loop, playing Chevy Chase, first time a competing foursome in the tourney has come from that particular course.

TIOGA VFW league of Bensenville has grown to 2 divisions. Thus, there is an additional entry from Du Page county. Tournament promoters had to decide on the 2 divisions of another league which had just 6 teams in each division, and ruled that for a league to have 2 entries there have to be separate divisions of competition, with at least 8 teams in each half.

And if you like puns, there are 3 VFW teams fighting for honors, plus a delicatessen battling a supermart.

WHAT'LL IT TAKE to win the tournament? Usually a 290-300 net. Foursomes can best start with 290, add their handicap, then shoot for that total with an eye as to where to put the trophy.

Golfers are asked to stick around at the course until the tournament is over. Paddock Publications photographers will be taking pictures of foursomes finishing first, second and third, plus low individual champ.

Paddock Classic Bowlers Plan Opening Sept. 14

Paddock Classic Traveling League came one step closer to realty Saturday when franchise money was turned in, uniforms were ordered and grand opening date of the league was set.

All 6 teams of the group will bowl at the Ten Pin in Barrington Saturday night, Sept. 14, starting at 6:30. This will be the first night of play with 25 "regular' nights following interspersed with 5 "position nights" after every 5 nights of league play.

THE LEAGUE has pointed for 910 average teams. This will give the top average bowlers of the area an opportunity to be in top flight competition all season long. Bowling establishments of Hi-Way Recreation at Palatine, Beverly Lanes at Arlington Heights, Gunnell's at Mt. Prospect, Jeffery Lanes at Wheeling, and Ten Pin at Barrington are all cooperating in the league. The sixth house is still to be named, possibly this weekend.

Bowlers will appear in full uniform with individual game scores publicized in the area. Bowling at each house is scheduled for 6:30 p.m. Saturdays, with 2 teams at each of 3 houses each week.

Captains of the teams will meet this Saturday morning at Gunnell's. (SP

Temporary Pets

Families on vacation in the country or at summer resorts should not adopt dogs or other pets unless they intend to keep them permanently.

The adoption of "summer pets" often comes about when parents heed the pleas of the children to accept the puppy that someone has offered. But when the summer ends and the family returns to the city "where" the parents explain, "it would be too much trouble," the pet is left behind or guiltily dropped out of the car several miles distant. Perhaps it is a foundling stray that has been taken in and who, after briefly knowing kindness, is again forsaken.

People who abandon pets like to think that the animals will "find" new homes, but there is ample proof that this rarely happens. If the family could only see the suffering of the deserted dog in his desperation, his fear and hunger and possible injury or death on the road as he tries to follow, they might think twice before being guilty of abandonment. Yanks, Indians Cop 2 Wins In Palatine AL Division

by AUGIE BOEHM

Wednesday's early game in the Palatine American League between the Indians and Athletics ended in a 12-4 win for the Indians. Pomplin pitched for the Indians and hurled a nice, steady game. Heaver pitched for the A's.

Dolce was the heavy hitter of the game, getting 3 hits. The Norton brothers of the Indians and Beahe aided the winning cause with 2 hits each. Dempsey and Beutelspacher of the A's came up for 2 hits each.

Wednesday's late game found the Yanks beating the Tigers, 6-1. Sundling pitched for the Yanks and gave up only 2 hits. The Yanks scored 1 run in the opening inning on hits by Leiman and Schur. They added 3 more in the third on a walk to Leiman, a hit batsman, a walk, and single by Gustafson.

THE YANKS scored twice again in the fifth on a single by Stires, a walk to Sundling, and a terrific triple by Thompson. The Tigers scored their run in the fourth on singles by Lynch and McWilliams.

Friday night the Red Sox lost a heartbreaker to the Indians, 7-6. The Indians were leading 5-3 at the end of the fifth inning. In the sixth the Red Sox came up with 3 runs on hits by Cooper, Wienke, and Wisniewski, putting them ahead, 6-5. However, in the last of the sixth the Indians came up with 2 runs when Pomplin walked and Dove doubled and the Red Sox kicked the ball around.

TUESDAY'S early contest ended with a 6-2 victory for the White Sox over the Red Sox. Stahl pitched for the "Pale Hose" and gave up only 1 hit, a scratch single by Jackson. The White Sox put the game on ice in the second inning, scoring 4 runs. Stahl walked after the first 2 White Sox batters had been retired and Shurliff followed with his second hit, a booming triple. Hoffman walked, Henke doubled and Floberg tripled. Wisniewski pitched for the Red Sox.

Tuesday's late game saw the Yanks walloping the A's, 12-1. Leiman pitched for the Yanks and turned in a creditable performance, allowing only 3 hits. Haggard pitched for the A's and tried hard to stop the Yank sluggers. (Sp

Giants, Cubs Capture Routs

by RALPH WIEHRDT

Last Thursday's games in the Palatine National League were a makeup of rained-out games of July 22 and found the Giants trouncing the Cards and the Cubs doing likewise to the Braves.

In the opener the Giants topped the Cards, 8-2, pounding out 9 hits off Carver while he was striking out 8 and walking 3. Anderson was in good form, granting 2 hits, striking out 6 and walking 2.

Warder and Anderson with 3-for-3 were the Giants' hitting stars. Bicknase, McCormick, and Currey offered a hit each to swell the total. For the Cards it was Kane with a homer and Carver with a single to account for the 2 hits granted by Anderson.

IN THE FINALE it was Cubs over the Braves, 10-2. For 5 innings the contest was well-played and exciting, but Eilering weakened in the last frame and the Cubs took full advantage. Six runs on 4 hits and 3 walks, including back-to-back homers by Best and Carpenter turned the game into a rout.

Six hits, 8 strikeouts, and 5 walks were Eilering's record while Dettinger was giving up 4 hits, 3 walks, and striking out 14. Carpenter took batting honors with 3-for-3, including the homer, and Arendt offered a triple. Best had a homer and Wiehrdt a single for the Cubs. Eichberger with a double and triple was the leading Braves' batsman. Schwant with a single and M. Sheehan with a triple rounded out the Braves' scoring.

THE CARDS' loss and the Cubs' win necessitated the replay of the Braves-Card tie game that has stood on the record books since the opening night of the second half.

After a regulation game, darkness set in and the tie game will have to be re-played Thursday evening. The Braves had the game under control throughout, but an error coupled with 3 Card hits in the last inning brought in the tying run.

In the minors last Thursday the Cards beat the Giants, 4-0, and the Cubs trounced the Braves, 25-2, to throw the second half into a tie. (Sp

KICKIN' IT AROUND

by BOB FRISK

HERE'S THAT MAN AGAIN! A name becoming synonymous with championships in the Paddock golf tournament should be very much in evidence in the 1957 affair at Nordic Hills Country Club, Aug. 18.

HARRY DODDS

Harry Dodds, 17 S. Albert, Mt. Prospect, will be playing in his third Paddock tourney. This is a mark equalled by only 2 other men, John Brennan and Harold Thorsell, but Dodds has the edge in that he has played on 2 championship units—with Mt. Prospect Hardware in 1954 and K. Whitton Realty in 1956. Bob Hornbostel is the only other individual to play on 2 tourney winners, and he turned the trick in consecutive years, 1954-55.

Dodds, who is playing No. 3 man for Golden's Food Shop of the Mt. Prospect Monday night twilight loop, has a low score of 45 for the summer which he has recorded 3 times in league action. His next 2 low 9-hole marks are 49 and 51. Dodds fired a 95-24-71 in the '54 affair and came back with a 96-20 in last summer's meet.

Can Dodds become the first man to ever play on 3 Paddock golf tournament champions? We'll know more about that Sunday about 5 p. m.!

Tourney chatter: Three members of the Urick Landscaping team which gained 5th in '52 will tee off Sunday . . . Joe Urick and Max Mayrer are playing for Charles Klehm's Nursery, and Mert Taylor is No. 1 for Barrett Insurance . . . The Fourth man on that Urick team in '52 was Merv Fink of Arlington . . . Len Arnold's 71 in 1955 is the leading individual gross score in the 8-year history . . . Busse Motor Sales won girl's bowling championship at Mt. Frank Novatny, playing with Tioga Tuesday night entry, is athletic director at Fenton.

TONY BETTENHAUSEN will be one of the stout midwest entries for the United States Auto club midget auto races next Wednesday night at O'Hare Stadium, and it's doubtful that this part of the country will ever produce a harder or more colorful competitor.

Actually a farmer in southwest suburban Tinley Park when he isn't racing, Tony recently made headlines throughout the world when he established a new world's record of over 171 mph while qualifying for the big 500-mile race over at Monza, Italy.

Bettenhausen has had numerous narrow scrapes with death, but each time he has bounced back. Some years ago he was sidelined for six months with 2 broken legs and other injuries when he leaped from a midget on fire as it sped at 90 mph. More recently a midget he was handling turned over and pinned Tony against a cement wall as it careened around a Chicago track. Many said he wouldn't survive that accident and he actually suffered a very critical skull fracture, but he was back in action in a few months.

Next Wednesday he'll be back in midget action once again and for the first time at O'Hare. Tony has, however, taken time to look at the track and pronounces it "one of the best I've ever seen."

LEW GREEN, Arlington grad in 1956, is listed as a promising quarterback candidate for the Purdue varsity this fall . . . The Purdue brochure has this thumbnail sketch: "Freshman numeral winner from Arlington Heights, Ill. where he won letters in both football and track. An English-German youngster whose father competed in both football and track at New York City U. in late 20's. His hobbies are music and sports cars. He plays the trumpet."

Rut Walters, Northwestern track coach, is quoted in a Champaign paper as saying he is going to work with Arlington's Bill Palmer, state hight jump champ, as a hurdler. "I think he could be a great one," he noted. He doesn't have phenomenal speed but he has long legs and could perfect some form."

Dean Refram of Medinah, former outstanding athlete at Glenbard, edged Arlington's Tom Jacobsen, playing out of Rolling Green, 1-up for the Chicago District Golf Assn. Junior title . . . Refram, a 20-year old Florida Southern University junior, gained a 3 and 1 win over Denny Evans of Rolling Green and Arlington in the semi-finals . . . Mike Pyle, the New Trier product who broke Dick Winterbauer's state shot put record, will not head for Yale as previously announced . . . He has accepted a tender to Michigan State and will join his brother there . . . Johnny Walbaum of Barrington, who gained All-State honors in football, will enroll at Northwestern . . . Riverside Brookfield, Arlington's first conference grid opponent this fall, has 12 lettermen back and will be sparked by All-WSC end, Bob "Zeke" Ucherek . . . R-B coach, Jim Perkins, looks for Maine to be the conference power as does everyone else . . . Maine Vic Bagel, who had a brilliant week in the Cook County legion baseball playoffs, should be this area's top choice for All-State honors in football . . . Vic is a halfback.

ROSE-LO VS. HASEMANS for the softball championship of the Arlington summer league . . . The Aug. 15, 1947 sports page of Paddock Publications featured this game and indicated that the opposing pitchers would be Billy Becker, sporting a 10-2 mark, for Rose-Lo and Emmett Doyle (6-6) for Hasemans.

The Arlington high school basketball team honored Coach Clarence Iba at a farewell dinner at Hapsburg Inn. The squad members presented Iba with a calfskin gladstone bag. Iba, who was going to Muskogee, Okla., was to be replaced by Leo Bell.

Arlington's Redwings were ready to open a tourney stand against Grand Castle, with the latter boasting an impressive 11-3 record. In an intrasquad game the previous week a shortage of players had forced Art Schiewe, normally a third baseman or catcher, to take a turn at pitching and put Pete Groh, regular outfielder, behind the plate.

Another water ballet was to be held Aug. 16, and the Arlington Park District also announced all the youngsters who had registered in swimming and diving classes. Those registered included Craig Baldwin, Chris Kent, Alice Simroe, Ted Simroe, Emily Sherrill, Marshall Sherrill, Tom Bowersox, Ron Neuendorf, Mickey Harris, Robin Miller, Tom Theis, Suzanne Franke, Gil Robertson, John Theis, Dae Heckmiller, John Cooper, Ed Fritz, Bob Felker, Rog Ragland, Peck Hoffman, Tom Theis, Jim Laughlin, Don Neuendorf, Bill Cutler, Bunnie Baumann, and Rod Pelletier.

Busse Motors, Dunteman's Only Tourney Repeaters

Busse Motor Sales and Dunteman's Dairy are the only 2 teams in the 1957 Paddock Publications Inter-League Handicap golf tournament who have appeared in a previous meet.

Busse Motors, representing the Mt. Prospect Tuesday night league in the '57 affair at Nordic Hills, Aug. 18, has appeared in 2 other tournaments and finished third both times—in 1952 and 1953. Dunteman's played in the '54 tourney and also finished third.

Fourteen individuals of the 56 contestants are also appearing in at least their second tournament with one. Harry Dodds, shooting for his third straight championship in his third meet. Dodds played on the title teams of 1954 and 1956 with Mt. Prospect Hardware and K. Whitton Realty. This year he is playing with Golden's Food Shop.

THREE MEMBERS of the Urick Landscapers' unit of 1952 that finished fifth will be playing this Sunday with 2, Joe Urick and Max Mayrer, shooting for Charles Klehm's Nursery. Mert Taylor, a third member, is No. 1 man for Barrett Insurance of the Wayside league.

Bill Wilson, who plays on the Wheeling Lumber entry, saw action for L-Nor Cleaners' second place team last summer. Stewart Sage, playing with the Drivers of the Arlington VFW loop, played on a 10th place team in '56, firing a creditable 82-3-79.

Busse Motors' Larry Sbarbaro shot a 99-20-79 with K. Whitton Realty's fifth place squad in 1951, and Ralph Karner and Ray Seddon, teammates on Miller's Standard Service entry, both played on Rendezvous Cabin teams with the latter shooting 89-19-70 in pacing a second place finish in '54.

A THIRD member of the Miller's Standard Service team, Jim Biesterfeldt, played with Hugh's Body Shop in 1951 and his 86-12-74 was instrumental in guiding a fourth place finish. Bob Lee and Len Duntema n, both playing for Dunteman's 1957 entry, appeared in 1956 and '54 respectively and both played on third place units.

Lou Stefanik, a last minute substitution for Tom Barrett on the Barrett Insurance team, played with Stefanik's Foods in 1953 and shot 100-17-83 as the food shop captured sixth place with a net 316. Joe Bodor, No. 4 man for Koop's Mustard of the Arlington Heights twilight league, turned in a 107-26-81 in '53 as Webber Paint netted 313 for third place.

- What Population Increase Will Do To Us
- Heavier Taxes Are In The Offing
- We Ought To Be More Concerned

A 60 million increase in U. S. population by 1975 is predicted by U. S. News and World Reports, current affairs magazine. It points out that most of this increase will take place in the suburbs of the great urban centers of the country because the big cities are filled up and they will have to move into the suburban areas. That means we in Bensenville are in the path of this expansion.

Further, it says that our present community and school problems will be dwarfed by comparison with those to come from these renewed pressures of population growth. By that time the post-war baby crop will have grown up and will have begun to create families. If these predictions are correct, and it's hard to contradict them, our present village and school facilities as they exist today will become obsolete or wholly inadequate by that time.

This is not a pleasant picture, but it is one that springs out of the realities of our expanding economy and society. The basic social structure in this country is undergoing changes and we might as well prepare for them. We are going to live in more tightly congested communities than we have been used to.

The pressing problem for our villages and schools will be a continuation of the present vexing one of financing added facilities to take care of more people through direct taxation on real estate and personal property. Squeezing needed funds from these tax sources is expected to become harder and harder.

We think it will require some brand new ideas in methods of taxation, perhaps an overhauling of our whole tax apparatus from federal government down to school district. In fact, we have advocated in a previous discussion a review of our tax system and a study of the new needs that population expansion is bringing about. This new expansion, especially in fast growing urban centers is outmoding some of the old timeworn concepts that originated out of the needs of a rural society.

It is our opinion that such a review and study on a national scale is long overdue and ought to be begun promptly. We ought not have to live from tax emergency to tax emergency during the next 25 years. This in view of the predictions set forth would be inevitable under current procedure.

Sustaining this view are some impressive and rather obvious facts. Right now under our present procedure in home financing, new home purchasers are probably deducting a limit from their current pay-checks to meet payments representing principal and interest on the capital investment. Add to this a growing burden of local taxes, brought about by an expansion of local school and community facilities which have been financed through bond issues, and the increased costs of the operations of these facilities.

At this date it looks like we've gone as far as we can go, taxwise, locally, unless the size of pay checks is increased which would amount to deliberate inflation. This would only serve to make a bad situation worse.

Any expansion today (improvements whether they be public or private) is becoming more and more expensive. "Tight money" means higher interest rates and investment money is scarcer than it used to be and has become more selective.

Financing public improvements in the future will not be easier but harder on the taxpayer. This is another way of saying that the best days of our "post-war prosperity" are probably behind us. We will all have to work harder in the future as a community and as individuals to achieve our goals.

Three years ago Fenton high bought bleacher seats for one side of its gym only, as an economy measure. This cost was about $8,000. Now bleacher seats are needed for the other side. But what has happened? The cost has gone up. The seats today will cost about $12,000. Apply this principle to the overall local situation and you can understand how the homeowner is being slugged over the head with a heavier and heavier tax bill. The $64,000 question is how much can the average homeowning noodle stand?

The aim of this discussion is not to paint a picture of gloom, but rather to get our readers to see the realities of a condition that won't become better until more and more people are willing to give their attention to it. None of us have any intention of dodging our responsibilities as citizens of our community. Bensenville can never be more than we all together are willing to make it.

Today taxation and fiscal policy in our country is at the foundation of our individual and family well being. We cannot afford to leave their solution entirely in the hands of the experts, professional or political. What is done at Springfield and Washington determine finally what happens to us here in Bensenville.

It's the individual family man and woman who bear the brunt of taxation, nationally and locally in this country. That's why they have got a "say" coming, and if they are smart they will insist on having that "say."

Safety Check Saturday

Every Bensenville motorist Saturday will be able to acquire potential life saving information about the vehicle he uses with the mere expenditure of a few minutes of time.

THE OCCASION will be the village's first Safety Check day being sponsored by a special committee with representation from every civic and official group in Bensenville. They were quick to volunteer their services when the safety check idea was introduced by Chief of Police Harry Kolze some weeks ago.

Bensenville motorists will be welcomed throughout the day at the special Safety Check station being set up on Main st., south of the shopping center. It will take only 3 to 5 minutes to pass each vehicle through the series of inspection points.

DRIVERS WHOSE autos successfully pass the test will receive certificates proclaiming the fact. Those who fail will be given opportunities to have their defects fixed and then return for a 2nd inspection.

Things to be checked include brakes, lights, windshield wipers, rear view mirror, exhaust system, horn, steering, wheel alignment, glass, tires and wheels and muffler.

"THERE ARE 2 THINGS that we want to make sure everyone knows," says Chairman Dick Clute. "First, there will be absolutely no charge to persons taking the check and secondly, in case of rain the test will be postponed to the following Saturday, August 24."

Schools Open In Bensenville

Regular class work for pupils in Bensenville Elementary schools, District 2 and Fenton high school, District 100 will resume by the opening of the 1957-58 school year Tuesday, September 3.

The special time set aside for the high school freshmen orientation is Friday afternoon, August 30. More details on the entire school opening program will be found in next weeks issue of the Register.

ALL TEACHERS IN both the grade school and the high school faculties will spend the entire week beginning August 26 in meetings and groups planning and organizing numerous phases of the school work for the coming year.

Wood Dale Man Hurt As Auto Wallops Post

A 38-year-old Wood Dale man suffered facial and head bruises and lacerations when his car went out of control, leaped a ditch and crashed into a utility pole Friday.

COUNTY SHERIFF'S deputies who investigated said that Lloyd Peters, 340 Walnut st., was unable to keep the car on the pavement when a tire blew out. The mishap occurred on Wood Dale rd., north of Wood Dale. Peters was treated by a local doctor.

Mrs. Stella Kieca, Chicago, was taken to DuPage Memorial hospital, Elmhurst, following a crash at North and Ardmore aves., at the south edge of Addison Sunday night. She was a passenger in the auto being driven by her husband, Walter, 50, deputies stated.

The Kieca car collided with the auto being driven by William L. Hoffmeister, 21, Lombard, they said. Both cars were eastbound on North. Neither of the men were injured.

AN ELGIN motorist, Rupert Cane, 19, was charged with making an illegal turn by state police after his car was involved in a mishap with that of Charles Mensik, 38, RR 1, Elgin, Sunday on Lake st. in Ontarioville. No one was injured.

Disposal Plant Fill Aids Street

Wood Dale officials and citizens along Edgebrook rd. are happy these days to find that benefits are being reaped even as the result of early construction on the village's first disposal plant.

FILL BEING TRUCKED out of the excavation north of Irving Park rd. at Harvey is being hauled less than 3 blocks to be deposited on a 2-block section of Edgebrook extending southward from near Irving.

The purpose, as Edgebrook residents are fully aware, is to raise the level of the low stretch which has been flooded many times in past years 2 to 3 feet up to the height of Irving Park.

"And there's another reason too along the same line," points up Mayor Herbert Gilbert who spent considerable time earlier this week seeing that the project is carried through correctly.

"RAISING THE LEVEL of Edgebrook will save us considerable money for it will no doubt eliminate the need for a lift station in conjunction with the sewer system. Lift stations do not come very cheap."

Motor Scooter Taken From Boy By Itasca Police

The 2-seat motor scooter belonging to a 13-year-old Arlington Heights boy is locked up in the Itasca village hall as the result of his failure to heed the warnings of police in the village in connection with violations.

THE YOUTH and a companion about the same age were picked up recently by Itasca police who found the scooter had no license. The driver, of course, didn't either. The police gave the boy a stern warning and reminded him he isn't old enough to drive yet.

THEY SAY HE promised to take the scooter home and leave it there, however, he was arrested in Itasca a short time later on the same offenses. The case has now reached the complicated stage with the refusal of the boy's parents to pay a levied fine, the Itasca police say.

Bartlett's 1957 Firemen's Picnic This Weekend

Rides, entertainment, refreshments and that good, old fashioned friendly atmosphere will highlight the Bartlett volunteer fire department's 20th annual picnic this Saturday and Sunday.

THE YEARLY EVENT will be held in Bartlett park beginning at 6 p.m. Saturday and at 1 in the afternoon Sunday, the committee in charge of preparations announces.

Street dancing will be featured both evenings after 8:30. The fire fighters cordially invite all in the northwest suburban area to come out one or both nights for a good, whoesome time.

Roselle May Crack Down On Bad Sewer Connections

Roselle is faced with the possibility of conducting a vigorous campaign to compel many village residents to legalize their sewer connections.

THIS WAS DISCLOSED Tuesday by Village President Peter Ericksen who said that the new disposal plant is already being overtaxed during storms as the result of illegal connections between roof drains and sanitary sewer facilities.

Many Roselle residents, he suspects, may be making the practice in complete innocence of their wrong and others probably don't know for sure if their drains are running into the sanitary sewer lines.

ERICKSEN URGED these people to check and correct when necessary, and directed citizens who are knowingly taking part in the practice to cease immediately to prevent the need for a complete checking program. "The state has brought this matter to our attention," he revealed.

Bensenville recently began a correction and checking program to curtail the possibilities of heavy flooding in basements in the future. Persons who fail to amend their ways within a set period are being hit with fines which statutes say can range anywhere from $10 to $200 per violation.

Wood Dale Service Station Operator Sues Martin Oil

A Wood Dale man who operates a Chicago service station has petitioned Cook county superior court to stop a lottery operated by a competitor before it drives him out of business.

ISSUER OF THE complaint is Louis Spasojevich, 128 Irving Park rd., Wood Dale, who operates Lou's and Wally's Phillips gas station at 3001 N. Harlem ave. in the city. He seeks the injunction against the Martin Oil Service co.

If Martin is allowed to continue with the "illegal lottery, the plaintiff and others similarly situated will lose their businesses and livelihood and cutthroat, illegal competitive practices will spread throughout the area," the suit asserts.

MARTIN, ACCORDING to James L. Griffin, attorney for the plaintiff, has since July 23 "entered into, schemed, contrived and conducted a weekly giveaway scheme of lottery at its 50 service stations throughout Cook county, offering the winner choice of an automobile or $2,000 in cash."

Spasojevich complains that contestants are required to drive into a Martin station at least once a week to learn who won.

"The lottery is against public policy as a violation of the Illinois constitution and of law and gives Martin an unfair and illegal competitive advantage over the plaintiff and all others engaged in the retail gasoline business in the area," the suit contends.

Attorney Griffin said a lottery charge has been filed against a Martin station by Frank Bauer, operator of a Standard station at LaSalle and Erie in Chicago. It is slated to be heard Friday in Rackets court.

Building activity in rural Du Page bounced back slightly last month after a 2-month slump with the valuation from 333 permits hitting $3,008,525.

PERMITS for 127 dwellings accounted for $2,377, 100 of the total value. Total revenue to the county for the permits came to $12,568, according to the report of Clarence Schmoldt, Roselle, chairman of the county board's building committee.

HERE IS A breakdown of the other permits: 64 home remodelings, $154,327; research laboratory, $152,000; school addition, $108,400; 3 business buildings, $73,000; 64 garages and sheds, $7,866; 4 business additions, $30,000; 5 private swimming pools, $10,800; 11 signs, $2,705, and 1 swimming pool alteration, $1,000.

Roselle Denies Zoning Changes For Apartments

Apartments, for at least the time being, will not be built in Roselle, the village board decreed at its regular meeting Monday night.

THE TRUSTEES concurred with a recommendation handed down by the village's zoning board of apeals which called for denial of 2 petitions seeking zoning variations to permit building of 2 structures of one-story, 4-unit apartments.

Applicants in the cases were Edward Linneman, Ontarioville, and Roselle florist Paul Boehme. The zoning board held a public hearing on the petitions and then recommended on the basis of opinions expressed by the public at this session.

BENSENVILLE In The News

Home From East

Mr. and Mrs. John Kennedy and family are home again after a 3-week vacation spent visiting relatives near Hartford, Conn., and living in a cottage on the shore in Rhode Island where they and their sons had a wonderful time.

Ball Players

Jimmy Tranter, Ronnie Moser, and Bill Kortum, Bensenville ball players will be playing with the North DuPage All-Stars in the regional tournament at Morton Grove Thursday. The boys won the district meet so this is the next step up. Good luck, boys!

Home Again

Mrs. Forrest Altenburg and family are back home on S. Center st. after a 9-week stay at their summer home at Cass lake, Minn., where the fishing has been pretty good. Last Thursday their daughter, Audrey, Mrs. Donald Sperry and baby of Wheeling flew up to Cass lake to join the family for a few days, driving home with them over the weekend.

David Reynolds, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Reynolds of S. Walnut st., is spending 2 weeks at the encampment of the Air National Guard near Alpena, Mich.

Stig Dahlstrom accompanied 6 boys of post 12 explorers group on a one week canoeing trip in northern Wisconsin. Their base was at region 7 canoe base, but trips were made to various lakes with portaging between. Everyone had a real nice time and it was a wonderful experience.

Dangerous Trip

While their son, Butch, stayed in Green Lake, Wis., with friends and their daughter stayed with her sister here, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Polivka and Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Emory of S. Center, drove north to Lake Nipicon, Ontario, for a 2-week vacation, taking the Polivkas' good-sized boat with them. This is a pretty lonely part of the country, very wild with lots of game and very few people to deplete the lakes of fish. While there, they went farther in to another lake planning to stay just over night and since there would be much portaging and the stay so short, they didn't carry much extra food along. During the night a big wind came up, though it didn't rain, and the waves became huge—almost 8 feet high, making a return trip at that time too dangerout to attempt since the lakes up there have stone cliffs and the boat would have been dashed to pieces. The party was forced to stay there for 3 days existing on wild blueberries, fish they could catch, and coffee made from grounds used and re-used. After the third day they decided to try getting back to their camp, in spite of the hazards. It was some trip! The two women covered up with blankets so they wouldn't see the dangers. They made it, but the people back at the camp marvelled at their good fortune for as one man whose boat is a much bigger and sturdier craft than theirs remarked, "I wouldn't have gone out in that for a million dollars. How you did it, I'll never know!" Right now neither family is particularly interested in fish!

Mrs. Robert Prisk (Mary Ellen Polivka) of S. Judson st. is under observation at Elmhurst hospital.

Baptized

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Sparks Jr. of George st. and York rd. presented their infant daughter, Lois Eileene, for baptism at the 10:40 a.m. services of the EUB church on Lincoln st. Sunday morning. William Bryce, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Thomas of Palatine, was baptized also. Mrs. Thomas is the former Josephine Shramek of Bensenville. Rev. Normann Zurbrigg officiated.

Hilton Vacations

A wonderful two week vacation through 12 midwest and western states came to an end over the weekend when the Fred Hiltons and children Tommy and Susan returned to their home on Algonquin Road.

Their first major stopping place after crossing the plain states, was Colorado Springs where, among other things, they took the incline railroad trip up Mt. Manitou, then proceeded on burros up a mountain trail.

A tour through the Cave of the Winds, and a visit to the famed Will Rogers Shrine on Cheyenne Mountain also proved interesting.

Heading south from Colorado Springs, they moved on to Durango, Colo. The highlight of this stop was the all day train trip which they took on the narrow gauge train which runs between Durango and Silverton. This is the only narrow gauge train still in operation, and the trip itself is made through hazardous, but extremely beautiful, mountainous country.

The current movie, "Night Passage," starring James Stewart, was made along this train route, and will attest to the beauty of the country. After leaving Durango, they went on to Mesa Verde where they enjoyed guided tours through the ancient Indian cliff dwellings. Heading north through beauteous Utah and Wyoming, they enjoyed a stopover in Jackson and the Grand Tetons, before going on to Yellowstone.

Through here, the trip was highlighted for the children by the begging bear as well as other wildlife spotted along the way. Mt. Rushmore and the beautiful Black Hills of Dakota added to the pleasure of the trip as the family made their way home through Minnesota and Wisconsin.

Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Paul Yazel attended the Yazel family reunion in Farmers City, Ill.

Civil Air Patrol

For the lack of interest on the part of young people in Bensenville area, Bensenville unit of the civil air patrol was dropped by the committee. However, through the efforts of Marvin Rusteberg, William Arms and Mr. Tiberi, the committee has been persuaded to give Bensenville another chance. They are looking for a place with a big area where there will be place for drill and patrol activities. Most of all they want all boys and girls, 14 years and over, to join the patrol which is an auxiliary branch of the U.S. air force. They meet once a week for drill work and competitive activities. As rewards for good attendance ,interest, and work, the young people are taken up for airplane rides. Any boy or girl interested may call Mr. Arms or his daughter, Naomi, at PO. 6-0790 for more information. Don't let's hear that Bensenville has nothing for its young people. It's here for the asking. If you can't find something to do, maybe the trouble lies with you.

Mr. and Mrs. Berndt Dahlstrom returned Tuesday from a few days' vacation visiting Mrs. Dahlstrom's sisters, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Smith and family in Louisville, Tenn. and the James Reagen family of Seymour, Tenn.

Another family to join the growing group who have found how reasonably they can take a camping vacation with the aid of a folding trailer house is the Clifford Heinrich family of S. Barron st. Using the trailer home, which was made by Mrs. Heinrich's father from some plans now on the market, the Heinrich family took a tour of the Baraboo and Chippewa Falls area of Wisconsin, parking at regular camping parks at night where they were surprised to see how many people took advantage of the facilities. They had such a good time that next year they would like to take a longer trip.

FRANK NOVATNY, who will teach next year in the Fenton-Bensenville high school, has just completed an intensive two-week driver education course at the University of Illinois under Prof. A. E. Florio (right), a pioneer and nationally-recognized leader in this field. Sixty-seven persons were enrolled in the largest summer class since this teaching program started at Illinois in 1947. In 8 hours a day of work, the class met in classrooms and practiced with driver-training cars. The training is carried on in the College of Physical Education.

Novatny took the course under a scholarship awarded by the Allstate Foundation, which has actively supported the program.

Teen Chatter

school district 100.

Hi Gang!

While Judy is enjoying the hot weather of Oklahoma, I'll try and keep you up on the news of Teen Center. Last Thursday's Bermuda Bop seemed to be a success, but we wish we could have seen more boys in bermudas. The next dance is scheduled for August 22. Be sure to put this date on your calendar because it's the last dance before school starts.

Especially, remember tomorrow night when the Teen Center has its one and only Swimming Party of the summer at Travelaire Pool from 8:30 to 10:30. For those of you who didn't buy your tickets at the dance, tickets will be sold at the door. We hope to see a lot of you there!

Last night the Teen Center Board held its August meeting. The program committee is trying to plan varied activities for the coming year and would appreciate some of your suggestions. If you have any ideas, call Sharon Martin, PO. 6-4889. We hope this year will be one of Teen Center's finest.

Remember parents, if we want to have more activities we're going to need your help. If you are interested in chaperoning any of our activities, call Karen Pamper or Janet Wytral and tell them of your interests. If everyone takes his turn, you won't have to chaperone more than a few times.

Many of the committees can still use help. If you have any ideas or are interested in Teen Center, talk to one of the Board Members. I am sure they will appreciate any help you can give them.

So long for now!

Surprises Parents

Karen Kalousek, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kalousek of Hawthorn rd., planned a surprise party for her parents' 16th wedding anniversary Friday evening. When they returned from shopping they found 25 neighbors gathered to honor the occasion. Karen and a group of friends had homemade cakes and coffee prepared. Those who helped her were: Joanne Kauffman, Mary Therese Marriott, Karen Jefferson and Mary Ann Norton.

Week's Camping

The John Kalousek and Forrest Niccum families have returned home from a wonderful week spent camping at Peninsula State park on the peninsula between Fish Creek and Ephraim, Wis. They followed, by a week, in the footsteps of the Alfred Benzigers who spent 10 days up there. This threatens to be a White Pines campers' haven as each family returns with the same glowing enthusiasm for the beautiful village of Ephraim, the Theater-in-a-Garden, the quaint shops and Mother Nature's built-in air conditioning over the whole peninsula. Mrs. Kalousek's sister, Mrs. W. Norton, and daughter, Mary Ann, stayed behind with little Diane Kalousek.

Student Home

Fred Kauffman Jr. returned Sunday from Europe where he has been an exchange student at the University of Munich for the past 10 months. Originally from Knox college, Fred is a student of biochemistry. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kauffman, Fred and Joanne, are anticipating a family reunion in the near future with Carol who will be returning from nurse's training soon.

House Guests

Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Carlson, Ridgewood, had as their house guests Mrs. Carlson's parents, the L. L. Frasers of Minneapolis. The Carlsons with children, Marilyn and Johnny, accompanied the Frasers back to Mineapolis for a visit. Before returning home they drove to the resort of Millacs Lake in northern Minnesota for a few days' stay.

House guests this week at the Earl Blair home on Briar lane are the Blairs' daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Florup, Bob and Donna, of Greeley, Colo. Among their sightseeing trips around Chicagoland was 1 of interest enjoyed Tuesday with Bob Westcott of Pine Grove ave. as a guest. The group toured the Museum of Science and Industry, the lake shore with its many boats and did some shopping on State street.

Family Barbecue

The Frank Kalouseks entertained Mr. Kalousek's family at a barbecue dinner Sunday. There were 21 members of the family who enjoyed the get-together.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Anderson, White Pines road, have returned from a 5-day trip spent in Hayward, Wis., with friends.

A group of White Piners who meet regularly for pot luck suppers gathered Saturday evening at the Jack Quine home on Pine Grove ave. After dinner games were played.

Home From Wisconsin

Boating, swimming, and all the other interesting things to do in a resort area added to the pleasure of the week's vacation which came to an end last Thursday for the Frank Zimmer family of Red Oak st. Devils Lake, Wis., was their destination and the family thoroughly enjoyed their stay there.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Dolan were Sunday guests of the Charles Platchers at their home on Hickory street.

Mr. and Mrs. Arnie Kongevold had a very pleasant day Sunday at Lake Villa, Ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Trenhaie and family, the Martin Wildermoth family, and the McMillian family thoroughly enjoyed an all day picnic outing Sunday at Cedar ake. One of the highlights of their afternoon came when the Trenhailes' daughter, Joan Maryniak, won a trophy in one of the events.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Emminger enjoyed a visit Tuesday evening from the William Andorfs of Elmhurst.

Mr. and Mrs. John Sims have returned to their home after spending their vacation last week in Michigan. The first part of the week they spent in Detroit where they visited Mr. Sims' parents, and later in the week thy moved on to Clare and a visit with Mrs. Sims' family.

A former Woodcrest resident, Mary Kuffel, daughter of the Duane Kuffels, was a guest this week of Mary Sims, daughter of the John Sims of Hickory street.

Sunday was a long awaited day for the Earl Stouts' daughter, Diane, for she was celebrating her sixth birthday. Among the guests on hand to help make her party a success were her grandparents and her godparents.

The William Wanders home was pretty quiet last week with Dean and Billy both away at camp, but the boys are both home now and last week's quiet has vanished. They had a wonderful time boating, swimming, and fishing at Camp Shagbark at Camp Lake, Wis.

The Frank Zimmers were recently hosts at a cook-out supper party which honored their brother-in-law, Richard Slater, on his birthday. A delicious meal and fine time were enjoyed by everyone.

False Alarms

It has been reported that false alarms have been received by the fire department, with as many as 6 calls in one evening. Whether this is someone's idea of a joke or the pranks of a child, the problem is serious. Such alarms nearly resulted in the department not receiving a call. County Board Denies OK For Schaumburg Mix Plant

(CNS) — Led by Commissioner Fred Fulle, the county board Tuesday denied rezoning for a proposed ready mix concrete plant in Schaumburg township.

The unanimous vote overrode the county zoning board's recommendation to approve the project involving 38 acres on the west side of Rodenburg road and the north side of the Milwaukee road right-of-way.

THE PETITION was amended at a public zoning board hearing to consider reclassifying from farming to heavy industrial only the south 13 acres.

A delegation of nearby home owners was present Monday when the case was before the county board public service committee.

Fulle said all of them were against the rezoning plea because the concrete plant would be near a church and a school. (PF

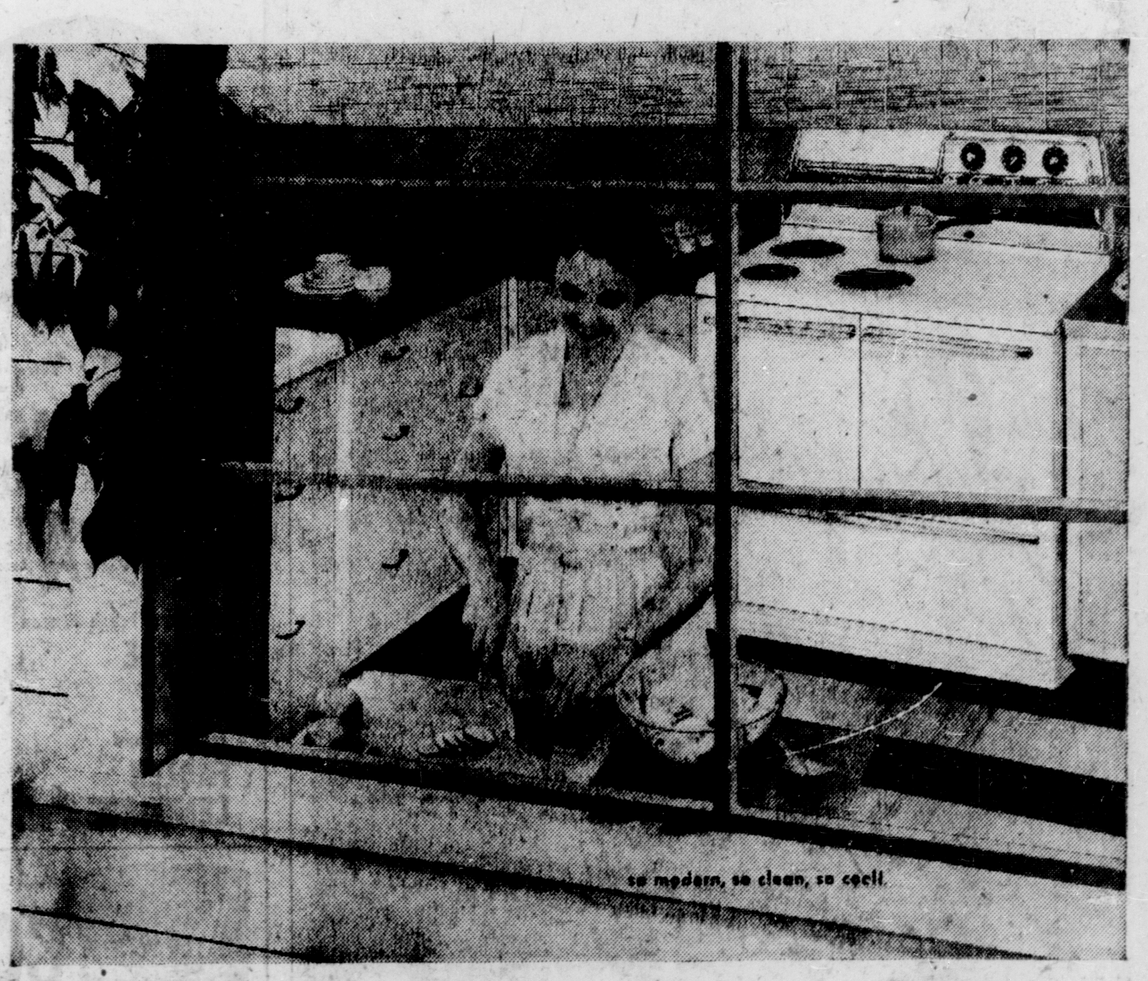
Nothing gives your kitchen
THE MODERN LOOK
like a modern electric range



so modern, so clean, so cool

. . . nothing cooks cleaner, cooks cooler or cooks food faster!

As this modern kitchen clearly shows, today's trend is to electricity. And perhaps the best example of this is the electric range.

Smart looking, convenient. Insulated on all 6 sides (as are all electric ovens) you get even, steady heat for baking and roasting. No guesswork with electric surface units either. The heat you set is yours automatically every time. And the heat goes directly into the bottom of the pan, not up the sides and into your kitchen.

But the thing you'll appreciate most is the way your electric range stays modern—year after year.

ADDISON AUXILIARY

Addison Post No. 7446

Yes, vacation time is nearing to an end and soon schools will reopen. The parents all seem to be looking forward to this event. I wonder why?

So now for some news of our steadily growing VFW organization:

Our Post Color team has again been chosen to carry the colors for the Fifth District! Congratulations and keep up the good work boys.

At our recent carnival we were honored with the presence of our Fifth District commander and auxiliary president.

On September 7 the auxiliary is participating in a community drive for funds to equip an ambulance which was donated to the Village of Addison earlier this year. Helen Schwarz is our VFW representative to the executive board in charge of this drive. June Schmidt is captain of the collection crew and still needs additional workers. Any members willing to donate their time for a very worthwhile cause please call her at TE 4-4366. All local organizations are participating in this drive.

Hope everyone is making plans for attending our annual picnic which is this month, August 25, at the Addison Forest Preserve. There will be games and prizes for all. Bring your own supper.

On August 18, our Fifth district meeting is being held at Libertyville at 2:30 p.m. Any auxiliary member wishing to attend please contact Lorraine Schoenbeck. These meetings are always very interesting and lots of fun too. Supper is always served by the home Auxiliary. Let's have several cars full attending.

So sorry to report that Alma Krage is back in the hospital again after a relapse.

Good news from another member . . Gordon Erickson is coming home from Hines hospital in about 2 or 3 weeks. A physical therapist will work with him here at home. So now all you members, no more excuses about not being able to visit.

In spite of the fact that hardly any officers were able to attend our last Auxiliary meeting there was a very good attendance just the same. And don't forget to keep bringing in new members girls. Membership cards are available from our treasurer, Lois Miller.

Come on you fellows and phone in some news. According to the length of your meetings you must know something! If I don't hear from you soon I'll start asking your wives, and I'll bet they could tell me plenty!

See you next week.

ADDISON MERCHANTS

Addison's father-son banking combination

If you ever start talking about the Addison State bank you are also bound to quickly get around to the Miessler family. The 2 are virtually synonymous and rank as long time, respected names in the village.

THE BANK WAS ORGANIZED in 1902 in the same building it occupys today at 32 E. Lake st., but this will all change with the coming of 1958 for a completely new, larger and more modern bank building is now under construction at Addison rd. and Notoma ave. in Addison.

President of the bank, Ernest G. Miessler, has been in the business from the ground up for some 40 years. He had 6 years of experience in the business in Chicago when he accepted a position at the Addison bank and moved to the village with his bride, Frieda, some 34 years ago.

HE HELD THE POST of cashier for 32 years before advancing to the presidency in 1955. The elder Miessler was succeeded in the cashier's window, ironically, by his son, Richard F. Miessler.

The Ernest Miesslers seem to have brought all 4 of their children up with the idea that Addison is a good place in which to live for none have strayed from the village even after the advent of matrimonial ties.

Richard resides at 120 N. Wisconsin with his wife and 3 daughters. Howard H. Miessler, married with a son, lives at 229 E. Lake. Their 2 daughters, now Mrs. Lois Rathje and Mrs. Betty Franke, have homes at 13 E. Lake and 309 S. Iowa respectively.

The Rathjes have 2 sons. Mrs. Franke has added work at the bank to her housekeeping chores. The parents have their home of many years at 129 N. Addison rd. (D

Designs Boats

A line strung with colorful code flags drew the neighborhood youngsters (and myself) to the Ross home at 102 W. Irving Park rd. Upon investigation we found that the flags were to be used on a new boat being launched at the Grebe Boat co. on the Chicago river. Eldine Ross, who has been a designer for the Grebe co. for approximately 30 years, has designed many boats, including boats for the navy during the war. Mr. Ross said that this boat, "Late Tape," launched Monday was the most streamlined one he has ever designed. It cost $70,000 to build and is quite a luxury craft, with air-conditioning, a hi-fi that plays continuously for 5 hours and many other luxurious features. The boat will be taken to Palm Beach, Florida, where the owner will use it to live in when vacationing at the resort.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Grant and children, Susan and Bill, of S. Howard st. spent their vacation at Balsam lake, Wis. Mrs. Grant and Bill were the "champs" when it came to fishing. A foam rubber cushion was one item of equipment Mrs. Grant (Pat) took along in the boat each day. According to Pat it eased the situation.

Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Whitney of W. Irving Park rd. have returned from a month's vacation which they spent traveling thru the west and northwest. One high spot of their trip was Olympia Peninsula in Olympia National park. While in Salt Lake City they attended a concert in the great Mormon tabernacle, then had the horrible experience of being stranded on the Salt Lake desert in a sand and rain storm. The Whitneys visited many historic and scenic points of interest and had a wonderful vacation.

The Roland Hanke family and their daughters, Cindy and Debbie, and the Harold Binneboeses with their daughter, Carol, spent their vacations together at Columbian lake near Wampaca, Wis. [illegible] families enjoyed the swimming, fishing and boating at the resort.

Registration for All New Schaumburg Pupils Aug. 23

Registration of all children new to Schaumburg grade school district 54 will be held Friday, Aug. 23, in the Community Center barn, Robert Flum, superintendent of schools, announced this week.

Hours of registration will be from 9 a.m. to noon and 1 to 3 p.m.

Registration applies to all children entering the first grade and those in grades 2 through 8 who have not previously attended school in the district. This does not apply to children enrolled last June during the regular registration period.

A CHILD MUST be born between Jan. 1 and Dec. 31, 1951, to be eligible to enroll in the first grade. No exceptions are made to this requirement. First grade enrollees should bring their birth certificates while children enrolling in other grades must have transfer forms from their previous schools.

Flum said that according to Jack Hoffman, vice president of F & S Construction co., severe rains in the past few weeks have greatly slowed construction on the new Parcel C school building. As a result, the building will not be entirely completed by Sept. 3 as planned.

THE SUPERINTENDENT added that Hoffman assured the board that several rooms will be completed and ready for use Sept. 3 and the remaining rooms should be completed by Sept. 15.

With these facts in hand, Flum said, all schools will begin full-day classes the day after Labor Day, Sept. 3.

Flum added that there are still several vacancies on the teaching staff and those interested and qualified, even if they are former teachers, should contact him at Fairview school in Hoffman Estates for details.

B-Ville All-Stars Top W. Chicago

The 1957 Bensenville All-Stars brought the first All-Star win home Thursday when they defeated West Chicago 4-2. It was a fast-paced, action packed game, and whatever your taste in baseball might be this game had it.

The Bensenville team displayed 2 double plays, both of which included sensational pegs to home plate by their crackerjack outfielders; a dramatic score tying home run, a 3-way collision when their outfielding crew converged on a hard-hit liner; and 4 innings with 1 of Bensenville's star pitchers holding West Chicago scoreless and to only 1 hit.

If you prefer it done the quiet way, you had that in the 7th when the West Chicago pitcher forced in 2 runs, ending the game in Bensenville's favor after a 2-inning tied score deadlock.

LARRY HANSEN and Bill Economos were the fleet-footed, strong-armed outfielders responsible for the double plays in the 1st and 2nd, both of them throwing runners out at the plate. Cub Nick Gullo, man in charge of guarding home plate, was the other half of these actions. In the 3rd inning 3 Bensenville Fielders collided with shortstop Keith Peterson coming out of it the worst for wear. Keith had to leave the game at this point. In this play the count was raised to 2-0, with West Chicago holding the upperhand.

In the 4th Bensenville bats banged away with Bill Economos and Carl Reed slashing out a single each. Tommy Wedell followed with a solid double, sending home Bensenville's first run. In the 5th Jimmie Spangler, Dodger "fence-denter" sent a smash over center fielder's head giving him the scenic tour of the basepaths and Bensenville their tying run.

IN THE 6TH Jim Engel got a double but he was left to perish on base, and the game entered extra innings. Bob Calia started the 7th rolling with a 2-bagger. Rick Gellerson walked and Bill Economos got a single to right to load the bases. Wytrwal was given a free pass to first and Jim Engel was hit with a pitched ball sending home the 2 winning runs and ending this hectic affair in a very calm manner.

Through all this Rick Gellersen, Dodger speed ball artist, very calmly and doggedly set about to strike out 7 men in 4 innings, allowing only 1 hit, and that a meek stroke past 3rd. This team is scheduled to play an exhibition game in West Chicago Monday night. (Sp

14 Foursomes In Paddock Tourney Sunday

Harris, Kleinofen, Lee, Sage To Tee-Off First at 11:30

Fore!

That will be the cry at 11:30 a.m. Sunday, August 18, at Nordic Hills Country club when the first foursome of Paddock Publications Inter-League Handicap golf tournament steps up for tee-off.

Fourteen foursomes will be striving to take home the large traveling trophy, the 12 individual medals and the dozen golf balls in the eighth annual Paddock tournament. First place teams of 14 twilight golf leagues have been chosen, handicaps have been computed, and the chase is on.

There is no $50,000 prize awaiting the winners, but action in the Paddock tourney is certain to be lively. Defending titlist league is Mt. Prospect Monday league, though Whitton Realtors, actual foursome copping the title for that league a year ago, won't be there.

FIRST FOURSOME will include Avery Harris of Kamps Signs and Old Orchard Scratch league and Chuck Kleinofen of Koop's Mustard of Arlington Heights league at Mt. Prospect. Both of these men are 1-handicap players. Others in the group are Robert Lee of Dunteman's Dairy of Rob Roy Tuesday league and Stewart Sage representing Arlington VFW loop. Both of these men are 4-handicap players.

Complete list of foursomes with handicaps is listed in this issue. Handicaps were computed on basis of 80% of the difference between a player's average 9-hole score for his 5 best nights and par for the course on which he plays. This handicap, including fractions, was multiflied by 2 to obtain the 18-hole handicap.

ALL GOLFERS must be on time for their foursomes. Expected times of tee-offs are published this week. The tournament growing to 14 foursomes it will take 1½ hours for all golfers to start play. But many of the early golfers' minds will be set at ease if they know their complete team showed up before teeing off. Last year one team was almost disqualified when one member was delayed by a flat tire.

Alternates have been named by most leagues. These men are urged to be present in case someone fails to show for the tournament. Last minute substitutions can be made, though such substitutions must have a record of their 5 best scores with them providing their league secretaries haven't already turned those scores in to the tournament manager.

NORDIC HILLS Country club is located south of Medinah, a little south of Irving Park rd. Golfers can best find their way there by driving south on route 53 from route 19. Turn off for Nordic Hills is between routes 19 and 20. Just how golfers can get around the toll road detours changes from week to week. As of Tuesday, the best route for Arlington and Mt. Prospect golfers is to go south to route 58, west to 53, thence south to the course.

There are several firsts for this year's tournament. The 14 foursomes is a new record as interest in twilight golf increases. This is the first year for St. Raymond twilight league to participate. That loop has 2 divisions, thus 2 entries. This is the first time for Our Lady of the Wayside loop, playing Chevy Chase, first time a competing foursome in the tourney has come from that particular course.

TIOGA VFW league of Bensenville has grown to 2 divisions. Thus, there is an additional entry from Du Page county. Tournament promoters had to decide on the 2 divisions of another league which had just 6 teams in each division, and ruled that for a league to have 2 entries there have to be separate divisions of competition, with at least 8 teams in each half.

And if you like puns, there are 3 VFW teams fighting for honors, plus a delicatessen battling a supermart.

WHAT'LL IT TAKE to win the tournament? Usually a 290-300 net. Foursomes can best start with 290, add their handicap, then shoot for that total with an eye as to where to put the trophy.

Golfers are asked to stick around at the course until the tournament is over. Paddock Publications photographers will be taking pictures of foursomes finishing first, second and third, plus low individual champ.

WEDNESDAY OF THIS WEEK the Inverness Golf Club paid tribute to a great guy, their pro Stan Arendt, with a special day in his honor. Stan has served the membership of Inverness since way back in 1927, a full 30 years ago when the course was only 9 holes and known as the Meadowbrook Golf Club and owned by the Cudahy Packing Company. Now Inverness has a beautiful clubhouse and is leased and operated by the membership along the lines of the better clubs of the Chicago area.

Last fall Stan suffered a severe heart attack but it is hard to keep a man of Stan's caliber down and the popular Inverness pro is back at the old stand again.

He is now giving some lessons, operating the pro shop, and getting in some very good golf aided by mechanical transportation. Stan is on a restricted schedule but is out at the club all the time doing everything possible to help the membership enjoy their golf. By the way, Stan is playing even better than before his illness.

SUNDAY AFTERNOON the Paddock Publications Annual Golf Tournament is scheduled at Nordic Hills Golf Club for the leading teams in the 14 twi-light leagues operating in the Paddock news area. Nordic Hills is a real sporty layout located just off highway 53 to the west and just about three quarters of a mile south of Irving Park Road. We played the course recently and were much impressed with the natural beauty of the course which has its setting in a hilly and quite heavily wooded area. The first 9 is especially interesting with thick woods lining the fairways to catch hooks and slices.

It is our impression that the player who concentrates on good direction instead of distance will go out in front on the first nine as the holes are not long but can be full of trouble for shots which stray off the direct line to the green.

Another point to keep in mind is that the greens are fast and your 7, 8, or 9 iron won't stick the ball on the green unless dropped near the front of the green. We found to our sorrow, after having to take extra approach shots on the first 4 holes, that the best policy was a pitch and roll game. As a 15 handicap player, we shot well over what we should due to this approaching problem on the first nine. The fairways are in wonderful shape making summer rules which will be used in the Paddock tournament no handicap to anyone.

The greens are very fine and putting is about the same on all of them.

Nordic Hills is a daily fee course but, like others which have formerly been private clubs, has retained all the locker room and refreshment facilities of a private layout. Sunday's tournament will be held in a setting which will be enjoyed by the participants and by anyone who wants to get out for a game on a good daily fee course.

A WEEK FROM MONDAY football practice will get underway in Illinois high schools. Most of them will have physical exams required of players in advance of that date and equipment issued on the weekend. This year Palatine High is asking all who go out for football except the freshmen to see their family doctor and take care of getting their physicals before the deadline. Freshmen will be examined at the school but others must pay for their own check ups. Players who report late may not compete in the first game unless they have 14 days of practice before the opening game, whether or not the team practices twice a day. This state rule is to insure good condition before competitive play in an effort to avoid injuries.

Most coaches ask their boys to report in good condition so that hard work may start the first day. They are encouraged to run and do calisthenics on their own to get in shape. According to the state rules, no practices may be held in advance of the state opening day.

Groups of boys getting together to practice without the coach violate the rules just as though he were there and particularly so if he has issued balls or other equipment which encourages such action. A number of Illinois schools have been punished for violating this rule and have had to forfeit some of their first scheduled games and forced to start the season several weeks later. The regulations are quite clear but there seem always to be a few unscrupulous individuals who want to evade the spirit of the rule. Enforcement is not so easy. Some schools complain about their neighbors but the real enforcement must come from within the schools themselves for they made the rule and must punish their own coaches who bring a bad reputation to the school through breaking the association rules and taking advantage of their opponents.

German Shepherd Obedience

Again this year, as last, the German Shepherd Dog Training Club of Chicago will be the host club for the German Shepherd Club of America when the obedience trial classes for this breed are held Sunday, August 25, at the Chicago club's training ground, located on rt. 53 south of Lombard.

This is one of the outstanding German Shepherd obedience trials in the nation, and the event will get under way with the tracking tests at 8 in the morning to be followed by various regular obedience classes at 10. Judging will continue throughout the day and all classes will be finished by approximately 8 p.m.

Doberman Specialty Show

Also of general interest to readers in the area will be the 12th annual specialty of the Doberman Pinscher Club of Chicagoland to be held October 13 at Oak Lawn.

Although it does seem a little early to start talking about a show to be held in October, what makes this particular show outstanding is that the judge will be Will Rothfuss of Stuttgart, Germany. He is considered tops on his continent as a judge and authority on Dobermans. Although this will be his first visit to the United States, his name and achievements are quite familiar to many of the American Doberman judges and fanciers.

Further information regarding this show could be obtained by writing to Phoebe Hansen, entry correspondent, 6259 Sheridan rd., Chicago 40.

Dog Populations

The total population of dogs in this country has often been mentioned and it might be of general interest to readers to know the situation in some of the European countries. Although facts and figures can often make for rather dry reading, at least there are some breeds of dogs mentioned in the following tabulation which very few people have ever heard about, much less seen. The data was compiled by the Gaines Dog Research center:

Holland: estimated dog population, about 700,000; dogs registered annually, about 7,000 most popular breeds, Boxer, English Cocker, Poodle, Alsatian, (German Shepherd) Miniature Pinscher, Fox Terrier, Pekingese and Airedale.

Sweden: dog population, about 300,000; dogs registered (1956) 136,831; most popular breeds Kortharig Tax (smooth haired Dachshund), Drever (a hound similar to the Harrier), Hamilton-stovare (a Swedish hare hound), German Shepherd, English Cocker, Miniature Poodle, Stravharig Tax (wire-haired Dachshund), Boxer and Pekingese.

Switzerland: dog population, about 100,000; dogs registered annually about 7,000; leading breeds about 7,000; leading breeds, German Sheepdog, Collie, Airedale, Terriers, Boxer, Poodle and Dachshund.

Temporary Pets

Families on vacation in the country or at summer resorts should not adopt dogs or other pets unless they intend to keep them permanently.

The adoption of "summer pets" often comes about when parents heed the pleas of the children to accept the puppy that someone has offered. But when the summer ends and the family returns to the city "where" the parents explain "it would be too much trouble," the pet is left behind or guiltily dropped out of the car several miles distant. Perhaps it is a foundling stray that has been taken in and who, after briefly knowing kindness, is again forsaken.

People who abandon pets like to think that the animals will "find" new homes, but there is ample proof that this rarely happens. If the family could only see the suffering of the deserted dog in his desperation, his fear and hunger and possible injury or death on the road as he tries to follow, they might think twice before being guilty of abandonment. Announce Dates For Physicals At Fenton High

All boys who plan to join the Fenton high school football squads this year are requested to be present at the training room in the athletic department next Thursday and Friday, August 22 and 23, for physical examinations.

The examinations will begin promptly at 9 a.m. on each day listed and will be conducted by Dr. Hasbrouck. Coach Paul Henry is particularly eager to have all those who will participate examined at this time in order that training and practice schedules may begin the following week. According to State school law, boys are not to be permitted to play or practice until a physical examination has been completed for each year. There are also a prescribed number of practice days required before a boy is permitted to play.

Since Monday, Aug. 26, is the first day on which practice is permitted, the coaching staff plans to have examinations and the distribution of equipment done prior to that time. (Sp—"D"

This Sunday, Aug. 18, is the Paddock tourney at Nordic Hills Country Club. As many golfers as possible should be there to help Miller's Standard Service win it.
